Brobincial Wesleyan.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1873. THE CONFERENCE.

week reaches the hands of the major por-tion of its readers, Conference, it is to be This has been its fate for several years in succession, yet its, treatment by the Com-women, and some of them with infants in this fact it was thought by the lay mempresumed, will have nearly, if not quite, finished its task, but at the moment of writing it has only fairly begun its work. We are not therefore yet in a position to remark at large upon its proceedings, or in any way to appreciate the character of its. any way to appreciate the character of its performances. While we write the leading questions upon which Conference will be called upon to pronounce, have not com-before it for discussion. The members of the appearance, though a few look somewhat ful appearance, though a few look somewhat conterence present generally wear a health-ful appearance, though a few look somewhat enfeebled and will rest to recuncrate But enfeebled and will rest to recuperate But Many of our Legislators are indebted for the occupant of the intensely bitter to the Circuits in which this falling off had tions of hymus 469, 257, 330 and 205 then, several ministers who last year, un- very many more shrink from any act or feeling with which the movement in the taken place. der the pressure of affliction, withdrew from vote which would place them under the ban midst of the agricultural labourers, is re-Supernumerary Fund Committee and the active work of the ministry, this year of the Licensed Victuallers. Alas! for in garded by the landlords and upper classes Parsonage aid Fund and Sabbath-School with health recruited re-enter it. Several young brethren who have completed their young brethren who have completed their moderate instalment of Legislative control condition. It is, of course, a new thing probation, are to be received into full con- of a wicked and defiant trade, went over to under the sun, and has called forth intense nexion and ordained, and some twelve the side of the majority, and others were opposition from the masters, and severest absent from their places altogether. The promoters of the measure are not at under the reach of the law as it is adminyoung men who believe they are drawn to absent from their places altogether. the good work by Divine influence, are just all inclined to abate their efforts or abandon ister d by local magistrates. It is all in about to enter upon their probationary course the enterprise. They can now fully esti- vain, as the movement is daily gathering mate the mighty influences which are array tresh power and breadth. In many coun for the ministry.

If we cannot at this date say much about ed against them, and have occasion to re- ties wages have been raised, tamilies have the work of the Conference, we are in a position to state that the proceedings of the Preparatory Committees and the results are Preparatory Committees and the results ar- God, and earnest thoughtfal workers in all carried out.

in France-Spain and Italy.

rived at by them, have been of an interest- departments of social reform. The great The Alexandra Palace, which was in tended to be for the North of London, what ing character. The Stationing Committee, cause is making real and solid progress. Mr. Miall's motion for the Disestablish- the famous Crystal Palace is to the South of course, has been busily at work, and in ment of the English Church met with but has been unfortunately totally destroyed by the first draft of the Station Sheet we have scant courtesy from the compact and formihad a glimpse of the result of the Commit- dable majority arrayed against it. There failed to interest the public or prove re tes earlier deliberations. All we have to was an evident intention to repress discussay about it is that many of the appoint- sion and force the matter to an early divis- cently-under a new management-it has ments are as judicious as any uninspired body could pessibly make some of them body could possibly make, some of them are as just and reasonable as the Commit-It is plain that the impending elections and grounds. The fire has not only destee knew how to make, some are as suita- have largely influenced this vote, and led to a troyed the whole of the building, but many ble as the Committee was able to make, a few of them will doubtless be altered for the better. When the Committee shall have the better. When the better the better the better. The Committee shall h concluded its labours, we trust both minis- couraged. Events within the Church are the building, and its destruction is very ters and people will accept them as the best that could be done under the circumstan-as that without, and the question cannot be that could be done under the circumstances. We need scarcely say that the Itincrant system is upon the whole a most effi-rant system is upon the whole a most efficient one, but that it necessarily involves in the Church, and there is no effective rem-in its working, many hardships to minis- edy either at the hands of the Bishops or The Shah of Persia, Nasser-Eddin-t ters and their families, and occasional sac- from the Ecclesiastical Courts. Quite re- give to your readers his exact name, has rifice of preferences on the part of the for the establisment of licensed Confessors is now on his way to our shores. The people. But if the hardship is borne in the Church, and the sanctioning of ser- visit of this Oriental Prince to Europe is Christianly and the sacrifice made unmur- vices in honor of the Virgin Mary, and making a great sensation, and from all muringly, the Divine blessing may be con- prayers for the spirits of the departed. On accounts he is travelling in style betitting fidently anticipated by those who bear the and in the magnificent Cathedrals these over which he reigns. He appears a quiet one and make the other. pestilent errors have found a lodgment. intelligent Prince, intent on observing all The investigations of the Book Room The National Church of England is rapid- he possibly can, and learning what western Committee disclose some pleasing results. ly becoming a vast hotbed of daugerous civilization might possibly do for him and The financial condition of the Book Room establishment was found to have still fur-then improved using the still furtions on Disestablishment-The Tich- population of England participated in an St. John His Honor, Governor Wilmot, an increased sense of my insufficiency, yet and borne trial-M. Theirs' fall, and parties almost universal holicay. Many, slas! was also present for a short june. confident that my sufficiency is of God. I will. ran to a sad excess of riot and dissipation; The receipts of Contingent Fund were endeavor to discharge the duties of my position

