Business meeting of the W. C. T. U. the last Monday of every month

NOTICE

To W. C. T. U. Members—and others

Now our civic obligations have been discharged our minds are at rest and we can return to our W. C. T. U. duties with fresh zest. I would urge upon our members the privilege of helping on the Department of our work designated "Willard Hall" in our W. C. T. U. Column. This very mis-leading appellation simply means surprise Soap wrappers. For the benefit of the uninitiated I might say that "Willard Hall" is the name of the Canadian W. C. T. U. Headquarters, located at Toronto where all our Surprise Soap wrappers must be sent by our agents in Ontario and the Maritime Provinces.

At the risk of repeating previous explanations it would be well to state here that the proprietors of The Surprise Soap Company have generously offered to pay 50% on all soap coupons sent back to them by our W. C. T. U. Unions. A fund raised in this way helps to pay the salary of a woman (called "Travellers' Aid") at the Railway stations at Toronto who is expected to look after girls, children, or unprotected women, and render them what assistance is needed.

So please forward as soon as possible your Surprise Soap wrappers to Mrs. M. P. Freeman, at Miss Harwood's Apartments, Main St., who is the only authorized W. C. T. U. agent for Wolfville, P. O. Box 34.

CHARACTER BY THE MONTH

If a girl is born in January she is a prudent housewife, given to melancholy, but good tempered.

If in February, a humane and affectionate wife and tender mother.

If in March, a frivolous chatter box, somewhat given to quarrelling.

If in April, full of life and activity, quick tempered and sometimes extravagant.

If in May, handsome and likely to be happy.

If in June, impetuous, will marry early and be frivolous.

If in July, passably handsome, but with a sulky temper.

If in August, amiable and practical and likely to marry rich.

If in September, discreet, affable and much liked.

If in October, pretty and coquettish, and likely to be unhappy.

If in November, liberal, kind and to a mild disposition.

If in December, well proportioned, fond of novelty and extravagant.

A JUBILANT JUNILEE

"Some years ago," says an American who used to live in London, "before Queen Victoria's death and about the time the queen's jubilee was to be celebrated, there was overheard this conversation between two old Scotchwomen on a street corner: "Can ye tell me, wumman, what it is they call a jubilee?"

"Weel, it's this, said the other. 'When folk has been married twenty-five years, that's a silver wuddin'; and when they have been married fifty years, a golden wuddin'. But if the mon is dead then it's a jubilee.'"

What's the use of telling a pretty girl how pretty she is? She knows it.

Nobody yet has ever been mean enough to take a snapshot picture of a girl getting off a moving streetcar backward.

STAR OF "THE KID" INIMITABLE IN "PECK'S BAD BOY"

Equalling if not surpassing, his wonderfully successful performance in "The Kid," Jackie Coogan, six-year-old marvel of the screen, gives a truly delightful and refreshing characterization in the title role of "Peck's Bad Boy," which opens an engagement at the Opera House, for Wednesday and Thursday.

The production, as a whole, is a splendid accomplishment. The most amusing and interesting episodes from the celebrated works of the late Governor George Peck, have been incorporated in the screen version. The subtitles, which were written by Irvin S. Cobb, fairly snap with the brilliant humor of that clever writer, and Jackie Coogan's interpretation of the part of the mischievous youngster who is constantly getting himself and others into trouble is one of the most pleasing contributions that anyone—man, woman or child—has yet given to the screen.

In "Peck's Bad Boy" Jackie Coogan is the same sprightly, lovable little chap that he was in "The Kid." In some ways he may be a little naughtier, but he gives a portrayal of a real boy who inspires his shortcomings, wins the sympathy of all.

"Peck's Bad Boy" is brimming over with laughs and is the conveyor of not a few thrills. It is a credit to the whole motion picture industry, and a genuine triumph for the child star. It is a picture that all should see.

Jackie Coogan has excellent support in this picture. Doris May plays the role of the "bad boy's" sister. Wheeler Oakman is the Man in the Case. James Corrigan portrays Pa Peck, while Lillian Leighton is seen as Ma Peck. Raymond Hatton is the village grocer; Charles Hatton, Jackie's Buddie; Baby Gloria Wood, Jackie's "affinity," and, yes, "Tar Baby" is Jackie's dog.

"Peck's Bad Boy," one of the finest First National attractions released this season.

On Mon. and Tues., Feb. 20-21. Patrons will be pleased to know we are showing Zane Grey's popular story "The Riders of the Dawn," taken from the book "The Desert of Wheat."

