

HERE AND THERE THROUGHOUT WIDE NORTHUMBERLAND

DOAKTOWN

Bad Roads

The weather for the past week has been very cold and stormy. It keeps the lumbermen busy keeping the roads ploughed. In some places where they are not ploughed, they are almost completely blocked.

Mrs. Everett Brennan and two children of Nelson, are visiting Mrs. Brennan's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turner.

Messrs. Herman Attridge and Herbert Doak were delegates to the Farmers and Dairyman's Association held at Fredericton last week.

Miss Dora Holt of Quarryville is a visitor in town this week.

Mr. William Murray and son Johnny have returned from Fredericton where they have been spending a few days.

Messrs. Patrick Porter, Edward Hogan and Ronald Hurley were visiting Doaktown on Saturday.

Mrs. Taylor and little daughter, who has been visiting the former's old home for the past few months, returned to Houlton one day last week. Mrs. Jessie Robinson sister of Mrs. Taylor, accompanied them as far as Fredericton.

Mrs. A. J. Patstone went to Fredericton on Saturday and will spend a few days in St. John before returning home.

Rev. A. J. Patstone conducted his three services as usual on Sunday. On Monday morning he left for Fredericton where he will join Mrs. Patstone, en route from St. John.

Broken Leg

Mr. Hartley Amos of Amos town, met with quite a serious and painful accident one day last week, while working in the woods with Robert Nelson. He had the misfortune of having his leg broken near the ankle.

Mr. Alder, commercial traveler, spent Sunday last in town.

Mr. Harry Russell who has been scaling for the Miramichi Lumber company, returned to his home here one day last week.

Mr. Robert Weaver who has been to Newcastle on a trip, has returned home and proceeded to his work with Mr. Frank Russell at Calais River.

Mr. Peter Doak who was called to Doaktown several weeks ago, owing to the illness of his brother Mr. Myles Doak, left on Tuesday morning's express for Fredericton, en route for his home at Ashland, Me.

Mr. Harry Russell and Miss Dora Holt were guests of Mrs. William Murray of South Road on Monday.

Mr. Howard Lyons of McNamara had the misfortune to jam his foot badly while working in the woods with Mr. Alexander Storey.

Messrs. Charles Weaver and Leslie Sutherland of Lower Blissfield, were in town on Monday.

Mr. William Cummins, popular merchant of Doaktown, went to Fredericton on Monday to visit his sister Mrs. Joseph Arbeau.

Mr. James Donalds of Gibson is spending a few days with his brother Mr. George Donalds of this place.

Mr. Edgar Robinson was a visitor in town on Monday. He left for Fredericton on Tuesday morning.

Mr. William Ogilvie Jr. who has been working with Mr. Lynch of Boiestown returned to his home on Monday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Ballard and children Myrna, Thelma and Lyman of Blissfield were in town on Tuesday.

Messrs. Lester Parker and James Harrigan were in town on Tuesday.

Recently we read an account of the marriage of Mr. Guy A. Mersereau photographer of Chatham. Mr. Mersereau's many friends here will join in wishing him and Mrs. Mersereau much happiness and a pleasant journey through life.

Mr. Nel Tucker was in town on Tuesday last.

Mrs. P. D. Swin and Mrs. Charles Pettis were calling on the sick of Blissfield quite recently.

Miss Minnie Betts was the guest of Miss Elsie Murray one day last week.

Pulpit Supplied by Thos. Parker.

Mr. Thomas Parker occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday evening as the pastor. Rev. Geo. Tilley was unable to conduct the services owing to his recent illness.

Mr. Upton (Mr. Tilley's assistant, took the services on the other part of the circuit.

Mrs. Ella Stewart was called to Campbellton one day last week on account of the illness of her sister. We are glad to see Miss Bertha Ogilvie out again after a severe attack of grippe and rheumatism.

Miss Ida Sutherland who is at present attending Doaktown Superior School, spent Sunday last at her home in Blissfield.

Mrs. James Weaver of Weavers Siding was in town recently.

GRACE CUNARD MAR-RIED TO JOE MOORE.
A secret romance of Los Angeles, when it was learned that Grace Cunard, famous film star, and Joe Moore had eloped and were married Thursday night at Seal Beach.

