The following dispatch clipped from an old issue of the Recorder, tells under what circumstances Chas. Luckey shot himself in Toronto a few years ago.

The reason Charles Luckey perforated his abdomen with a ball from a revolver was because of an obdurate father, and a girl who loved the unhappy youth, but who at the same time allowed her pride to master her affections. Miss M. A. Caldwell, of Utica, who came to see the victim, as an ambassador from his friend and his sweetheart, told the story. Luckey was engaged to be married to a farmer's daughter at Utica. Her friends were willing that the young pair should marry, but the father of the prospective bridegroom opposed the match.

The girl heard of this and refused to let her father, informing that she was engaged to be married. She took the stand that her family was just as good as the Luckey family, and if they did not want her as a daughter-in-law and a sister she was willing to let it be that way. Luckey tried to break her resolution, but finding all his pleadings in vain left home, and, sick of life and broken-hearted made his way to the Union House and shot himself. As soon as Luckey's girl heard of his doing so she became frantic and departed Miss Caldwell to see him and assure him of her undying love for him and willingness to become his wife. He continues to improve, and the chances are in favor of his recovery.

Some of Prescott's fair dames allege that they have been excluded. A man representing the Electric Croyon Co. was around some time ago taking orders to enlarge photographs. He was just advertising his concern and so for five cents agreed to enlarge the cabinet. Many ladies seized the opportunity of having large portraits of their loved ones to gaze at, and were considerably surprised to find that they were presented with a little bill of seven dollars for framing.

THREE HUNDRED WRECKED. And as Many More Were Injured by a Dynamite Explosion.

TERRIBLE DISASTER IN SPAIN. The Governor and Many Other Officials Killed—Hundreds Rendered Homeless—A Great Fire Follows—Threatening Destruction to the City.

SANTANDER, Spain, Nov. 5.—The ship Cabo Machalao, having a cargo of dynamite, exploded at 9 o'clock last night. The Governor of the Province personally directed the efforts of the firemen in attacking the flames. Suddenly there was a dull roar followed by a report that shook the city. Every house around the quay and wrecked, the walls being blown down.

The Governor was killed and his body was blown into the bay. The commandant of the Civic Guard and many officials and workmen were badly injured.

The streets in the vicinity of the quay where the explosion occurred were filled with all sorts of wreckage from the houses blown down.

A number of living persons are under the ruins. At the time the ship blew up the launch of the Spanish steamer Alfonso XII was being towed by a tug. The steamer was completely destroyed. All her officers and 40 of her crew are missing and it is certain every one of them was killed.

It is estimated that 300 persons were killed by the explosion. Many more are missing, but most of them are believed to have gone to the houses of friends after their homes were destroyed. Among the dead are the Prefect, the chief of police and two judges. Sixty horses were wrecked. Many children were entering the station when the explosion occurred and were flying pieces of lumber over their heads. The station master was burned to death and many passengers were injured. Dozens of persons living near the bay fled from their burning homes in terror and threw themselves into the water. The Ministers of Finance and the Interior left Madrid for Santander.

Advances From the Government. Madrid, Nov. 4.—A Government credit has been granted to help the sufferers from the Santander disaster. A dispatch received from Santander at 9 o'clock this evening said that 300 persons were believed to have been killed and 250 were being treated in the hospital and 200 were being treated for injuries.

Troops were sent early this morning from Santander to pull down the buildings rendered unsafe by the explosion. The fire broke out in the fire which were immediately breaking out in different quarters of the water front. At one time it was feared that the city would be burned. The Governor's body was recovered to-night. The Marquis of Pombal is missing and is believed to have been killed. The Queen Regent is deeply affected by the disaster and makes frequent allusions to the late news from Santander.

Much Property Destroyed. Madrid, Nov. 6.—An official dispatch from Santander last evening says that the bodies of 163 persons killed by the dynamite explosion aboard ship have been recovered. The search is still in progress. Many persons are missing. At present 190 are being treated for injuries received. The damage to property amounts to several million dollars.

A CENTURY AGO. Maugehe Celebrates His 100th Birthday as a French Possession.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Maugehe, a fortified town on the Franco-Belgian frontier, celebrated yesterday the hundredth anniversary of its delivery to the Austrians on the battlefield of Wattignies. President Carnot, Adolphe Carnot, his brother, and his wife, were invited to attend the ceremony last week or two. They were welcomed by the Mayor and the town council and taken to the monument which was unveiled. M. Carnot spoke at length of his grandfather, the general who was French Minister of War a century ago and who commanded the French at Wattignies, describing him as a "magnificent patriot and soldier to whose glorious memory I am glad to pay this tribute."

During the past three weeks, there have been special revival services held in the church. Rev. David Winters was here four days, and dealt out some plain, practical truths, which, if acted upon, will do good. For the last two weeks, Rev. Lewis Blanchette has been giving us some plain truths—such as the church required. It seems good to have things spiritual and theological straightened out and placed on a good foundation, one that is acceptable and profitable to bring reasonable people. This is the Christianity that the world wants and expects from Christians, and nothing short of it will ever convince gainers of its genuineness. Many of the young people of this place have decided to live Christian lives, and used help and instruction, both by precept and example, from reasonable and a larger number of the church.

I don't know that it would be out of place here to state that when we find a man willing to come out boldly and denounce sin in all its forms in and out of the church, that God honors the man for it, and there will be results follow it. I am glad to take my share and hope to profit by it. The sin of copyism will light any man or woman that practices it. Christ's sermon on the mount is plain, practical and to the point on a Christian life—that is, to love the Lord with all thy heart and thy neighbor as thyself, and if we do this we can't go from shop to shop, hawking with clerks, to get a good bargain. Don't drive that young man to think that there is no religion in your every day walk and conversation.

A Mexican Springing. Kingston, Jan. 13.—It is reported here that there is an uprising against President Hipolite in the southern part of Mexico. The rebels are in favor of Gen. Mangut. The rebellion is said to be headed by Gen. Gillio. No details are as yet obtained.

The Government of Honduras promptly disavowed the conduct of its officers and expressed sincere regret for the occurrence. A cable message from Minister Young establishes the fact that the shots were fired at the Costa Rica with the intention of hitting her, and not as was thought at first, across her bows for the purpose of bringing her about.

SPAIN'S POSITION. No Money to Put the Extra Forces on a War Footing. MADRID, Nov. 6.—The great expense to be entailed by calling the three years' reserve to their colors has excited grave apprehensions among the members of the Government. It is difficult to see how in the unfavorable condition of Spain's finances the necessary money can be raised to put this force on a war footing and perhaps send it to Mexico.

More meanness is felt here owing to the growth of the anti-English sentiment among the lower classes. WOULD LIKE GIBRALTAR. France and Russia May Support Spain's Demand for Its Surrender.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The speech of the Italian Ambassador at the Lord Mayor's banquet in London, on November 9, is causing angry comments from the French press. Referring to the visit of the British squadron to Toronto, he said: "The Italians have no need to go into rapines or to turn on their heels and make out what receiving foreign guests." This was plainly a reference to the Franco-Russian fete and has caused the newspaper organ of France, causing very bitter remarks regarding the friendship existing between England and Italy.