DEAR MR. EDITOR, - Sir Wilfrid Law- but yet, on the whole, it was a grateful re- in advance of previous years, but the ordi- with regard to claims of God and the interests Before the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN this reek reaches the hands of the major por-rejected by an overwhelming majority.

were sung and prayers offered by Revs. Dr.

Committees meet to-morrow, of which reports will be presented to Conference and reported for PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.

Fredericton, N. B., 25th June 1873. Specially reported for the Provincial Wesleyan.)

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS.

First Day .- The Nineteenth Annual onference of Eastern British America Rev. G. S. Milligan and Howard was opened on Thursday, 26th June, 1873. Sprague were requested to act as Conter-, a. m., by the President, the Rev. J. Hennigar who gave out the 478th Hymn commencing "And are we yet dress. alive." &c., after which the Secretary Rev.

D. D. Currie, read the 10th Chapter of the were designated to the work of receiving will embrace all the great and good of whom 1st Epistle to the Corinthians, and two of and disbursing the Conference Collections. we have so often read! We have traced their On motion of Rev. H. Pope, Jr., second- "footsteps on the sands of time," and I often Davies and Henry Daniel, offered earnest ed by Rev. Dr. Pickard, the thanks of the wonder, if we have (as we often have.) praver.

and J. Gaetz.[±]

appointed sub-Secretaries.

Pickard, Thos. Harris, H. Pope Jr. J

England, M. Pickles, R. Weddal, J. Hart,

The Rev. J: Pike was appointed assistant

The President said he would not take up dent, Rev. J. G. Hennigar, for the efficient to stand face to face with them on the banks of the by referring at any great length to and satisfactory manner in which he had the "classy sea," and together sing " the song the year past. It was, however, matter of discharged the duties of his office as Presi-of Moses the servant of God and the song of par past. It was, however, matter of unscaarged the during the past year. The President, of Moses the servant of the and on a loved ones their lives, although one aged minister had, Rev. Dr. Stewart in presenting the thanks during the year, been called away. God to the ex-President said it afforded him throughout the year had been blessing us as much pleasure, as one of his, the ex-Presi- us who are left behind to buffet the wildernes a Church. On some sections of our work dent's, young men of other years to do so. storms, waiting to lead us hand in hand on ot God had abundantly poured out his spirit, cession to our numbers. Thankful that God he valued the esteem and confidence of comes we with wings like a dove (the celestial God had spared him to resign the trust his brethren. Assisted by the prayers of the plumage of faith, hope, and love) may soar build with as little delay as possible, and committed to him last year, he would now Conference he had been enabled to discharge the upwards to the Sabbath of our God and be at at once to renew the dedication of our-The hearts of many are pained at the in- in the meantime the beautiful Gardens call upon the Secretary of Conference to duties assigned to him. Soon after Conference rest for ever."