"Riders of the Dawn" is full of action from start to finish, a story that will hold the interest until the last foot of film is shown. Friday and Saturday we can especially suggest your attention to Dorothy Gish in a real, live, snappy comedy, "The Ghost in the Garret," full of real comedy and something unusual and different. Following "The Ghost in the Garret" is Harry Lemon in the Comedy "The Stage-hand," a peep behind the scenes with that great Comedian insures you of a barrel of fun.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To clean mica in stoves, use warm vinegar.

To make a faded dress perfectly white, wash in boiling water, to which cream of tartar has been added.

Chair bottoms that have sagged may be made as tight as ever by washing them with hot water and leaving them to dry in the open air.

To rid the house of flies, place large vases of sweet peas around. The flies will either escape or become intoxicated and fall, and can be easily swept up.

IS THIS FOR YOU? HOW MUCH OWEST THOU?

Perhaps many of our good subscribers do not realize that one of the most difficult things to deal with is the matter of getting in our subscription accounts. Newspapers are payable in advance, but large numbers neglect to pay. Perhaps this is due to the smallness of the account or to the smallness of the good natured, easy belief that the paper does not need money. Now when we tell our subscribers that in all the years we have been in the newspaper business it never cost more than it does to-day to get out the paper over twice as much as it used to cost, and we need thus money now on our books to pay the printers.

We are trying our best to publish a good paper every week, and we are therefore entitled to ask all our subscribers to pay up and make the financial path of the Editor clearer.

All we need is for our subscribers to pay their paper promptly. Let it be a case of good will all around. Now subscribers the prompt payment of overdue subscriptions will show that our confidence in you is not misplaced, so send or bring in what you owe at once and so make others happy and be happy yourself in the year 1922.

BETTER WORKS NEEDED

Father O'Leary was off to catch the Dublin express and on the way to the station he met the bishop. "Well, what's your hurry?" said the bishop.

"It's the Dublin express I'm after, your lordship," replied Father O'Leary.

The bishop pulled out his watch "Well," he said, "there are seven minutes yet. Let us walk together and both catch it."

They arrived at the station just in time to see the train steaming out.

"Do you know I had the greatest faith in that watch, O'Leary," said the bishop.

"Yes, my lord," replied O'Leary, "but what is faith without good works?"—Answers.

AGES OF BIRDS

An investigation has been made into the subject of the longevity of birds. With one notable exception, the carrion, or meat-eating birds are the longest lived. The exception is the swan. The average ages of some of the best-known birds are given in the following list: Blackbird lives 12 years; black cap, 15 years; Canary, 24; crane, 24; crow, 100; eagle, 100; fowl (common), 59; lark, 13; linnet, 23; nightingale, 18; parrot, 60; partridge, 15; peacock, 24; pelican, 50; pheasant 15; pigeon, 20; raven, 100; robin, 12; skylark, 30; sparrow-hawk, 40; swan, 100; thrush, 10; and wren, 3 years.

HOME TOWN PAPER

Of course, the whole family reads the "Home Town Paper." The whole family wants to know the happenings of the community; wants to read the news about what the people they know for miles around are doing.

The "Home Town Paper" is a complete history every year of you and your neighbours. It tells of the comings and goings, the births, the marriages, the joys and the sorrows—all the event that go to make up community life.

History? Why, the average "Home Town Paper" contains at least TEN THOUSAND NAMES in the 52 weeks of any year! Just reflect a bit and realize what that means. If you sat down and read a voluminous history of the whole world from the birth of creation, you would not find that many names in it. And yet the "Home Town Paper" makes a regular yearly custom of printing ten thousand names and sometimes twice that number.

The "Home Town Paper" is a sedative, a tonic to the nerves, a relief after hard work with hand and brain, an entertainment to you, your wife, your son and your daughter.

Have you subscribed to THE ACADIAN? If not, do so today. And too, we need your support and hearty co-operation if we are to succeed in making your "Home Town Paper" all we desire it to be.

"Saved My Little Girl!"

Mother tells how her little Ethel's life was saved.

That is what one woman wrote us recently, and then she goes on to say:— "Ethel who is just past eight, caught a bad cold last August. The child is of a highly strung, nervous temperament and could not be kept quiet in bed. We tried everything we could think of to cure her cough. But, the cough became worse and from a rosy, healthy, sturdy girl she became pale and thin. Nothing we did seemed to stop the cough and by this time regular spasms of coughing had developed. These coughing spells left the child weak and completely tired out. I believe that in a short time the cough would have reached the child's lungs. After trying everything I could think of, I saw an advertisement for Carnol, saying that this preparation would build one up. I got a bottle from the druggist and before it was half finished my little girl had almost completely shaken off her cough. Her cheeks began to get back their old colour. She started to put on flesh again and would run and play all day without being tired. Today, after having taken two bottles of Carnol, she is looking and feeling better than she has ever felt in her life."

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money.
