 About a hundred and thirty are continually employed in the we all aim at one point, (as we did from when we first engaged in the work :) Not at any more than at ease, or pleasure, or the praise of ; but to spread true Religion through London, Dublin, Edinburgh, and, as we are able, through the three Kingdoms; that truly rational Religion, which is taught and prescribed in the Old and New Testament; namely, The Love of God and our Neighbour, filling the heart with Humility, Meekness, Contentedness, and teaching us, on the one hand, whatever we do, to do it all to the glory of God; and, on the other, to do unto every man what we would they should do unto us. This is our point.
 We leave every man to enjoy his own opinion, and to use his own mode of worship, desiring only that the Love of God and his Neighbour be the ruling principle in his heart, and shew itself in his life by an uniform practice of Justice, Mercy, and Truth. And accordingly we give the right hand of fellowship to every lover of God and man, whatever his Opinion or Mode of worship be; of which he is to give an account to God only.

CXXXII. This is the way (called Heresy by Dr.
 M'Lean and others,) according to which we worship the God of our fathers. And we have known some thousands who walked therein, till their spirits returned to God. Some thousands we likewise now know who are walking in the same path of love, and studying to have a conscience void of offence towards God and towards man. All these as they fear God, so they honour the King, who is the minister of God unto them for good. They submit themselves to every ordinance of man, for the Lord's sake. Mean time they expect, that men should say all manner of evil against them, for their Master's sake. But they have counted the cost, and are willing to be as the filth and obscuring of the world. Yea; they have many times shewn, that they counted not their lives dear unto themselves, so they might finish their course with joy, and testify the gospel of the grace of God.
