NEVER DOUBT IT.

No, dear: It is not a bum steer. What you were told will hold Good. You may have understood There was some doubt About It. Not so. The seasons fit. First it's July And then something else by and by.

That's why We arise right here To say without fear Of successful contradiction, "It's a fact." And you may act Accordingly. See?

If doubters come Saying there may be some Mistake, Take A fall out of them and show By the watch it is so.

It is as sure as shooting Or the tooting Of Gabriel's trumpet. We don't like to jump At conclusions, but in this case We're not afraid to say Without hawing or humming That Christmas is coming.

At first blush You may be inclined to say: "Oh, hush! You're giving us grief." But really it's no bluff. Investigate and see. And you'll be Convinced that it is not hot air. But that it is really, truly, coming on the square.

Where He Was In Luck.

Alexander, having conquered the earth, or all of it that he knew anything about, sat down on the folding bed to weep a few tubs of Greek tears because it was impossible for him to go out and conquer a world or two before breakfast.

"It is really distressing to see the king so sad over a little thing like that," said one of his ministers, who was standing at a safe distance talking with another, the secretary of the war department, on ways and means of cheering the king.

"It is indeed," replied the secretary, lowering his voice, but between me and you Alex doesn't know when he is well off. Suppose, for instance, the Japs had been discovered before this. Instead of passing away with his record straight he might go down in history as the man who bit off more than he could chew."

Not So Poor.

He started in life as a barfoot boy Without any shoes or hat. But he had enough swaddling clothes, I guess, To carpet a good sized flat.

Making It Easy.

"You should follow the example of George Washington, who never told a lie."

"Perhaps his mother never asked him on a hot day if he had been swimming."

Takes Those She Can Survive. "Tasty tries all of his jokes on his wife before publication."

"Is she a good judge?" "Well, if she doesn't fall over dead he uses them."

Same Results.

He dug down for an auto And for repairs dug deeper. It seemed a foolish thing to do, For dynamite was cheaper.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

A man who raises sugar beets may be no more respectable than the man who raises cane.

No one will dispute that exercise is good for the health if one happens to be in a lot with a mad bull.

Three is company most decidedly for the family that has but one spare bedroom.

Suppose a pretty woman does turn a man's head. That is what he has the head for.

One reason why a married man does not hold his wife on his lap is that there is nothing wrong about it.

Good intentions do not cut much ice without a little will power to second the motion.

Considering the way we talk about people, isn't it strange that we get mad when we hear somebody talking about us?

Kind words may not be as smart as sarcasm, but they make more lasting friends.

It makes a man who has a wealthy mother-in-law mad when he reads the mother-in-law jokes.

Executing a Monster Elephant.

The Indian elephant named Fritz in the zoological gardens of Berlin was Europe's largest animal until it finally had to be killed for distemper. Dr. Schilling was appointed hangman.

First he tried strangulation by means of ropes and pulleys, but the ropes broke and the elephant remained intact. Next he tried poisoning.

The animal was given fodder of fresh bananas, which was doctored with a relish. Then a few bananas were dipped in carbolic acid, but no amount of coaxing could make Fritz "go" them.

Finally shooting was tried. The heaviest big game rifle was procured and a shot was fired into the left armpit.

The elephant merely looked around in surprise, the bullet having fattened against the shoulder blade. Then a Maxim gun was pulled up. A fusillade of projectiles was pumped into the big beast under the right armpit.

The elephant went down like a house. In its death struggle, which was studied by many scientists, it broke all its chains and reduced part of the iron fence in the paddock to scrap iron.

Wolsley's Opinion of the Chinese.

It was Lord Wolsley who regarded the Chinese as the greatest race in the world. His opinion was formed about 1860, when he was in China, and he never renounced it. He said to a representative of the Strand Magazine:

"The Chinese people possess all the elements of being a great people. They have courage, physical power and absolute contempt for death. Today in that country soldiering is looked down upon. Only the 'failures in life' enter the army. Let a Blomfield or a Napoleon rise up among them and in two generations they would be the greatest nation and conquering power in the world. They only need a leader. Give them progress, and they will conquer. Three hundred years ago they were the head of the world, but their growth was stunted. China wants a modern man with modern ambitions. Let their leader come, and they must revive again."