read that part of the address of the British be repaired to Newtoundland and was received That Bro. Cranford has entered upor Conference which related to the officers of there with great cordiality. He saw many the full and eternal enjoyment of what he impressive season as God's servants thus this Conference for the present year. The portion read contained the consent that island-a new church had been erected in but then seeing through a glass darkly, righteousness.--to the end that the saints of the British Conference to the appoint- the metropolis, and now another was in course we have the fullest warrant to believe from might should aloud for joy. of the British Conference to the appear. ment of Dr. Stewart to the office of Presi- dent, and of the Rev. Elias Brettle, as Co-ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and ing. He visited several towns in the bay and his carnest and devoted life, and by his preached in the basement to large and in-The balance Lelegate. The retiring President then in-troduced Dr Stewart expressing the great token of their respect to him, as the President President mediate family circle (whom may God pleasure he had in doing so, and his gra-ot this Conference, the friends said he must sustain in their sad bereavement!) mourn. titude to God who had called him (Dr. S.) to this high position, and the delight he had in responding to the prayer presented mer and it it had been possible to have sent the relationships of life is precious, the had in responding to the prayer presented in his behalf at the opening of Conference. After a few moments spent in silent would have done it. He had great pleasure in grieve over the removal of one whose One specially interesting feature was a serve.

Folgemed Kithers and Prethren Lacon

ENGLISH CORRESPONDENCE. Clubs, Benefit Societies, and all kinds of Trueman, Esq, of Point de Bute; D. lor his love in my heart to-day, and for that tions recended on his behalf will learn with served, and to whom so many supplications organizations, appeared in public, and for Henry Starr, Esq. of Halifax; and C. W. form of Christianity called Methodism. I am satisfaction, that all was done that could be, were presented on his behalt, say it in his The Permissive Bill-Mr. Miall's Rosolu- the greater part of the week the working Wetmore, and W. Clawson, Esquires of thankin also for Methodist parentage. I have it it had pleased God, to save ; and then to inserutable Providence , to the prove the laener, so far as possible, the last days and hourer to his reward and rect in heaven, urs of one whose kind words and sympa. The sublime truths of the Gospel, which he thetic looks had imparted comfort and inspir had so delichted to proclaim to others, were d joy to many weary ones, longing for the a source of sweet so are and s pport to him wings of a dove to fly away and be for ever during his protracted and pointful affliction at rest. In great patience he possessed his soul in

During his absence from St. John's he the midst of very extraordinary sufferings of Conference each day in prayer. My heart's or Conference each day in prayer. My heart's desire and prayer is that God would command wise too much indisposed to be able to until his change cance, sweetly arguingering was too much indisposed to be able to until his change cance, sweetly arguingering with the will or God. On Morglay, May 12th, he

"I love," said he, " to think of heaven, my sharp but it will not be long. Father, dear dear ! How tondly I cling to the hope, my father, I am coming." The telegram anbelief, that there will be joyful recognitions and nouncing his departure was received by his reunions in heaven-when the tear of bereave- brethren while assembled in Distric sesment will never Jim the eve, and the dull tramp of the timeral mend be hard been greatly prized and loved, and their hearts were struck On motion of the Secretary, Revs. C. of the funeral crowd be heard no more. 1 Jost, J. Rogers, and A. Morton, were cannot believe that the grave will cliace the with grief us they learned they should see memorials of the past or destroy our personal Oi Brother Cranford it can with truth be identity. I rather imagine or picture to my- said, his mind was richly stored with varied Journal Sceretary. On motion of Dr. Pick-ard, Rev. J. G. Augwin was appointed by known one another on earth, bashing the add to his acquirements, and thus show assistant Fin. Agent of Conference and music of the universal song and retiring to himself "approved unto God, a workman Rev. Robert Duncan to report proceedings hold sweet fellowship beside the still waters- that needeth not to be a shamed, rightly divif Conference for PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN. [then refreshing their spirits with the memories] ding the word of truth." For him to live of time : and after the hallowed recitals, re- was (hrist, and to die was gain, ence letter writers, and Revs. J. Hart, and W. C. Brown to prepare the pastoral ad- to resume with deeper cadence the lott anthem. What a heart-bounding thought, Revs. Paul Prestwood and Robert Wilson that our friendships there will be expanded and Conference were presented to the Ex-Presi- thoroughly enjoyed that tracing, what it will b crowding the vales of glory, eager to welcom Mr. Hennigar said that he bad received this arrival up the golden street. May we, love, changes and improvements since he labored in had here such sweet anticipations, though prayer, the President, Dr. Stewart, said :- resigning the Chair of Conference to so excel- sound and able expositions they had lent a brother as the President, Dr. Stewart, earnestly hoped to enjoy, and from whose young men,-probabationers in the island

