ldom has such a feeling of sorrow aded Wroxeter as when the new ned here, on Tuesday forencon, anson, jr., which occurred at an early hour that morning at his residence at Paris. He had spent his holidays with his parents and friends here, and had left only a few weeks ago, apparently in the best of health, to resume his duties as second teacher in the Paris public school. Hardly had the school got settled down to work when he was taken ill with what proved to be typhoid fever, and in spite of all that medical skill and kind friends could do he passed away. Last week Dr. Smale, of Wroxeter, went to Paris to visit the young man, but even then the hopes of his recovery were faint. His remains arrived in Wroxeter on Tuesday afternoon, and the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member, took charge of the funeral on Wednesnay afternoon. There were about 70 Brethren present, Wingham, Brussels, Teeswater Fordwich and Mount Forest being represented, besides a large atten dance from Wroxeter lodge. D. D. G. M. Bro Mon of Wingham, officiated. The G visit Endeavor Society, of Paris, o. wincu he was a member, sent a beautiful floral pillow, which, with an appropriately inscribed wreath from the Brethren of Forest Lodge and several InsuranceAgent boquets from friends, was laid on the casket. his spirit took its flight. The profound sympathy of the entire community goes ut to the bereaved family who have ost a son and brother who had built up a superb character and whose personal brilliancy and well-known perseverance would certainly have given him a prom inent place among his fellow men.

WROXETER FALL SHOW.

The Wroxeter Horticultural Society had to contend against very cold weather, and the sad funeral on the second day detracted considerably from the attendance, yet a very good show was held, though not up to some other years.

The display of roots, fruit and grains was very choice and would have held its own in a much larger Show, but the Ladies' department fell short of the usual number of entries. The Hall looked very attractive on the evening of the first day when quite a number visited it. Gorrie Brass Band was
