

A CANADIAN SOLDIER SAYS

"Tell my friends, if they want to help me, to send some Zam-Buk. The boys here say it is very good, and it is much in demand." This is an extract from a letter received from Pte. J. R. Smith of "The Princess Pals" in France.

There is certainly nothing so good as Zam-Buk for the accidents and ailments incidental to a soldier's life. It is splendid for all kinds of sores, blisters, burns and cuts, and it is equally good for frost bites, chilblains, cold cracks and chapped hands. Nothing ends pain and heals so quickly, and being antiseptic, an application of Zam-Buk to a wound as seen as sustained, will prevent all danger of blood-poisoning.

If you want to send your soldier friend something he is sure to appreciate—put a box or two of Zam-Buk in your next parcel.

WAS FIRST JAPANESE TO BE AWARDED V. O.

Tokuji Sato, of Vancouver, who was mentioned in yesterday's Colonist as having been awarded the Victoria Cross for exceptional valor, is believed to be the first Japanese to win that coveted decoration in the present war.

The following appreciation of the gallant soldier has been furnished by a former employer who knew him well while in British Columbia:

"Sato was with me as engineer on the Chakawana for three years, leaving me to go overseas last September. He was industrious and an excellent mechanic, being able to turn his hand to anything from splicing a rope to making an electrical installation. Rather taciturn by nature he still had a very strong sense of humor. He was very resourceful and while cautious, he was absolutely without fear. He had been an engineer in the Japanese fleet during the Russian war and was present, I believe, at several naval engagements. I am glad that an opportunity came to show what he was capable of. It is a great thing."
