Horse Rugs and Singsles

A grand old remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, used throughout the world for half a century, has cured innumerable cases.

WOMAN'S REALM.

Latest Parisian and American Fashions. A Pretty Mauve Poplin Gown.

Character Read From Old Shoes. The waterproof coat is no longer hideous.

Long, clinging sleeves, extending upon the hand, are still the correct model and will remain so for some time to come.

Charming decorations for this gown are obtained by applying muslin or batiste upon the surface, outlining the design with oval and then cutting away the muslin or batiste.

Fashion is now to a certain degree eclectic. It is now a matter of skirts, for example, provided they are tight and moulded to the figure from the waist down to the knee.

A pretty mauve poplin gown has a circular skirt trimmed with two wide bands of black velvet.

I saw a number of girls of pink velvet covered with black chivalry. It is the process form, with a very low décolletage, the lace portion appearing as a band of black velvet.

It is said that character may be read from a pair of old shoes. If the sole and heel are worn, it is a sign of a man who is a busy man.

Remember these last sentences and then see what follows: 'The only thing to be done, therefore, is to compel the natives to work as they like it or not.'

Another Rhodesian paper a short time ago blantly said that when a native working at the mines fell sick or was injured he was simply laid out on the dump to die—under the British flag.

It is not the language of Legree, the slave-driver, I want one to tell me what it is. But the strange thing about the Rhodesian paper is that it is not the language of Legree.

SOUTH AFRICA.

Some Startling Revelations. The Sale of "Cape Smoke"

The Great Curse of the Country—Full of Jews. Westmont writes in Citizen and Country:

There are some very curious things being done to-day under the British flag. It was once the proud boast of an Englishman that his flag floated only over the free, but in Cape Town and East Africa it covers the slave as well, and the appeals neither of humanitarians nor missionaries have effected a repeal or modification of this state of things.

At first his victims did not know the swindle, but in his greed to win all their money, the sharper caught the thing a little too far. He dealt one of his opponents, a Chicago man, four kings and a pair of aces.

When the hands were shown down, there was a general howl, because by this time the whole company had grown distrustful of the man who had never failed to play the winning hand in all his previous deals.

Mr. —, I am decidedly of opinion that you are working a hold out machine on which those who are called "Uitlanders" are at this moment suffering.

There is no difference among us as to the necessity of redressing the grievances from which those who are called "Uitlanders" are at this moment suffering.

Later on he said:—"The Government is not doing anything to redress the grievances from which those who are called "Uitlanders" are at this moment suffering.

There is no difference among us as to the necessity of redressing the grievances from which those who are called "Uitlanders" are at this moment suffering.

SHARPER CAUGHT.

Poker on an Ocean Liner. Chicago Man Held Four Kings, But His Opponent Showed Four Aces

'It was once a passenger on an Atlantic liner who captured a sharper in the most approved style,' said Mr. H. C. Carson, of Newark, N. J.

At first his victims did not know the swindle, but in his greed to win all their money, the sharper caught the thing a little too far.

When the hands were shown down, there was a general howl, because by this time the whole company had grown distrustful of the man who had never failed to play the winning hand in all his previous deals.

DEWEY TALKS.

The Filipinos are a Queer Lot. General Otis Tries to do too Much. He Wants to be General, Governor, Judge and Everything Else.

New York, Sept. 28.—The "Evening Post" prints a lengthy interview with Admiral Dewey to-day. Talking of Philippine affairs, the Admiral said, among other things: "General Luna was the best man the Filipinos had. Taking them altogether they are a queer lot. They were simply extravagant scoundrels, and Aguinaldo was a junior clerk in the navy yard. He is a pretty smart fellow, but he has the brains there are cared by petty usans, and by that respect for the existing independence of the South African Republic to which Ministers of the Queen have so repeatedly pledged themselves."

"MY FRIENDS DESPAIR."

La Grippe and Nervous Prostration had Brought Captain Copp Near to Death—South American Nerve was the Life Saver.

"I was ailing for nearly four years with nervous prostration. I tried many remedies and was treated by physicians until I was nearly penniless. A year ago I took a grippe, which greatly aggravated my trouble. My friends despaired of my recovery. I was induced to try South American Nerve, and was rejoiced to get almost instant relief. I have used four bottles and feel myself completely cured. I believe it is the best remedy known for the nerves and blood."—Wm. M. Copp, Newcastle, N. B.
