The state of the worth of the wor election wild be apit to open the eyes of the little political prodigy provided that King Rum do not ride rough shod over the intelligence of the County, as has been the case the last two or three elections. I write this in justice to Mr. Gilbert, not that there is any fear of such un-couth attacks having the least tendency to drive him from a faithful discharge of his duty. The absurdity of Mr. Anglin requiring Mr. Gilbert or any other person to be his mouthpiece is sufficiently obvious; and to charge W. J.
