A LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

The following letter was received by subscriber of the Reporter and forwarded on for publication. The writer Terence Glazier, is well known in Brockville and Elizabethtown where his love for old whiskey and its associations was his besetting sin. He joined the first contingent and has been an exemplary soldier as far as his friends can learn. The letter speaks for itself:

> Devondale, South Africa, December 4th, 1902

I write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope you are the same. I have enlisted for another six months. I took my discharge other six months. I took my discharge in September to go home but seeing that the war was hanging on and not likely to end for some time I thought I would enlist again. The weather is getting very warm. It is our summer weather here now but I cannot tell the summer from the winter except by the nights; they are so cold and the days are so cold that we feel it more than we do in Canada. June, July and August are our winter months here as we are south of the equator. I am 800 miles from Cape Town and I have been 1,000 miles from the Cape. We are working our way back. The British are building a railroad through this country and they are working on it from both ends. They are said to have it about half done. It seems to take a long time to finish up this war. Our company was under fire with the Boers We all hope the war will end I would like to write you a lot more but I have not the time to day

Your true friend, TERENCE GLAZIER.

Col. Scott, Mounted Railroad Guards Devondale, South Africa.

The clerk was instructed to purchase blanks required for township purposes. The Council advised the committee in charge of the "Proposed County Road System," that the road from Athens, via Plum Hollow, Sheldon's Corners and Chantry to Phillipsville, be taken, instead of from Athens, by way of the stone road to Delta.

The Council also notified the said committee that they would not be will ing to purchase that portion of the Plank Road which is in the township, in addition to raising the amount opportioned as the township's share of the cost of constructing the said proposed county roads.

Ernest Halladay will work his father's farm the coming season.

J. V. Phillips has been confined to the house for the past ten weeks with a swelling on his left hand. Mrs. S. Halladay has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Alguire, the past week. R. Thompson is getting the lumber and timber on the ground to build a barn and stable on the farm of Isaac Alguire, on the Elgin road. Wilson Chase is fast filling up his wood yard with wood for the purpose of burning a large number of brick and tile for the coming season.

Rev. F. Chisholm ran a sliver into his hand about an inch, consequently he has had a very sore hand for some time, but is now able to use it again.

Thomas Kennedy is very low. His family have very little hope of his re covery. Nearly all his children have visited his bedside during the past

Eli Chant, of Chantry, has a number of teams hauling cedar from Chas Hamilton's swamp to Chantry. The most of it he will manufacture into

We are enjoying good sleighing this winter—with some very cold weather. But, as a rule so far, this winter has been fine for teaming, and the people are employing every day in drawing wood, logs, heading and shingle

A. Stevens is getting the lumber and timber on the ground to build a large bank barn in the spring, on the farm known as the Earl farm. When completed it will be much more convenient than the old one and will save him a lot of hill-climbing.

The mill yards are filling up with cheese box timber. One cheese box manufacturer told your correspondent that cheese box material had advanced 25 per cent. for the coming season, and that if he had no other work for his mill, the cheese box making would not pay expenses at the prices they sold for last season.
