he read the Toronto morning papers and saw that Covey, the southpaw he has signed, made an excellent showing against the Toronto Eastern League team in the game with Portsmouth yes-terday afternoon. Covey pitched the last four innings for the Virginia team and the Maple-Leafs did not make a hit off him, and they did not in these innings. In discussing the question of tryouts of local players, Mr. Paige stated that he would not be bothered with players who were not temperate in their habits. Portsmouth, Va., April 8.—Toronto closed its southern baseball trip at Portsmouth, easily defeating the Virginia League team 9 to 3. They utterly outclassed the local nine, hitting the ball fiercely for the first five innings. In-the last four they did not get a hit off the left-handed Covey, who has been signed to play with Hamilton in the International League.

Jimmie Downey, formerly of Toronto, played a great game for Portsmouth. He is easily the best man on that team. The Toronto team left for Wilmington, Del., this evening by boat and are due theer to-morrow morning. McGinley was the only pitcher of the Toronto trio that Portsmouth could do anything with. WANT RIPLEY AND DORE.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, April 8.—Many local enthusiasts are pulling strong with the league executive this spring for the reappointment of Messrs. Italph Ripley and Eddie Dore as unpires this year. Both men gave entire satisfaction last season, but are said to be a little high priced for their services, and as a result local men are being considered for the job, which is a difficult one at times, owing to great interest in City League matters here. Exciting Wrestling Bout In Toronto Last Night.

Toronto, April 8.-The handicap vrestling match between "Frank Ken nedy" and Art Edmunds at the Labor, Temple last night, proved an exciting affair. Kennedy was to throw Edaffair. Kennedy was to throw Edmunds four times in an hour to win the purse, but failed to do so. Kennedy secured the first fall after 15 minutes and 5 seconds of very rough work. The next fall also went to Kennedy in 12½ minutes. After five minutes' rest Edmunds gained a fall from his much heavier opponent, thus winning the bout. A good deal of hard feeling existed between the men and they nearly came to blows. Kennedy was challenged by Harry Gatenby, and they will probably meet in the near future.

Mr. Le Vehnois has a splendid flow of language, and emphasizes his words by appropriate gestures.

Mr. A. R. Lancefield, the next speaker, has a spiendid voice, but does not use any gestures. His subject was "The Value of Reading." He said that casual reading was not really reading as all, but that to get good out of books it was necessary to reflect as well as to read.
