Too Much Talk.

Full many a merchant, in his gloomy store, in sorrow sits, and wonders as he weeps, why people come to buy his goods no more, those goods piled up in dusty, musty heaps. "I wonder how," in agony he moans, "I've got myself, apparently, in Dutch? Few men come here to spend their shining bones—" the answer is, he always talked too much. "I wonder why," a lonely housewife sighs, "my husband stays from home whenever he can? He used to say that I had starry eyes, that I was fashioned on the goddess plan. And now the love that once he did profess seems crippled sore, and hobbling on a crutch: what have I done to earn this dire distress?" The answer is, she always talked too much. The careworn man, who's searching for a job, drags on his feet in weariness and woe: "I wonder why," he murmurs with a sob, "misfortune dogs me everywhere I go? To earn success I've striven and I've strained, and only sorrow do I seem to meet; my joys are lost as soon as they are gained, and on my uppers I must tread the street. Am I a Jonah, or the sport of fates? I hoodoo all, and everything I touch: why must I beg for handouts at the gates—" The answer is, he always talked too much.

Where Responsibility Lies.

No matter how large, or how small, a business may be, nobody can deny that its Office is the nerve centre of the firm. Every transaction, important or trivial, must be recorded at the Office. An order is received at the Office, its history is recorded at the Office, and finally payment is received at the Office. If the Office makes an error the firm stands the loss. That's why you must be sure that your office is modernly and dependably equipped for the care of all important papers. To do this effectively you need the up-to-date equipment of the "GLOBE-WERNICKE CO." When sixty offices in St. John's have found this necessity this equipment can surely be of use to you. Mr. Percie Johnson represents this world known firm in Newfoundland.
