

Mr. Chairman, Canada may, if she will, win for herself such a future ; and it will, I doubt not, be the ever constant prayer of her people that for all ages the same flag shall float over Canada and the mother country, and that the empire may ever remain, as it is to-day, the freest, the most progressive, the most enduring of all human institutions. (Cheers.)

---