BONAR LAW.

ITALY MAY RAID SERBIA.
ROME, Nov. 9.
What appears to be a forecast that Italy will send troops to Albania to aid the Serbs, is contained in a semi-official note, which says that while Italy did not participate in the recent expedition of the Allies to assist Serbia, she has found a better way to oppose the Austro-German-Bulgarian attack upon Serbia. This way, the note says, was opened by the Bulgarians themselves when they threatened to invade Albania to reach the Adriatic, a design so dangerous to Italy's interests, that the mere threat must induce Italy to take appropriate measures to frustrate it immediately.

GREEK CHAMBER MAY DISSOLVE.

ATHENS, Nov. 9.
The prediction that the Chamber of Deputies would be dissolved is credited to Premier Skoufoulidis by the Patria, which asserts that he stated, when asked whether the Ministry would appear before the Chamber. The question is not formally settled yet, but will be voted upon at a meeting of the Cabinet this afternoon. I can say no more.

SITUATION SATISFACTORY.

PARIS, Nov. 9.
Reports from the Serbian front represent the situation as satisfactory for the Allies, says a Havas despatch from Athens, filed yesterday. The French have reached Gradsko on the railway from Kriivolak to Veles.

ZADIMIS POLICY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.
The Foreign Office at Athens called the Greek Legation here to-day, as follows: The new cabinet intends to put through the same policies in foreign politics, as were maintained by the late cabinet.

GREEK PREMIER'S STATEMENT.

PARIS, Nov. 9.
Premier Skoufoulidis, in a telegram to Athos Romanos, the Greek Minister at Paris, which was delivered to Jules Cambon, General Secretary of the Foreign Ministry, to-day, says: Please give to the President and Council the most formal assurances on my part of our firm resolution to continue our neutrality, with the character of sincerest benevolence towards the Entente Powers. Please add that the new cabinet accepts, as its own, the declarations of former Premier Zaimis, regarding the friendly attitude of the royal government as to the Allied troops at Salonika. It is too conscious of the real interests of the country, and of what it owes to the Powers, which are protecting Greece, to swerve from this line of conduct. It hopes that the friendly feelings of these Powers for Greece will not be at a moment, influenced by malicious and misleading news, purposely circulated with the main object of changing the good relations that exist between the Entente and Greece.

THE SERBIAN PROBLEM.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
Many questions concerning the war were propounded in the Commons to-day, but little in the way of new information was brought forth from the Government. Foreign Secretary Grey made a long statement on the subject of political conditions in the Balkans, and the assistance promised to Serbia by Britain. The sympathies of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, for Germany and Austria, he said, always have been known. The Government were aware, as early as April, that negotiations were in progress between Bulgaria and Turkey, under German influence. As to why no military assistance for Serbia had been available at the time of the opening of the campaign, Sir Edward declared he was neither willing nor competent to state. Secretary Grey made it clear that the movements of troops at Salonika, and from that point, were dependent upon the consent of Greece. Serbia was notified on Sept. 24th of the despatch of British troops to her assistance. The Foreign Secretary informed the Serbians that Britain was offering Greece to land forces at Salonika to assist her in fulfilling her obligations to Serbia. Britain had labored throughout, he said, to give Serbia all the assistance in her power. His use of the words "without qualification or reserve" in his statement before the Commons on Sept. 28th, when promising to assist Serbia, meant that concessions previously suggested to Bulgaria were at an end, and that British troops would be used solely to help the friends of this nation, and to fight for their and her interests. The promise was given to our friends of all the assistance in our power, Sir Edward added, and that has, in fact, been, and is being done.

GREEK ARMY REVIEWED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.
A news agency despatch from Salonika, London, under date Nov. 8, noon, published here to-day, says: Prince George of Greece gave the Allies an object lesson to-day that his country has an army not to be despised. Thirty thousand perfectly equipped men, artillery, infantry and cavalry passed in review before the Prince at the water front here. The military display was in commemoration of Salonika's seizure by Greece from Turkey three years ago. British and French officers, soldiers and sailors mingled with the watching crowds. The Greek onlookers cheered the demonstration uproariously.

ALLIED TROOPS AT SALONIKA.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
The newspapers of Berlin, as quoted by a correspondent at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph Co., says the Allies have already landed 300,000 men at Salonika.

AUSTRIAN ATTACKS REPULSED.

CETTINJE, Nov. 9.
Repulse of Austrian attacks is reported in the official statement issued by the Montenegrin War Office to-day as follows: Important artillery engagements occurred along the entire front. On Nov. 7th the enemy threw forward his infantry attacks at various points, without attaining success.

BULGARIA THREATENS GREECE.

