Now comes the wool time,—the sheep have to get their coats off—and their coat is worth money,—worth more money than lots of coats that are advertised at half price. Wool is wool, and cotton is cotton; but the wool has fortunately for the farmers been bringing high prices. This is good for all, concerned, but the high price will not last long. Bring your wool to us, and get your cash or trade whichever you prefer.—If you take cash you get the highest price—if you take trade you get the lowest priced goods in addition to the best selection of dry goods, dress goods, millinery, white wear, and mens furnishings that are shown on P. E. I.—No matter what others say. We want your wool—Bring it right to us.—Stanley Bros.

Obsequies of Mrs. Campbell.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Campbell of Millville, took place on Wednesday the 6th, inst., at Corras Bay Cemetery. The remarkably large number of people who accompanied her remains to their last resting place was a suitable tribute of affection and esteem to one who had been known so long in the community as a noble Christian woman, and a devoted and self-sacrificing mother of a large family. Her bereaved husband and eight of her children assisted at the last rites, the only absent one being Sister St. Agnes, of the Congregation Nuns, and Alfred who died many years ago in his childhood.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by her son, the Rev. Dr. C. A. Campbell, of Halifax, with another son, the Rev. Terence Campbell, of Killybegs, as deacon, and the Rev. Dr. Carran, of St. Donatus's College, as sub-deacon, and the Rev. A. J. McInyre, of Morrell, as Master of Ceremonies. In addition to these and the Rev. Father McGuigan, P. P. the following clergymen were present: Very Rev. Dr. Morrison, V. G., Rev. Drs. McMillan and Gregory, McLeslie, Rev. Fathers John J. McDonald, Jos. C. McLean, A. P. McLellan, Stephen Phelan and Ignatius McDonald. The pall-bearers were: Patrick McInyre, Michael Ready, Samuel McDonald, Hugh Campbell, John J. McDonald and John Walsh.

The grief which the absence of a beloved mother from her accustomed place in the old home naturally causes is lessened by the expression of deep and wide-spread sympathy which the bereaved one received beside her, but especially by the recollection of her strong faith in God during her long life, and the composure and Christian hopefulness which he vouchsafed her in her last hours. May she rest in peace.

If you want anything at any time, and cannot come yourself; just drop us a postal, and we shall be pleased to send you samples and give you any information of any line of goods offered in a first class store like ours. Stanley Bros.

The Order of Railroad Telegraphers, one of the strongest labor organizations of railroad employees, was formed in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, twenty years ago. In commemoration of the anniversary of the officers of the order and delegates representing the various divisions gathered there on Saturday and joined in a celebration. Exercises were held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at which several of the charter members told of the birth of the order, while others reviewed its history and growth to the present time. The order originally consisted of thirty-six members. Today between thirty-five and forty thousand names are on the membership rolls. Through the untiring work of the order the conditions of every railroad telegrapher in the United States, Canada, and Mexico, have been bettered during the past twenty years. Nearly every large railroad system of the United States and Canada has been scheduled, and the schedules on most of the lines have been revised many times, and each revision brought to those affected better remuneration and working conditions.
