MAN MAKE MEN SUDNO-AND STRONG

thing Entrely New for the Cure of Men's Diseases in Their on Homes.

Mou Pay Only if Cured

DR. S. GOLDBE

seeds the method and the ability to do as he says. Be. Goodberg, the discoverer, will send the method member free to all men who send him their ninne, and address. He wants to hear from men who have stricture that they have been unable to feet under the contract troubés, sexual weakness, varienced, cost manhod, blood poison, hydrocele, ost manhod, blood poison, hydrocele, ost manhod, blood poison, hydrocele, ost manhod, blood poison, hydrocele, when had not only cures the candition insef, but like whe all the completations, such as sheumatian deadler or kidney trouble, heart disease, iervous cliffy, etc.

Smaller of Rush tousse, metric cisease, nervous and city of the control of the co Goldberg 208 Woodward Ave Room P. Wich, and it will all immediately be sent omething entirely new and well worth

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.

Ladles' Favorite,
Is the only safe, reliable regulator on which woman can depend "in the hour and time of need."

Frepared in two degrees of sirength. No. 1 and No. 2.
No. 1—For vortinary cases is by far the best dollar medicine known.

No. 2—For special cases—10 degrees by far the best dollar medicine known.

Ladles—ask your druggist for Coele's cotten Root Compound. Take no other as all pills, mixtures and imitations are samperous. No. 1 and No. 2 are sold and xecommended by all druggists in the Domainion of Candas. Mailed to any address receipt of price and four 2-cent postage stamps. The Cook Company Windsor, Ont.

No. 1 and No. 2 are sold in Chat-

No. 1 and No. 2 are sold in Chat-

 HIS Young wife was almost distracted for he would not stay a night at home so she had his LAUNDh Ydone by us and now he ceases any more to

Parisian Steam Laundry

TELEPHONE 20. ********

STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

BEAD OFFICE, TORONTO. Branches and agents at all principal points in Canada, U. S. and Great Britain.

Britain. Brafts issued and notes discounted.

Savings Bank Department (which may be withdrawn without delay) received and interest flowed thereon at the highest cursust rates.

G. P. SCHOLFIELD, Manager Chatham Branch,

BANK OF MONTREAL

ESTABLISHED 1817.

Dapital (all paid up) $14,000,000

Mest 10,000,000

Drafts bought and sold. Collections made on favorable terms. Interest allowed on deposits at current trates in Savings Bank Department, and deposit receipts.

DOUGLAS GLASS,

Manager Chatham Branch.

Divers Reasons

ending your washing to us could be t. All can be summed up, however, in words—"IT IS DONE RIGHT." -question about that. We have per-facilities, competent help and the to be please. These are all put to good an every bundle of work that comes

Chatham Steam Laundry, CHATHAM STEAM LAUNDRY exth St. near Fire Hall, Phone 198

ple who are unable to make are most expert at making Gaboriau The clown determined to answer as if he thought the question were a jest. "You want my license, do you, my lord doge? I left it in the hands of the city authorities. It contains my name, age, profession, domicile and every detail"—

With an angry gesture M. de Clame-if astounded at what he heard. But any one who knew him would have any allusion to Mme. Fauvel, whom I

"Do you pretend," said M. de Clame-which M. Fauvel was the victim and which has been in every one's mouth."

"Ah, yes, yes, I know. His cashier decamped with 350,000 francs. It is a thing that almost daily happens. But as to discovering any connection between this robbery and my play, that is another matter."

M. de Clameran made no reply. A nudge from Lagors had calmed him as if by enchantment. He seemed to regret, having uttered the significant he is her protector; not you. Perhaps you will tell me he is too old to de-

You asked me who I am. In return I ask you who are you—you who consti-tute yourself Mme. Fauvel's champion?

Are you her relative, friend or ally? What right have you to insult her by pretending to discover an allusion to her in a play invented for amusemeans of escape.

"I am a friend of M. Fauvel," he

Raoul de Lagors had listened anx-lously, watching the people near them, to see if they overheard this conversa-

"We have had enough of this gos-sip," he said in a disdainful tone. "I will only say one thing more, Master Clown, and that is that your tongue is

"Perhaps, my pretty boy, perhaps, but my arm is still longer." De Clameran hastened to end the matter.

"It is impossible for one to seek an explanation from a man who conceals his identity under the guise of a fool."

"You are at liberty, my lord doge, to ask the master of the house who I am—if you dare."

"You are," cried Clameran—"you are."

words drawn from him by excitement.

don't know from Adam or Eve?"

"A misfortune?"

before, said:

announced."

with malicious satisfaction.