GEORGE S. MILLIGAN. Circuit Intelligence

faciliti

for an for rel

docto

practic

than t

of th ished ('bur after differ tiani he to at the guardi the 1 securi them chang

The

ture

vout

1)

great

torth

shoul

tions

benev

had ac

money

& me 1

He h

much

ed in to the Parent

gettin;

them e The given

guard Spa

an it greath

be pro-

Ju e carries and to the me At and re

nest d

Wh

have r Magaz be rai loss, t self to we mo will m

public be con

ventio

estabi Weste Rese

Res

queste

at an e parent which genera and w person

ing yo

Tw

ment

engage try—t

sures

tion (embra

three

tions

ing p the sa

-Fi

quire and ities qualit iry ' l ' Spri

fine

nxth

quali anoth Rye f oatine ' third

main leadin

sampl

ensu: Gi

and lower to the 54 lt

1 and

and these must speet

spec inspe be t Mes beef, of th classe Mess

plice

grad

Ibs.

four of so gallo pulse

spec

and

Pain

of

spec and eeµ! Salu

eral 2,' · 1 sh of d are Lake ' No ed 1

grad

The

strue forgotte benefad

shoul

The

brethren were agreed that all their delibe rations should be carried out in the spirit t shat charity that " seeketh not her own. at rather desires the glory and honour of the Master. When the spiritual state of mained to be possessed," we were united word, with ardent prayers for a richer bap ism of the spirit. It was truly an ntreated that they might be clothed with terested congregations. The attendance on Thursday evening exceeded the two previous services; the exercises on that occasion were those of a fellowship meeting, and a gracious unction rested as a short account given by each of the six ther improved during the year, so much so measure of great importance has been passas to warrant the belief that in a couple of ed, and business progresses very slowly. The years, all its encumbrances will be remov- Whitsuntide holidays are now being duly Dr. Punshon in safety and good health, ed. The proceedings of the Contingent observed by our Legislators, including a has been hailed with immense pleasure. ces of the Contingent Fund are too scanty along in much the same fashion as at the ces of the Contingent Fund are too scanty by at least $900, to meet the requirements of the special cases of affliction recomcommended by the various District Com- self " Sir Roger Tichborne ;" to be Arthur College Chapel, and with a view of the mittees to the consideration of its adminis- Orton of Wapping, London. Witness after final extinction of its debt. The admirable that such should be the fact. «The Home Mission Fund Committee income of this exceedingly important Fund contention. for the year just ended, reached the respectable figure of $10,000, showing an increase dent of the French Republic, is proof of the beyond the income of the preceding year of ficklessness of the nation, and the extreme $1,400. This is an extremely gratifying difficulty of determining the future of that result. It shows that the object which the singular people. The late President has Home Mission Fund was established to conferred immense benefits upon his counpromote, lies near the heart, and commends His administration has been marked with itself to the judgment of our people. The distinguished ability, and he has rescued same conclusion was suggested, we might France from great depths of shame and emsame conclusion was suggested, we might almost say proved, by the enthusiastic ut-terances in behalf of this Fund by certain I merial or Monarchical more than ordinary claims to the distinc-terances in behalf of this Fund by certain I merial or Monarchical with a full and careful consideration of it. I the contending Imperial or Monarchical with a full and careful consideration of the ministry. terances in behalf of this Fund by certain factions will derive much advantage from Lay members of this Committee present at the change. The nation is more Republiits session, the brethren, Rogerson of New- can than its Assembly, and such it will retoundland, Dawson of Charlottetown, and the fair country, and changes the aspect of ministers to be entertained, to a more than the fair country, and changes the aspect of ordinary tax. It is understood, however, His interests. To us, therefore, and to all thus cliffe. affairs. ly interpreted on that occasion, the thought warm hearted among our congregation. the new Republican regime.

Italy is moving on in releasing itself from The Supernumerary Fund Committee Papal control, to the grief of the venerable had also a pleasing task to perform. It had to elicit the fact that the income of the ing of his health and life.