PARIS, Nov. 9.
The Temps prints a despatch from Salonika in which Premier Radouloff of Bulgaria, is quoted by the Sofia correspondent of the Pest Hirlap of Budapest, in Hungary, as declaring: The Grecian Government has now been warned that it cannot hold the Bulgarian Government responsible for the consequences of its future attitude. This notification, according to the correspondent, followed representations made by the Premier to M. Nacum, the Greek Minister to Bulgaria. Premier Radouloff, the correspondent declares, regards the facilities accorded for the disembarkation of the Allied troops at Salonika, as incompatible with Greek neutrality, and has informed Minister Nacum to this effect.

AIR RAID INSURANCE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
A plan for insuring the property of the poor against aircraft raids, was announced in the Commons to-day by Herbert Samuel, Postmaster General. The payment of 12 cents will insure property to the value of $125 for twelve months against destruction or damage, resulting directly or indirectly from bombardment by aircraft and from the effect of anti-aircraft guns. The maximum value of the property insurable will be $375, which will require a payment of 37 cents. This insurance business will be transacted through the post office, which will accept payments and pay claims.

THE GLOBE SUSPENSION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
"Is the Government afraid of Lord Northcliffe?" was the query propounded by Harry Anderson Watt, member for College Division of Glasgow, in the Commons this afternoon, but the Speaker promptly forestalled discussion of the topic by disallowing the question. The House was discussing the suspension of the Globe at the time. One inquisitor wanted to know why another evening paper, which had committed the same offence as the Globe, was not similarly suppressed. Sir John A. Simon, Secretary of State for Home Affairs, assured the House that any newspapers acting as the Globe did, would receive similar treatment. As to the length of the suspension of the Globe, and proceedings against its editor and proprietor, the Secretary said these questions were under consideration.

THE PRESIDENT'S NOTE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
"Enlightened opinion here is not uneasy over President Wilson's note," says the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, who is in closest touch with public men. "The President's attitude," continues the correspondent, "is regarded on the whole as somewhat pedantic, but not in intent or in any degree menacing. He is conducting the controversy, it is thought, in such fashion as to keep American rights intact, unprejudiced and, at the same time, to keep the discussion from developing into a quarrel. It is regretted that the President has not thought fit to accept the British suggestion of appealing to a higher tribunal in this country, and if necessary of carrying the appeal eventually to some sort of international tribunal. The only danger that is foreseen here from the President's attitude, is of a political kind. The Presidential election in the United Defy Dyspepsia!

Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia or Indigestion may be mentioned a heavy, cutting pain soon after eating; a thought, in such fashion as to keep the bowels; belching of wind and flatulence; a burning sensation in the stomach, which indicates acidity; heartburn; palpitation of the heart; oppression of breathing; pain under the ribs and shoulder-blades; headache through the temples and eyes; dizziness, coated tongue and constipation; sometimes nausea or vomiting.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt is the natural specific for all these conditions. Being an antacid, it immediately relieves the acidity of the stomach and stops the fermentation. It stimulates the secretion and muscular action of the stomach and bowels, and overcomes the constipation. When its use is kept up the normal action of all the organs of digestion is re-established.

States is drawing near, and in Presidential campaigns everything is put into the melting pot. There are big vested interests in America, notably the Chicago meat packers, that are aggrieved by our practices, based upon the Orders in Council of March last. A series of diplomatic protests against individual instances of the general British policy, might easily strain the campaign in America, and cause it to become undesirably exacerbated. In the meantime it is very desirable that British newspapers should refrain from any comment, bitter or quarrelsome.

NEW ADMIRALTY RULING.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
The Government has decided to rescind the order under which British ships, carrying wheat to ports in the United Kingdom were to be exempt from requisition by the Admiralty, which would enable them to start on another voyage, not necessarily in the North Atlantic, after discharging their cargoes. It is also understood that the Government has abandoned the plan to increase British bottoms, trading between foreign ports. With reference to the first order, the Chamber of Shipping of the United Kingdom has received the following letter from the Board of Trade: "With reference to a letter from this department on October 30, stating that the Admiralty, under certain conditions, was prepared to grant exemptions from the requisition of vessels fitted to carry wheat from Atlantic ports, the United States and Canada to the United Kingdom, I am directed by the Board of Trade to state that, owing to circumstances, only recently apparent, the Admiralty, with regret, finds it necessary to withdraw the promise of immunity with regard to vessels which can be shown to be fitted for this purpose before noon on Nov. 5th."

THE AMERICAN STEAMER LLAMA.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.
The American steamer Llama, seized and run on a reef by a British prize crew last week, has been washed off the reef, and has sunk. The American Consul at Kirkwall, reported to-day that only the Llama's masts were visible above the water. The State Department is investigating the circumstances of the vessel's seizure.