M. de Clameran joined the circle. M. de Clameran joined the circle.

"The third picture," the clown continued, "depicts the old mandarine after she has dismissed that most annoying of guests—remorse—from her bosom. She promises herself that interest shall supply the place of love in holding the seductive youth. It is with this object that she invests him with false honors and dignity and introduces him to the chief mandarins of the capital of the Celestial empire. Then, since so handsome a youth must ran interrupted him.
"You have committed a gross insult!"
"I, my lord doge?" "I, my lord doge?"

"Yes, you! What do you mean by telling this abominable story?"

"Abominable! You may call it abominable, but I, who composed it"—

"Enough, monsieur. You will at least have the courage to acknowledge that your performance was a vile insinuation against Mme. Fauvel?"

The clown stood with his head thrown back and mouth wide open, as if astounded at what he heard. But Then, since so handsome a youth must cut a fine figure in society, the lady ust needs to sacrifice all of her posmust needs to sacrince all of her pos-sessions for his sake—necklaces, rings, bracelets, diamonds and pearls—every jewel she possesses. The monster car-ries all these to the pawnbrokers on Tientsi street and then has the cruel-ty to refuse her the tickets, so that she

The clown thought that at last he The clown thought that at last he had fulfilled the conditions. Mme. Fauvel began to betray signs of uneasiness. Once she made an attempt to rise from the chair, but it seemed as if her strength falled her, and she sank back, forced to listen.

"Finally, ladies and gentlemen," continued the clown "the rights streat" nay have a chance of redeeming lier tinued the clown, "the richly stored jewel cases were emptied. The day came when the mandarine had nothing more to give. It was then that the young scoundrel conceived the project of carrying of the Jasper button be-longing to the Mandarine Li Fo, a splendid jewel of incalculable value, a badge of dignity. It was kept in a granite chest and guarded by three soldlers night and day. Ah, the mandarine resisted a long time. She knew the innocent soldiers would be accused and crucified, as is the custom in Peking, and this thought restrained her. But her lover besought her so tenderly But her lover besought her so tenderly that she finally yielded to his entreaties, and the jasper button was stolen. The fourth picture represents the guilty coaple stealthily creeping down the private stairway. See their frightened look—see?—

frightened look—see"—
He abruptly stopped. Three or four of his auditors rushed to the assistance of Mme. Fauvel, who seemed about to faint. The clown felt his arm roughly seized by some one behind him. He turned and faced De Clameran and Lagors, both of whom were pale with

"What do you want, gentlemen?" he asked, with his most gracious air. "To speak to you," they both answer-

"I am at your service."

He followed them to the end of the picture gallery, near a window opening on a balcony. Here they were unchanged in the picture of the pictur observed except by the man in the Venetian cloak, whom the clown had adlressed as "monsieur the count." minuet having ended, the orchestras were taking a brief rest, and, the com-pany pouring into the gallery, it be-came very crowded. The sudden faintness of Mme. Fauvel had passed off unnoticed save by a few, who attributed it to the heat of the room. M. Fauvel had been sent for, but when he came hurrying in he found his wife composedly talking to Madeleine. Not having as much control over his tem-per as Raoul, M. de Clameran angrily

"In the first place, monsieur, I would like to know who you are."

Deranged Nerves Weak Spells.

Mr. R. H. Sampson's, Sydney, N.S.,

Advice to all Sufferers from Nerve Trouble is

"GET A BOX OF MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS."

He says: "I have been ailing for about a year from deranged nerves, and very often weak spells would come over me and be so bad that I sometimes thought I would be unable to survive them. I have been treated by doctors and have taken numerous preparations but none of them numerous preparations but none of them helped me in the least. I finally got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Before taking them I did not feel able to do any work, but now I can work as well as ever, thanks to one box of your pills. They have made a new man of me, and my advice to any person troubled as I was, is to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

Wisnes."
These few words fell like a clap of thunder upon De Clameran. He turned deadly pale and recoiled with his hands stretched out before him, as if shrinking from a specter. He tried to answer, to protest, but the words froze on his line. THE T. MILBURN CO., Limited,

SKIN-TORTURED BABIES

And Tired, Fretted Mothers

and Ointment

Physicians Fail.

for skin-tortured babies and rest for tired, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollient skin cures, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. This is the purest, sweet-seen his bright black eyes sparkling "Upon my word," he said as if speak-ing to himself, "this is the strangest thing I ever heard of! How can my drama of the Mandarine Li Fo have ran, "to be ignorant of M. Fauvel's "I refer, monsieur, to the robbery of which M. Fauvel was the victim and civilized world.

Civilized WOFId.

Cuticura Rasolvent, liquid and in the form of Chocoliste Coated Zilia, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Soap are sold throughout the world. Depotes London, 27 Charterlouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Ruc de la Pairi, Australia, R. Tworns &
Co., Syffasy; Boston, 187 Columbus Avs. Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Sole Proprietors.

arr pend for " How to Cure Skin Tortures," etc.