Fund during the year was in a condition to June 2, 1873. meet all the claims upon it, and to permit. after having done so, some $2,000 to be added to its capital. This circumstance will not only be pleasing to those disabled members of Conference, who would gladly press again to the front of the battle, were numerary Hospital, but also re-assuring to by all classes of the people. The weather door, and exchanged, after, in many cases, are strenuously engaged in the high places of the field, not knowing at what moment very little fine weather has gladdened our some shaft from tate's full quiver may lay pleasure-seekers. On Whit-Monday the them low.

strength, and proceeded, in well-arranged 1873.

ference weather has been all that could be Park, in order to discuss their grievances, entered upon its work and the review of desired, dry and warm, without being over- and impress upon Parliament and the the year was the most satisfactory that poweringly hot. Fredericton, too, and its British nation in general, the necessity of this committee has been allowed to take for surroundings have been looking their best. redressing their wrongs. It is evident many years. The Report of the Book there is nothing very flagrant in the laws Steward showed that the improvement The verdure of the rich-carpeted fields refreshes the very soul of the gazer, who for bodied men are called to live, and in the of the concern, was to the extent of $7227 long months has been shut up, amid the dry, presence of very high wages and very 51, and also that another year or two hard brick and stone of the city. The dra- short hours, it was hard work for their similar prosperity would serve to lift the pery of the many-leafed trees that cast cool excited orators to produce a real grievance. establishment out of all financial embarass-Pleasanter, far, were the gatherings of ment.

flickering shadows across and along the tens of thousands of happy children be- Thirteen young men, as candidates for streets, is fresh and beautiful. The gar- longing to the Sabbath Schools of the vari- Probation, appeared before the Committee dens are unfolding their wealth of floral ous churches. In London, Manchester, for examination of Candidates at the same lovliness. The slightly rippled river flows Leeds, Sheffield, and other places, whole hour at which the Book Committee met. noiselessly by. The resting brethren, un-to these youthful festivals; and admiring vexed with appointment troubles, are radiant with satisfaction in this most restful thronged to see and hear the doings of the The meetings of the Contingent Fund place. The sweet air seems pervaded by children. Then in other centres the Temp- and Home Mission Fund Committees. the spirit of kindness, and all goes well. erance fraternity, and particularly the were attended more largely this year by Good Templars in their brilliant regalia, lay members of our Church, than on any J. R. N.

held their anniversaries; parading the former occasion in the history of our Con streets, and by out-door as well as in-door ference. Among the gentlemen present sojourned in the wilderness since that time, Here everything, it is not too much to say, A wise man will desire no more than what meetings, urging the claims of their move- we noticed Hon. J. G. Rogerson of St. the good hand of God has been upon me for that human skill could devise or love suggestion of St.

· B.

he may get justly, use soberly, distribute cheer- ment, and the benefits accruing from an John's, Newfoundland, W. E. Davison, good. J am deeply humbled that I have not to effect a remedy or alleviate his extreme dis-further medical skill, were not realized.

greater than the Shah of Persia has landed your kindness, and the action of the British (Ex-President), only wished to live his life over profit. His brethren in the ministry la on our shores, and returned to his own proper sphere of labor. The arrival of Conference, has this day devolved upon me. That God should have blessed me with a truly Fund Committee have a somewhat painful day extra to enable them to attend the great Derby race at Epsom Downs. That God should have blessed me with a truly Christian parentage, and have called me, whe interest attached to them, as they are con-The Tichborne trial claims its full share him back joyously to our Conferential lous light; that He should have counted me nected with the discovery that the resour- of public interest. It drags its slow length ranks and hours. Right worthily has he faithful, putting me into the ministry, and have entered upon his English work by preach- led me by His providence to this hour and this place, excites my gratitude towards Him, and Kev. II. Daniel seconded a toto Rev. Dr. ing in the City Road Chapel, one day last demands the engagement of my best service Stewart, which was carried with acclamatowards you.

trators. It is sad, and very regrettable witness positively swear to his identity with arrangements for this service had been be sufficiently onerons; and while I am con- Journal Secretary, with their assistants the Ortons, but we hear of hundreds on the made by the Rev. Gervase Smith, and scious, of an ardent desire, and an honest pur for last year, and duly acknowledged. other side who are prepared to declare this his amazing tact, together with the power pose by the grace of God to fulfil them with Rev. J. A. Clark and Rev. C. Comben, The Home Mission Fund Committee mysterious fellow is none other than the brought to light circumstances of a most grateful character. It ascertained that the did estates which are the cause of all the sum unprecedented in Methodist Collections will. I must in order to success cast myself

> "В" may unhesitatingly do so.

