

will hold a meeting for members on Tuesday evening January, at their rooms, Oddfellows.

Recreation.—A very pleasant reunion was held at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served, the roll of members read and a half hour of social chat indulged in.

Sergeants.—Private Duplessis and Watson of the military school, who were court-martialed recently for the charge of selling a non-commissioned officer, the latter for maliciously cutting a comrade's straps, received their sentences Tuesday. Duplessis got 150 days in jail and Watson 120 days.

A Good Party.—The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is now comfortably settled in a fine new building, with its magnificent equipment, and a quarter of a million dollars, and the best of it is that it is paid for free from any sort of subscription. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is in an undoubtedly strong financial position.

An Exciting Race.—As an example of the "rapid progress" which the country is making in population, a school on the river in one of the larger parishes, is a good one. Six years ago there were fifty pupils named entered in the register; at the close of the present term there were but five scholars. How may be quoted. It would appear from this that there has been an exodus after all.

Stanger's Fall.—On Wednesday, Chas. Brown of Upper Mangerville, when returning from Gibson station got his horse into Charnock's creek. His last shout for help after a time brought him assistance, but several had driven by and on account of the wind had not heard him. John Duffy and others, however, got the horse on after considerable labor, none the worse for his impressive fall.

Straggles of Fish.—Several years ago it has been the case that the demand has been shipment and as the demand has been good although prices have not risen the in many districts oats were light in weight especially was this the case with black oats but as they are shipped by weight, hence a bushel will not weigh the same. It is proved by the car are from thirty to thirty-five, but some have sold as high as forty cents.

Lumbermen.—Although the lumbermen in the north with a year's deal of lumber, they are not doing so well as they did last year. It has turned out otherwise. The great chance for "speaking" lumber has gone into the woods who would not have otherwise done so and the result will, it is thought by the principal lumber dealers, be that the cut will run considerably lower than last year.

Not Always True.—They were celebrating the holidays, and getting ready for the winter, and they were about to stay in town, they strolled across the bridge to St. Mary's. Here hard luck awaited them for not a long while they had a very disagreeable experience. When about half way over the bridge back to the houses of other days, many and physically, and with a wave of hand towards the village said "it was always thus!"
