Ottawa, 29th April, 1909.

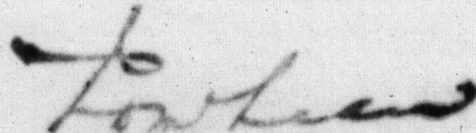

Sir,

941 / 21

Referring to your letter of the 20th instant with enclosure, I beg to state that Madeline Delorme, pupil No. 65 of Cowessess Boarding School, may be sent to the Indian Head Hospital for operation and treatment, if the parents are willing.

Should the parents object to send their child to the Indian Head Hospital but would be willing to let her go to the St. Boniface Hospital you may send her to the latter institution.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

M. Millar Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Crooked Lake Agency,
Broadview, Sask.