The American Girl.

WHAT MAKES HER POPULAR.

The American girl is admired and liked at home and abroad because she is the happiest, usually the healthiest, and in the end the most successful of all girls. She is fond of life and is alive to everything beautiful and good in existence. Mrs. Langley has said that the American woman is less likely to learn from her English sisters.

Dr. Pierce, the specialist in women's diseases, of Buffalo, N. Y., advises simple exercises for women, usually the healthiest, and in the end the most successful of all girls. She is fond of life and is alive to everything beautiful and good in existence. Mrs. Langley has said that the American woman is less likely to learn from her English sisters.

If a woman suffers from a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, she naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the woman's organs. In 98 per cent of cases the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

WITTE WARMLY WELCOMED.

Russia Grateful to Man Who Ended the Big War.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29.—M. Witte, the senior Russian peace plenipotentiary, returned to St. Petersburg yesterday, and the enthusiastic welcome accorded by the awaiting crowds fully demonstrates the great popularity of the statesman, and public appreciation of the services he has rendered his country at Portsmouth. Cheers followed cheer the plenipotentiary alighted from the train, and when later M. Witte replied in an intensely patriotic strain to the address of welcome popular enthusiasm found full vent.

Will Help It Along. Toronto, Sept. 30.—Hon. Mr. Montfort expresses himself greatly impressed with what he saw regarding the growth of tobacco in Ontario. He has just returned from an automobile tour in Kent County. "I am convinced that tobacco growing has a future in this country, and we are going to try to help it along," said he. He believes the acreage can be greatly increased and just as good tobacco can be grown as anywhere in the States, with the exception of the Havana brands. The crop is a profitable one, often yielding as much as $100 per acre to the farmer.

"I propose to make investigations regarding soils, cultivation, and methods of curing in order to place as much information as possible before the farmers of the province," he concluded.

Her Last Dime Gone, Suicide. Detroit, Sept. 30.—Discouraged, foot-sore and heartsick, because of her failure to obtain employment, Blanche Haines, twenty-one years old, who came to Detroit three weeks ago from her home in Ridgeway, committed suicide here yesterday by swallowing enough arsenic to kill a dozen men. With her last ten cent piece she purchased the poison at a drug store late Thursday night and a few hours later was unconscious, dying at three o'clock yesterday morning. Her last words were: "Tell mother I love her."

Canals Open on Sunday. Montreal, Sept. 30.—In order to facilitate business the Canada Canals Sault Ste. Marie through to the La Chine have been ordered to remain open for traffic on Sunday from October 1 to close of navigation.

STRANGER THAN FICTION

A Remedy Which Has Revolutionized The Treatment of Stomach Troubles.

The remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery nor yet a secret patent medicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles with which nine out of ten suffer.

The remedy is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin (government test), golden seal and diastase. The tablets are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many interesting experiments to test the digestive power to Stuart's Tablets show that one grain of the active principle contained in them is sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of raw meat, eggs and other wholesome food.

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like after dinner pills and cheap cathartics, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines without having any effect whatever in digesting food or curing indigestion.

If the stomach can be rested and assisted in the work of digestion it will very soon recover its normal vigor, as no organ is so much abused and overworked as the stomach.

This is the secret, if there is any secret, of the remarkable success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a remedy practically unknown a few years ago and now the most widely known of any treatment for stomach weakness.

This success has been secured entirely upon its merits as a digestive pure and simple, because there can be no stomach trouble if the food is promptly digested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive power which weak stomachs lack and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of "tonics," "pills" and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be found at all drug stores and the regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit better than any other argument.

"Electrified." The startling physiological effects of electricity upon the human system fully warrant the use of the word as a superlative term to express enthusiastic conditions. This expression must have come into use at an early day, soon after Franklin made the static electrical machine a matter of general knowledge, for Thomas Jefferson in his autobiography stated, "Paine's 'Common Sense' electrified us." Thomas Paine's book was issued Jan. 1, 1776, and as Jefferson's autobiography was founded on his diary it is probable that the sentence was written by Jefferson at the same time.
