Kemptville, June 25.—R. L. Borden, K.C., was a visitor here Saturday, and as it was his first appearance here, he was given a great reception.

His object was to be present at the laying of the corner-stone of the St. Paul's Anglican Church at Beckett's Landing, three miles from Kemptville.

On his arrival he was greeted at the station by a large crowd of citizens, headed by the Merrickville band.

The local Conservative Association presented him with an address, in relyto which Mr. Borden spoke of the work of the session.

In spite of the Banner's and Mr. McCoig's statements, and even the correspondence, the same old eyesore graces the river front, precisely as it did before all this fuss commenced. The Banner calls this a public benefit. For the information of Mr. McCoig and the Banner, it might be stated that the electors of this riding appointed Mr. Clements as their representative in the Dominion House and, even according to the Banner, that gentleman is doing pretty well in that position. Mr. McCoig was elected to the Provincial House and should be content, to put it plainly, in at tending to his own business. If he serves his constituents as pledged to do he will find his whole time taken up with Provincial affairs. The people of this county are still looking for an account of how Mr. McCoig has spent their time at Toronto since his election. Let Mr McCoig strive to do one thing, and do it well. He should know that it is impossible to serve two masters.

Mr. Fielding has brought down in the Dominion House a second list of estimates of expenditure for the fiscal year beginning next month. As the dates are to be changed the period covered in these estimates is only nine months. The Finance Minister asks for $4,667,916.71. In the main estimates he had taken $67,936,547.70, making a total of $72,604,464, which would be at the rate of $96,805,752 for twelve months. For the year closing with this month Mr. Fielding has estimated the expenditure at $82,000,000, which shows an intention to increase the pace for the next line months.

Fine Materials Used and Yards and Yards of Lace.

Exquisitely fine materials are used for summer frocks made up with equally fine lace, yards and yards of the lace most beautifully appliqued on to or inserted into whatever is chosenbatiste, veiling, lawn or even silk.

Skirts are wide and long, and often there is so much lace used in them that at first glance it seems as though there were more lace than material. So arranged as to form squares or in lines, always flat and often with two or three kinds of lace used together, the effect is charming. The lining may be white or colored, as desired, but whether white or color be used the pattern of white or color be used the pattern of the lace always stands out against the silk lining. All white is always smart, and exclusive models indicate that again this summer, like last year, color in some way or other must be intro-duced. The wide girdles of plain or flowered ribbon, the broad sashes, the nowered ribbon, the broad sasnes, the tipy knots and bows of ribbon—all give apportunity for the introduction of color, and often of more than one, for among the new fads is the bodice or the color of girdle of two shades of color.

The embroidered linens and muslins The embroidered linens and muslins, hand and machine made as well, furnish an apparently endless supply of patterns—and prices. Fortunately for the great majority the imitation or machine made cannot always be distinguished at first glance and is far less expensive. At the same time there is an immense amount of hand eminexpensive.

TENNIS GOWNS.

Gingham Dresses In Vogue For Sports and Morning Wear.

For tennis and golf as well as for general morning use gingham dresses have returned to vogue for summer wear. So far the gingham gowns are all simply made, but attractive colors are selected, and there is considerable style to all the dresses that have so far been made up in this material. Not only for the country are gingham dresses to be worn, but there are many fascinatingly pretty traveling shirt waist dresses now made up in the darker shades.

For tennis a gown should be simple, and now that the only shirt waists per-

Most animals, excepting pet animals, who are assured of what one might call a Christian burial in the back yard, have prompt extinction and no flowers to look forward to, for haven't they often come across the bones of their once loved mates slowly whitening under the blue of heaven?

Have you commenced your spring and summer sewing? Are you interested in Dressmaking, either professionally or for your own family sewing? Have you broken away from the old way of depending on patterns.

Please pardon so many questions, but each one means something to you.