CHANGE IN CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

PEKIN, Nov. 9.
The Associated Press is authorized to state that the Chinese Government has decided that a change would be made this year in the form of the government of the country.

MEXICO.

LONDON, Nov. 9.
Britain, Sir Edward Grey told the Commons this evening, naturally wished, as in other matters, to consult her Allies as to the time and manner of recognizing the present de facto government in Mexico. The procedure which was now being followed, he said, had the approval of the representatives of the Allied Powers at Washington, as well as of the British Ambassador, who was in consultation with the Charge d'Affairs of Mexico. There was nothing to show, added the Foreign Secretary, that delay in taking action was injurious to British interests in Mexico.

BEATING DOWN PRICES.

I called on Rumbelow & Ratz, who deal in fancy Thomas cats, shipped in from France and Spain; I noticed when I stepped within that both the partners ceased to grin, as though they had a pain. And every place I go to trade, I see the smile from faces fade—I often wonder why; oh, why do merchants others greet with backs and bows and manners sweet, and meet me with a sigh? "My place is overrun with rats," I said, "I want twelve pounds of cats, so kindly quote your price." "Our cats," said Ratz, "are hale and sound; the price is seven cents a pound, which is a sacrifice." Great Scott! I cried, "your price is fierce!" John Jones sells tomatoes round; the partners answered, "Nix!" I stood and argued for an hour, and on their mugs expressions sour still deep and deeper grew, until they laid me on the floor and dragged me to the open door, and calmly pushed me through. I wonder why the merchants frown when I go shopping in the town, to buy all kinds of trash; they all seem happy when I quit; my winning ways don't make a hit, and no one wants my cash.

Drug Clerk Tells How to Cure Indigestion.

Recommends to Sufferers the Best Stomach Remedy in St. John To-day.

"It is a wonder some of us have stomachs left," remarked a well-known drug clerk recently. "While all drug stores sell a score or more of stomach remedies for which there is a wide demand, most of them are just peppin pills which aid digestion of the food that is in the stomach at the present time. They have no curative or strengthening effect on the stomach at all, and of course do not reach or cure the cause. So the same people keep on coming here and buying and using them until they are real chronic dyspeptics. When anyone really asks my advice, I swear by and recommend ordinary bisurated magnesia, which doesn't digest the food at all but acts as an anti-acid and sweetens the sour, fermenting contents of the stomach. That stops the pain, heart-burn, sour rising, wind, bloating, fullness, etc. In just a few minutes, and the stomach digests its food without help or trouble, which is the proper way."

"Doctors make mistakes sometimes, too," he continued. "My own aunt had all kinds of trouble with her stomach for years. She bought and used several styles of digestive pills but got worse right along, as naturally she would. Finally she went to a doctor, who nearly scared her to death by telling her she had cancer of the stomach. She came to me with his prescription and told me what he said. I thought it was nonsense. I sent her to another doctor whom I knew very well and he didn't tell her anything, but just gave her this same thing, bisurated magnesia. She took it two weeks and never had any stomach trouble since and that's three years ago. She's my own aunt and I know this for a fact. Yes, a lot of bisurated magnesia is sold in St. John's. All the druggists have it, I suppose, and all you take is a teaspoonful after every meal. It's all right."

Trip to Russia.

The oilers, firemen and trimmers, who are going on the S.S. Boethic will be paid $65, $60 and $55, respectively, per month, and the time they leave St. John's until they get back here again. The increase was secured by Delegate Woods, who interested himself in the matter of the Boethic. The Boethic is now ready, for sea and leaves some time to-night, proceeding from here to New York en route to Archangel, Russia.

Recruits From North

By the S. S. Prospero last night there arrived from the Northward six young men, who came to enlist. They are a fine strapping bunch of young men and look as if they will have much difficulty in passing their medical examinations. Now that the fishery is over a batch of volunteers are expected to come here on coastal steamers.

Ladies' Costumes Fall--1915--Styles.

Was there ever a more fickle lady than Dame Fashion? She is always making changes, and this season has surely surpassed herself.

There is a more decided change in this Fall's styles than has been known for many seasons. While materials are similar, Serges, Gabardines, Tweeds, Cord, etc., the designs are absolutely unlike any of their predecessors. Coats are of many styles, chiefly a la militaire, with high collars, snug-fitting sleeves, and the entire coat in some instances is beautifully braided. Skirts are much fuller, both pleated and gored, and are worn very short.

As descriptions are quite impossible, we can only say that we carry the largest and smartest line of Ladies' Costumes in the city.