As we have more work, and of greater magnitude to do at this Conference than is usually men continued on trial, was answered by CONFERENCE CORRESPONDENCE. the case, let me remind you of the necessity of the Chairmen of the several Districts.

Fredericton, famed for the nicture-queess of its scenery, the ease with which of thought upon the question before us, and of was found that sevendeen young menby railway or steamboat, it can be reached, such brevity of remark as may be consistent thirteen of whom were present for examition of a Conference town.

am anxious, indeed, that we should therefore, Five honored premier are composited but effectually, satisfactorily, and therefore, through age and failing health, to become through age and failing health. The abounding hospitality of the Meth- slowly.

odist community has this ye: r, we believe, We are ministers of Christ, and the interests gar, (Ex-President,) Wm. Sargent, J. B. its session, the brethren, Rogerson of New-foundland, Dawson of Charlottetown, and main, unless another revolution sweeps over ministers to be entertained to a more than the brethren to be ministers to be entertained to a more than break to a more than Sut-Hermeon, J. V. Jost, and Jugham Sutordinary tax. It is understood, however, Spain remains terribly disturbed, and is that it has more than stood the test. To gathered together in his name, is the assurance and feeling of the moral, intelligent, and very far from settling down peaceably under the tact and skill of the genial superintendent of the Circuit, the Rev. Leonard Gaetz, assurance deeply solemnize, let it cheer and recuperated to enter the full work. the Conference is largely indebted for this animate us. Head of the Church ! Breathe result and it will doubtless acknowledge again, upon these thy disciples, and say, Re- to meetings of Committees, &c., the first Pope. and as it is asserted to the endanger- its obligation in due time. ceive the Holy Ghost !

The arrival of the several boats and One of the most memorable events in the 1873, was closed. railway trains on Tudesday the 24th inst. Apostolic age-the designation by the Divine furnished evidence in the unusual number

Spirit of certain men for a special course of The celebration of the Whitsuntide holidays- of black-coats and white neck-ties landed. ministerial toil, privation, suffering, and suc-The movement among Agricultural Labore's that the time for the annual convocation cess; the inauguration, so to speak, of Mission's -The destruction of the Alexandra Palace of Methodist ministers had arrived. To an The shah of Persia in Europe—The return observer in the neighborhood of the Methto the heathen, was brought about in the Church of Dr. Punshon, and his first service in City observer in the neighborhood of the Meth-Road Chapel. at Antioch, while the teachers of that Church fact would have been still more apparent mate. The spring has been very cold, and ties assigned to them as members of the STATIONING COMMITTEE-

June 14. 1873.

workmen of London turned out in great the first of the preparatory Committees o power from on high ! The Co-Delegate, the Rev. Elias Brettle, that his case was deemed well nigh hope-naving been called upon by the President, less, and he would not have been admitte poke substantially as follows : as a patient but for his having come so for Dearly beloved Brethren,-In taking the po- for the purpose. He remained here for about tion for which you named me more than a two months receiving the k ndest and most rear ago, and which has been confirmed by the skilful attention, but without any improve-

British Coulerence. I may say, first, that I best for him to remove to Darimouth, when a am profoundly gratelul to God that on the day in the necessary absence of his wife, he would h nd mental effort, and recommended that of the month on which I attained to the 16th have the gratifying presence of a devoted Early in December he bade adieu to his year of my age it pleased God to reveal his Son in me. During the 40 years that I have sojourned in the wilderness since that time, Nere everything, it is not too much to say, erto cared for me and mine." The benefits again, that it might be more fully consecrated ment the departure from the ranks of on who was jealous of everything affecting to God and his cause. Forty nine years ago he their happiness or honour, and yet by his came up this River St. John as a boy-preacher, j example and influence, a staunch advocate and to-day he s'ood as a monument of the of a holy and consistent ministry, and the love and grace of that Saviour whom we all Weslevans of those circuits on which he has travelled bewail the early fall at his The Rev. J. McMurray moved, and the post, of one of the most efficient ministers

