PORT WILLIAMS SADDENED BY PASSING OF MRS. EDWIN WEST

A gloom was cast over the community of Port Williams on Sunday morning, when the sad news was made known of the very sudden death of Mrs. Edwin West, which occurred on Saturday evening at eleven o'clock. Mrs. West had been in her usual good health and had attended to her many duties during the day, entertaining several friends to tea, and was apparently as well as usual during the evening when she laid down to rest and wait for her husband to come home (Mr. West is one of the efficient staff of G. A. Chase's) and while waiting fell asleep, the sleep from which she never awakened. Mrs. West was a most popular woman, always interested in the best things of life and ever ready to help when called upon, a most sincere Christian and a friend to all. Those who knew her best could most appreciate her very quiet but sincere friendship. She will be greatly missed in the church and Sunday school, being a most active member of the "King's Daughters" S. S. class, and a most valued member of the Christian and a friend who was always in place unless hindered by circumstances which made it impossible to attend. The deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. West. There are to mourn her loss beside her husband and his mother (who has always made her home with them), one brother, Mr. Fred Woodworth, of Landenberg, Pa., and three sisters, viz., Mrs. N. P. MacQuarrie, of Mexico, Maine; Mrs. Alfred Robert, of 40 Glendale avenue, Atlanta, Ga.; and Mrs. Arthur Parrish, of Port Williams.

The funeral service was held from her home on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. O. N. Chipman. The music was rendered by a mixed quartette composed of Messrs. B. G. Lantz, bass; E. Kinzie, tenor; Miss Lucy Cogswell, alto; and Mrs. O. G. Cogswell, soprano.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, a few of which were: a peace wreath from G. A. Chase and staff; a spray of roses from the "King's Daughters" S. S. class; a spray of roses from the Baptist choir; a wreath from her husband; crescent from Mrs. Sarah West, and very many others.

Mr. Edwin West, of Port Williams, desires through THE ACADIAN to extend sincere thanks for the many manifestations of sympathy and good-will of which he has been the recipient during his recent bereavement. The beautiful floral tributes furnished by neighbors and friends were greatly appreciated.

OUR NEW SERIAL "The Smoking Flax"

By ROBERT STEAD

Author of "The Cowpuncher", "Neighbors", etc.

Will Begin October 1st

Mysterious adventure and thrilling suspense, with a background of Western atmosphere and color, and faithful pen-pictures of the people and the life of the prairie homesteads and farms.

Mr. Stead knows the charm and the fascination of the prairies. He describes it with real insight, tinged with an intense sympathy. He tells a dramatic story of a man's passionate devotion to his sister's child, his love for a woman and how he conquered a passion of great hatred.

"The Smoking Flax" is Acclaimed by Leading Critics an Outstanding Canadian Novel

Mr. S. Morgan-Powell, book critic of the Montreal Star, in a signed review in his paper, says of "The Smoking Flax": "It will appeal keenly to those who know their West, and to the reader whose knowledge of prairie farm life is confined to hearsay information it will be a book of exceptional interest. Mr. Stead can create atmosphere, and he feels the color and spirit of the prairie and strives to interpret it faithfully and without exaggeration."

The Edmonton Journal says: "There is no writer who has taken his material from the life of the prairies who has a better first-hand knowledge of the latter. The books which he has published hitherto have been genuine products of the West and have contrasted strongly in this respect with those brought out by some literary fakirs who have obtained a large vogue by giving absolutely false pictures of conditions here. "The Smoking Flax" has all the characteristics of a really fine novel. No one who knows anything of western farms can fail to be impressed with the fact that they are real people who are being sketched."

The Canadian Bookman says: "Robert Stead writes about the prairie and Main Street, Manitoba, in a way which touches my heart. If anyone wants a book which gives a fair description of life in Western Canada, here it is."

Montreal Gazette: "A fine piece of writing, in which the western atmosphere and color are vividly brought out."

This book would cost you $2.00 to buy, but by subscribing to THE ACADIAN now you can get the whole story and in addition the other features of the paper and a the news of Eastern Kings.