The wedding was the culmination of a romance which had its inception in a Los Angeles motion picture studio and about which even intimate friends of the couple know nothing.

Moore and Miss Cunard motored to Seal Beach, where they were married. Next day they were back at work at the studios of the L-K-O company in Hollywood.

Moore and his bride met in Los Angeles about four months ago. They will make their home here.

BLACKVILLE

A Surprise Party

Miss Ella Grady left Saturday morning to visit friends in Boston. On the eve of her departure the young folks tendered her a surprise party.

Mr. A. Alcorn went to St. John on a business trip Saturday morning.

Heard Billy Sunday

The many friends of Mr. Al Johnson, bookkeeper for A. Alcorn, were delighted to see him looking better after his trip to Boston. He was one of the favored ones in hearing the much talked of "Billy Sunday."

To Attend McGill

Mr. Schaffer returned Tuesday from a business trip to Quebec and Montreal. Mrs. Bernetta remained the guest of her sister Mrs. I. Popliger and will register for studies at McGill.

Mr. Bryne, representative for H. Horton & Son, called on the trade last week.

An Enjoyable Party

On Tuesday evening last a number of the young folks gathered at the home of Thos. Ross and spent a delightful evening. Dancing, music and games were participated in and all join in voting Miss Laura a very charming hostess.

Mr. Michael O'Hara spent Saturday in town.

Mr. R. J. Yearsley, popular Beaver Flour sales manager, was in town Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Bert Connors are glad to see her able to be about again after her recent illness.

Game Warden

Mr. Jas. H. Dale is now holding position of game warden.

Miss Laura Ross spent Saturday in Newcastle.

Master Owen Brennan has resumed his duties as errand boy for M. Schaffer, after spending a pleasant week in John Fitzsimon's camp.

Mr. Harry Steele went to Fredericton to see his daughter, Mrs. Jos Arbeau.

Baptist Services

Mr. Kochaly, the Baptist student now stationed at Upper Blackville, held service in the public hall Sunday last. The service was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Mr. Walter Sutherland spent Sunday at his home in Newcastle.

Mr. Wm. Walls had the misfortune to have his leg hurt while working in the woods.

Miss Lillian Hambrook spent Sunday with friends in Upper Blackville.

Mrs. Patrick Donohue has recovered from her recent illness.

We are all glad to see Mr. Theo Barnett around town again.

Father Murdoch and Father Burns spent Tuesday evening, guests of Father Crumbley.

Commercial Travellers

The following commercial travellers registered at The Layton Hotel were calling on the trade:

Mr. Richards of Palmer McLeish Co.
Mr. Campbell of Jas. S. Neill & Sons.
Mr. Peters of St. Lawrence Burntore Co.
Mr. Perley of A. E. Wry Co.
Mr. Kelly of Robertson Foster & Smith Co.

Messrs. Sorley and Clarke are engaged in repairing automobiles.

Messrs. Marshall Ross and Thos. Connors are installing an acetylene lighting system in M. Schaffer's store and house.

Mrs. Stanley McDonald spent Monday in Newcastle.

Miss Myrtle Schofield intends returning to St. Stephen on Friday.

HAZELTON

The weather for the past few days has been very disagreeable. The roads are in a bad condition.

Allain-Murphy

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Allison, when Mr. William Allison and Mrs. Smith Murphy were united in marriage by Rev. W. W. Stackhouse. The ride was grown-up in brown serge.

Misses Gladys Ward and Hattie Parker were the guests of Miss Martha Gilks Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sargeant was calling on her mother, Mrs. S. D. Betts on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Thos. Carroll is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. S. D. Betts.

Mrs. Frank Crocker was the guest of Mrs. Wesley Gilks one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Storey were in Doaktown on Friday.

Miss Martha Gilks was the guest of Miss Gladys Ward Friday last.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Everett Parker is able to be around again.

A number of young ladies were calling on Mrs. Walter Ward one day last week.

SUNNY CORNER

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Parks spent Monday evening at Mrs. Parks' home here.

Miss L. Mullin was the guest of Miss Rose Tozer Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank McFarlane, Chatham, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Stewart.

Miss Mary Hubbard spent the former part of the week with relatives here.

Miss Mary McDonald has gone to Boom Road for a few weeks.

Mr. Daniel Cline who came home from the woods last week with a sore foot, returned again Tuesday.