Rev. II. Daniel seconded a vote of thanks of the District. llis mortal remains sleep in the quie cemetery of Dartmouth, England, where tion. Thanks of Conference were also they were committed with the tears of sor-The duies of this chair must, to me at least, presented to Secretary of Conference and rowing relatives and friends assembled to pay the last tribute of respect for one whose health had been prematurely blight. ed by his exhaustive labours and frequent exposure while a Missionary in Newfound land. By arrangement of District Meetas the financial results of this service the sum unprecedented in Methodist Collections will, I must in order to success, cast myself upon your sympathies, your patience and your names of R. A. Daniel and R. Weddall by the superintendent of the circuit, and and the most constant reference to the data and the d prayers. The confidence which you have were presented. On motion a Committee paper read which had been prepared by the already reposed in me enables me to teel that I was appointed to examine these young chairman of the District Rev. Thomas brethren Harris, to an audience which thronged our The next question, relating to the young church, and comprised representatives from other religious bodies, who were anxious to show their esteem for departed worth punctuality in our attendance, of concentration Question III. was then taken up, and in as the oldest man now in our active work, he pastoral mitting : Six ministers, after a longer or shorter

DEAR MR. EDITOR,-It is my painful luty to furnish you with some particulars respecting the severe and protracted affliction nd the recent and lamented decease of my DEAR MR. EDITOR,-The late Whitsun-as the Chairmen and Representatives of and fasting, too, on the part of the members of Cranford When our dear brother embark. the result of excessive toil and exposure, servants of God. May we not tollow so excel- mendation of this physicians, and I may add contracted the d sease which laid the founda-many, who in the effective ministerial ranks, was beautifully fine, and that is a most a separation of twelve months, their frater- lent an example? Our fathers did so, and we through the generosity of his many friends tion of his mortal illness. important matter in this most fickle cli- nal greetings before entering upon the du- know how God blessed them. May I suggest who provided the meases, in hope his valuable At the last Conference he was appointed observance of a day of fasting and prayer in life be might be spared to his family and the the St. John's Circuit, in compliance with the this Conference, with special reference to the Church, many accompanied him to the steam- unanimous request of the Quarterly meeting.

promotion of the work of God in our own ship, and not a few sourowed much fearing and entered upon the onerous and responsible they would see his face no more. The sad duties of his new sphere with bright hope and hearts, and among our people everywhere ? event has the ded with sorrow the hearts of unreserved devotion. The single purpose One other thing. Many of our younger his brethren in the ministry by whom he was of his soul was to witness the prosperity an brethren will not be so pressed with work as greatly beloved, and of thousands of our peo- advancement of the Redeemer's kingdy m some of the others will be. Might they not ple in Newfoundland in whose admiration and During the few months in which he w then gather together for a prayer meeting for affection he deservedly stood very highly. On permitted to labour, his ability in the pulp half an hour before the morning session ? As his arrival in Liverp of he was so ill for a as an earnest expesitor of the sacred wor soon as half a dozen come together let one few days as to be unable to proceed to Smed- and a faithful ambassador of Christ, his ideet of them begin. This will help to secure a ley's Institution, and though recovering some- is terest in everything pertaining to the polity a good attendance at the commencement of what from the fatigue of the voyage in a little of Methodism, his diligence as a pastor up t the session; and it will bring upon us the power while, when he reached that famous Hydro-the full measure of his strength, and the affect from on high. And this is our great want, the pathie establishment, he was found to suffer tion and suavity of his demeanor, secured for

I ver, and to be so much the subject of dropsy from chronic affection of the kidneys and him the esteem and love of those over who After sundry announcements in regard session of the Fredericton Conference o D. lirection he cojoyed the great advan age of a

(For the I rovincial Weslevar.)

he had spiritual oversight.