"Very well," he finally said in his usual haughty tone. "I must have been mistaken. I accept your explanaetained bis equanimity.

And he dragged Clameran away, sup

"Monsieur"— began De Clameran.

"Allow me to finish, if you please.
If unintentionally I have offended the wife of a man whom I highly esteem. stock still, watching the latter as he slowly left the room. It was with no decided object in view that he had decided object in view that he had ventured to use the last mysteriously threatening words, but he had been inspired to do so by his wonderful instinct, which with him was like the scent of a bloodhound.

"What can this mean?" he muttered.

"Why was he so frightened? What terrible memory have I awakened? I mand satisfaction. If so, let him send one of his sons. One of them is here.

There was nothing to be said in reply to this. M. de Clameran sought a present scene when some one touched him on the shoulder, recalling him. It said, "and this title gives me the right to be as jealous of his reputation as if it were my own. If this is not a sufficlent reason for my interference, I must inform you that his family will "Next week, monsieur, my marriage with Mile. Madeleine will be publicly

"And yet you complain"—
"I do not complain, mo This news was so unexpected, so startling, that for a moment the clown was discomfited. But it was only for a second, and, bowing with deference, he said, with covert irony:

"Permit me to offer my congratulations, monsieur. Besides being queen of the ball tonight, Mile. Madeleine will have a dowry of half a million, 1 hear."

Five or six guests approached the

Dr. Wood's 基基 基

Norway Pine Syrup

Cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitie, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Pale or Tightness in the Chest, Etc.

A warning look from Raoul checked the forgemaster from using an epi, thet which would have led to an affray or at least a scandalous scene.

The clown stood with a sardonic smile and after a moment's silence stared M. de Clameran steadily in the face and said coolly:

"I was the best friend; monsieur, of your brother Gaston. I was his adviser and the confidant of his last wishes." Chest, Etc.

It stops that tickling in the throat, ipleasant to take and soothing and healing to the lungs. Mr. E. Bishop Brand the well-known Galt gardener, writes:

thad a very severe attack of sorthroat and tightness in the chest. Some inness when I wanted to cough and could to I would almost choke to death. May life got me a bottle of DR. WOOD'S GRWAY PINE SYRUP, and to my survise I found speedy relief. I would obt be without it if it cost $1.00 a bottle, and I can recommend it to everyone othered with a cough or cold.

Price 25 Cents.

Clameran?"

Find Comfort in Cuticura Soap

When All Other Remedies and

Instant relief and refreshing sleep

Resolvent. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply skin and scalphumours, with loss of hair, of infants and children, as well as adults, and is sure to succeed when all other remedies and the best physicians fall.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczems; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in acros and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to success fully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Cuttour Resolvent, light and in the form of Chocolste

"Come, let us go," said Lagors, who porting bim, for he staggered like a drunken man and clung to the walls to But the clown, so humble a moment prevent falling.

"Oh, ho!" exclaimed the clown.
He bimself was almost as much astonished as the forgemaster and stood "I have not made nor do I intend making any explanation."

"Why was he so frightened? What terrible memory have I awakened? I need not boast of my penetration or the subtlety of my plans. There is a great master, who without any effort in an instant destroys all my chimeras. He is called chance."

He is called chance."

His mind had wandered far from the was the man in the Venetian cloak.
"Are fou satisfied, M. Verduret?" he

"Yes and no, monsieur the count— no, because I have not completely achieved the object I had in view when I asked you to be admitted here tonight; yes, because these two rascals behaved in a manner which dispels all count. On the contrary, I bless chance, or, rather, Providence, which has just revealed to me the existence of a secret that I did not before even sus-eount, interrupting the speakers. He went off with them after giving the clown a friendly nod. The latter instantly threw aside his banner and started through the crowd in pursuit of Mme. Fauvel. She had left the gallery. He found her sitting on a sofa in the large salon, engaged in an ani-mated conversation with Madeleine. "Of course," muttered the clown "they are talking over the scene. But what has become of Lagors and De He soon saw them wandering among

He soon saw them wandering among the groups scattered about the room and eagerly asking questions.

"These honorable gentlemen are trying to find out who I am. Keep it up, my friends. Ask everybody."