Mr. Wallace Johnston passed through this village Saturday en route to his home leading a dandy new horse.

Miss Edith Tozer was hostess to an enjoyable party Saturday evening.

About twenty young people were present and spent the evening in dancing and games, luncheon being served at 11:30 p. m., everyone voting it a jolly time.

BOIESTOWN

The weather still continues cold. Such extreme cold has never been witnessed or felt since the "cold Friday." Snow drifts and winds make our roads almost impassable.

Threatened by Fire

Mr. Robert Palmer came near losing his dwelling house on Palmer Brook early Sunday morning. He was fortunate in getting the fire under control as owing to the heavy wind it was remarkable. One of his daughters, Miss Lillian, froze both hands severely and other members of the family got severe chills.

Rev Mr Tilley Recovered

We are glad to learn Rev. Geo. Tilley has fully recovered from an attack of jaundice.

Jaundice Prevalent

Mr. James S. Fairley is confined to his home with jaundice. Miss Leafy Snow, who is employed at L. G. Alkali's is suffering from an attack of jaundice, so jaundice is still prevalent in our neighborhood.

Mr. Joseph Norrad is ill at his home with a sore back.

Miss G. A. Wilson is suffering from a very heavy cold.

Mr. James Cameron and Miss Annie Cameron were in town on Saturday.

Dentist J. D. McMillan was in town on Friday and Saturday, and was kept very busy.

Miss Noela Norrad was calling at her grandfather's on Sunday.

Miss Genevieve Young was calling at her aunt's recently.

Meq. Duke and Duchess

Word has been received from Mrs. Harold Casson that she arrived at her destination safely and has had the pleasure of meeting the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire and their daughters Ladies Maude and Blanche.

Coming Home in Spring

Mrs. James S. Fairley received a letter from her son Gagner Tennyson McDonald. He has been removed from No. 11 Stationary Hospital, France to England, and is slowly recovering and expects to be home in the spring.

Mr. Wm. A. Brown who has been ill all winter, has sufficiently recovered to take an outing as far as Harry Norrad's one day last week.

Mrs. Bert Carson and Mrs. Fred Fairley paid a visit to their sister, Mrs. Bud Brown on Thursday.

Mr. Norrad Mann spent Sunday at his home in Holtville.

Methodist Services

Following are appointments by Methodist Mission Pastor and assistant:

Avery Portage—10:30 a. m.
Petersburg—11 a. m.
Bloomfield—3 p. m.
New Bandon—3 p. m.
Boiestown—7 p. m.
Amos—7 p. m.
Feb. 13—Upper Hayesville—6 p. m.
Feb. 15—Taxis River—7 p. m.

GREY RAPIDS

The roads are in poor condition owing to the recent storms.

Mr. Charlie Curtis passed through here on Monday en route to Blackville.

Mrs. Stephen Vickers and Miss Maine Urquhart were calling on friends Monday afternoon.

A number of young ladies spent a very enjoyable evening on Friday, the guests of Miss Esther Underhill.

The many friends of Mrs. Ward Corney are glad to hear she is recovering.

Mr. Odell Underhill and Weldon Jardine have arrived in this vicinity once more.

Miss Esther and Miss Underhill spent a very enjoyable evening, the guests of Mrs. Arthur Underhill.

Mrs. Harry Jardine was the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Underhill on Monday evening.

Mrs. Martin Vickers was calling on Mrs. Thomas Underhill one day of last week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlan on the arrival of a baby boy.

Mr. J. P. Sutherland's men and Mr. Will Coughlan's men are expected home this week. Some of the girls are wearing broad smiles.

Mr. Perley Bryenton was in town Monday.

Miss Alexina Underhill who has been spending a few days in Quarryville has returned home.

Mrs. Frank Jardine was calling on friends one evening last week. Sewing is the order of the day.

Mrs. Millet Underhill and Mrs. Arthur Underhill were calling on friends Sunday afternoon.

Miss Susie Urquhart paid a visit to her home.

Mr. David Schofield of Blackville passed through here on Tuesday.

Nurse Harris has returned home after spending a few days with Mr. Eldon Mountain.

Mr. John and Jane Smith passed through here en route to Bert Underhill's camp.