tely proceeded to the Hants Harbor Circuit. Subsequently he spent five years of devoted "ministered to the Lord and fasted." Prayer highly esteemed colleague, Rev. Henry L and successful labor in Green Bay, where, as responding Secretary of the Board of Eduthey only discharged cured from the Super- tide holidays have been thoroughly enjoyed the several Districts, gathered around the difference whilst traveling in opin boats, he doubtless addressed the Convention on the "Edu-o educate in the fullest sense, and is itself the great educator, its founder being the Great Teacher," and its commission conleased into "go teach." Its educative ower is so inarvelous, so sublime, that it could liberally educate the whole world. or the Church has led in all special eduation; and the great universities of Europe we their existence to Church action.

The study of the subject of education in asked at the very first Conference of Wesloyan ministers, was, Shall we provide for the education of our preachers earnestly in favor of popular education from the very beginning of our history as a ting influence, and grave fears were enter- other. Asbury thought we needed rather e should immediately proceed to England. needed Yankee skill to give practical effect never remitted. An academy for each conterence was soon thought necessary. and the colleges naturally sprang from the anticipated by change of air and scene and academies.

The duty of the Church in regard to acaadoption of their principles. Lodges, Esq, of Charlottetown P. E. Island; M. been more faithinl. I am thankfal, however, tress was done: so that all whose supplica. God whom he equally loved and faithfully demies in New England, where educational who related with much pathos, their conversion and call to the ministry. Nor yet may it be deemed improper to state, that in recognition of his sterling worth, and of the kind and impartial manner in which he had discharged the duties of his position, especially noticeable in the tact displayed during examination exercises, we presented our esteemed chairman, the Reverend James Taylor, with a tangible expression of our affection on the forenoon of Friday. We might also mention that the presence and counsel of Bro. Pascoe on his way to Conference from Newfoundland, greatly cheered and encouraged us. So ended the happiest District Meetny perhaps, that has been held within our

> Yours very truly. R. McA.

Hliscellaucous.

(From Zion's Herald.) REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL MEET-ING AT WORCESTER MASS.

outerential bounds this year.

The Convention met in Grace Church, by being present. Deep and solemn feel Wednesday, June 11, at half past nine ig pervaded the assembly : and it is hoped o'clock, and organized by the choice of Rev. that from the many promising young mer Joseph Cummings, LL. D., president of present, some one at least will arise, to put Wesleyan University, for chairman, and n the harness and wield successfully the sword, now in the scabbard, worn by him Rev. A. McKeown and William A Braman for secretaries. Prayer was offwho being dead yet speaketh, summoning ered by Rev. N. Fellows.

o battle and to victory. The following is the substance of the President Cummings, on taking the chair addressed the Convention on the difficulty bove paper, which I have pleasure in subof awakening an interest on a subject like Education, whose claims all admit-the Henry L. Cranford was born in Wales. De mportance of the Christian ministry being 13th, 1842, and died at Dartmouth England oremost in promoting an interest on the May 13th, 1873. In youth be consecrated subject among the people-the fact that a is heart and life to Christ and his church smaller proportion of educated men was to Obedent to the divine call, be offered him e tound among our people in proportion solf as a missionary candidate and was accept o their numbers, than among other ded by the British Conference, by who ominations, while there should be more

-and of the unexcelled character of our The logical training, under the Rev. Andrew own semineries and colleges, and of the Kessen, LL.D. In the autumn of 1864, he mportance of our students attending inreceived his appointment to Newfoundland itutions conducted under our own auswhere he arrived in November, and immed

Rev. E. O. Haven, of New York, Coration of the Methodist Episcopal Church, cational Work of the Church," taking the ground that the purpose of the Church was onnection with the history of Methodism was interesting, as one of the questions

We, in this country had been even more Soon, however, it became apparent that Church. The question of a college occupiasiduous disease was exerting its debilita- ed the thoughts of Dr. Coke more than any ined that his ministerial career would academies, and they were built, and flourspeedily terminate. The ablest physicians ished early in our history; and all along, ere consulted, who peremptorily insisted n Maryland, Georgia, North Carolina, and upon the entire abandonment of physical Kentucky, from 1784 to 1817, when Newmarket and Wilbraham were founded. It o our educational schemes, but they were