They soon gave it up, but were so preoccupied and aprious to be alone in order to reflect and deliberate that, without waiting for supper, they took leave of Mme. Fauvel and her niece, saying they were going. The clown saw them go up to the dressing room, take their cloaks, descend the grand sigircase and depart. staircase and depart.
"I have nothing more to do here," he

And, completely covering his dress with a domino, he started for home. He lit a cigar and, walking up St. La-Loretto and made for the Faubourg Montmartre. Suddenly as he entered Ollivier street a man emerged from a place of concealment and rushed upon him with raised arm. Fortunately the clows had a caffike instinct, which enabled him to protect himself against immediate danger and keep a sharp watch about him. He had seen, or, rather, divined, the man crouching in the dark shadow of a house and had the dark shadow of a house and had aim with raised arm. Fortunately the put himself on guard, spreading out his arms. This movement certainly saved his life. Anger more than pain

"Ah, you villain!"
Seeing his blow miss, the assassin dld not return to the attack, but made rapidly off and disappeared in the Faubourg Montmartre.
"That was certainly Lagors," said the ade him cry out:

clown, "and Clameran must be some-

He began to suffer from his wound. He stood under a gas lamp to examine it. It did not appear to be dangerous, but the arm was cut through to the bone. He took his handkerchief from his pocket and tore it into four bands and tiec his arm up with the dexterity of a surgeon.

"I must be on the track of some great crime, since these villams are regreat crime, since these villams are regreat crime. solved upon murder. When such men are only in danger of the police court they do not gratuitously risk the chance of being tried for murder."

He could not stay where he was. By enduring a great deal of pain he night still use his arm, so he started after flis enemy, taking care to deep in the middle of the road and avoid all dark corners. Although he saw no one, he was convinced that he was being followed. When he reached the Boulevard Montmartre, he crossed it and as he did so distinguished two shadows which he recognized. They crossed the same street when he cross ed, a little higher up.

"I have to deal with desperate men," he muttered. "They do not even take the pains to conceal their pursuit of

He continued his way up the boulevard and, without turning his head, was sure that his enemies were thirty feet behind him.

feet behind him.

"I must get rid of them somehow," he said to himself. "I can neither return home nor to the Archangel with these devils at my heels. They are following me to find out where I live and who I am. If they discover that the clown is M. Verduret and that M. Verduret is M. Lecoq, there is an end to my plans. They will escape abroad with the money, and I shall be left to console myself with a wounded arm."

The idea of Raoul and Clameran escaping so exasperated him that for an caping so exasperated him that for an instant he thought of having them arrested at once. This was easy, for he only had to rush upon them, cry for help, and they would all three be arrested and taken to the station. The police often resort to this ingenious and simple means of arresting a malefactor for whom they are on the look-out and whom they cannot seize without a warrant. The next day there is a general explanation, and the parties, if innocent, are dismissed. The clows had sufficient proof, to sustain him in the arrest of Lagors. He could show the letter and the mutilated prayer book, he could reveal the existence of the pawnbrokers' tickets in the house at Vesinet, he could display his wounded arm. Haoul would be compelled to confess how and why he had assumed the name of Lagors and to what end he was passing himself off for a relative of M.-Fauvel. sted and taken to the station. The

To Be Continued.

NEW BUSINESS

Ring up 391 for that bursted water pipe or call and get an es-timate on contemplated plumbing, hot water. steam and gas fitting work Your patronage is respect-fully solicited by

R. McG. Coyle

King St. West. Phone 391..... ********

THIS PAPER IS PRINTED with the QUEEN CITY PRINT. ING CO'S INK, Cincinnati, Ohio. A. WANNFRIED, Representative.

Old age has keen judgment! Old age has keen judgment!

The experience of years makes the standard high, and conservative judgment holds the best! That's why experts and connoisseurs recognize Blue Ribbon Tea as being the most delicious tasting tea on the market.

It is absolutely pure tea, the best "hill grown" in Ceylon—made from the tender top leaves and flowery shoots—

Blue Ribbon Ceylon Tea the Rod Label Black, Mixed "Just Pure Tea"

> Flour of the Family Spring wheat makes strong flour suitable for bread only—lacks the delicacy and flavor of the Fall Wheat. Beaver Flour blend of both, combines the best qualities of anitoba Spring Wheat Ontario Fall Wheat It is the best family flour. Makes light nutritious bread; delicious pastry.

Reseases as a second as a seco Stay Cured

Strictures, no matter where located, are ant to involve the surrounding structures. If neglected or improperly treated, ure thrial stricture will produce distressins principus. Cutting, stretching and tearing are the old bar arous methods of treating this disease. The strictly modern and original methods comployed by us are free from the hororal stricture tigs are absolutely safe and harmiess. The abornal stricture tissue is dissolved and leaves the channel free and clear. All untatural discharges cease, any irritation or uning sensation disappears, the Kidneys, Bladder, Prostate Cland and other surrounding organs are strengthened and the blas of mainhood returns. Our ABSORPTIVE TREATMENT will positively cure you. YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED.

CONSULTATION FREE. Question List For Home DR. SPINNEY & CO.

290 WOODWARD AVE., DETROIT, MICH. Es accessossessessessessessessessessesses

SLED

We have a full line of Sleds with solid steel frames, worth $1.35, $1.25, $1.00, that must go for $1.00, 80c.

> A. H. Patterson, Phone 61.

3 Doors East of Market.

SLED

ADVERTISE IN THE PLANET