Miss Della Urquhart was calling on Mr. Trian Coughlan on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Hannah Coughlan was the guest of Mrs. Thomas Vickers Monday afternoon.

route to his home leading a dandy new horse.

Miss Edith Tozer was hostess to an enjoyable party Saturday evening.

About twenty young people were present and spent the evening in dancing and games, luncheon being served at 11:30 p. m., everyone voting it a jolly time.

ESCOMINAC

An Icy Vista

The weather has been very cold for the last three weeks. A very heavy body of ice was formed in the bay and as far as the eye can reach there is nothing to be seen but ice.

Poor Fishing

The smelt fishing so far has not been a success. In the McLean channel the fishermen have not as much as paid their board. Some of them with box nets have done something better.

Mr. John Arsenault who has been sick for the past year is improving a little.

Mrs. Luther Lewis has been confined to the house his last four months with rheumatism.

James Preston, son of W. S. Preston is confined to his bed by a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. Mary L. Theriault is visiting her brother Leger at the Point who is assistant for the light keeper, as he is gone to town on a vacation.

Mr. M. Bransfield and Luther Lewis are busy getting out cord wood for the lobster factories.

Mail Carrier Has His Troubles

Mr. Edwin Allen, mail driver, has had a very hard winter to perform his work owing to such stormy weather and the road not kept open for him. He had the misfortune of crippling one of his horses and a part of the road is so close to the shore that it is dangerous to drive on after night, as the horse is apt to fall over the bank. Some parts of the road is only ten feet wide.

LUDLOW

Sewing Circle

The W. A. sewing circle met at Mrs. Peter O'Donnells on Jan. 31st. Misses Lottie Neagle, Nellie Murphy, B. Hovey, Miss Weldon Hovey, Mrs. James Clowater, Mrs. Seath Dudley, Mrs. Percy Hovey attended the sewing circle. They had a nice lunch and then went home.

Miss Lottie Neagle was visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Carr of Boiestown.

Miss Bea Hovey was spending a few days with Mrs. A. McKay of this place.

Mr. J. S. Pond was looking over some hay belonging to Mr. Bentley Neagle. He intends to purchase a few tons.

Mrs. Seth Dudley was visiting friends in Boiestown on Feb. 29.

Mr. Ernest Hovey has got through lumbering for this winter and his crowd has all come home. The girls were glad to see the smiling faces of some of the boys.

Mr. Cormier and son are doing big business sawing lumber for Mr. Holmes.

Mr. Herbert Neagle and Mr. McLean are hauling logs to the mill and they get two loads a day.

DOUGLASTOWN

Strathadam on Sunday after spending a week with Mrs. James Baile James Lamont and George Cassie were in Blackville on Thursday on a business trip.

Kendall Wood spent Sunday in Strathadam.

Mrs. Burbridge of Chatham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Anderson.

The Women's institute met at the home of Mrs. M. R. Benn on Thursday, Feb. 1. Twelve members answered the roll call. A paper was read on "The Advantages to a Community of Having an Institute, after which refreshments were served."

Mrs. James Murray of Newcastle spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gray.

A few of the members of Wycliffe Lodge L. O. L. attended the county Lodge which was held in Chatham on Tuesday.

Sgt. Hiram Copp of the Klitties, recently returned rounded from overseas, is home from Fredericton for a few days.

Sergt. Jas. F. Craik of the 36th overseas for about two years, returned home Tuesday night, invalided by a wound in the hip.

Lieut. H. H. Ritchie, who lately graduated from a course in Kingston Military College, is with the 65th Battery at Woodstock.

BREAKFAST FOODS

Rolls Oats.....25c pkg.
Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 10c.
Krispies " " 3 for 25c
Grape Nuts.....15c pkg.
Shredded Wheat Biscuits.
2 pgs. for 25c
Cream of Wheat.....22c pkg.
Puffed Wheat.....15c pkg.
Puffed Rice.....15c pkg.
Include Some of Above With Your Next Order.

D. W. STOTHART, Newcastle

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs. Tulley Hovey, has returned home.

Mr. Lawrence Hovey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. Edward Meagher and Mrs. Edw. Meagher spent an evening with Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay was visiting Mrs. Stafford Anderson on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ina Stewart of McNamara was calling on friends of this place.

Miss Robella O'Donnell who was spending the winter with her aunt Mrs