Rt. Hon. Senator Meighen,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

On several occasions in past years I have written you, mostly for information, and I have appreciated very greatly the courtesy of your replies.

On this occasion I may say that I am so deeply interested in that recent address you gave on "The Greatest Englishman, - Am Shakespeare," that I thought I might possibly secure from you an autographed copy for my souvenir collection. Is this asking too much?

I do not wish to appear a flatterer but I have been, and still am a very enthusiastic admirer of you.

Please do not construe this as a bid for publicity.

Sincerely,

Leonard J. Boucher
