The Day of Atonement.

The Jewish festival, the Day of Atonement Yom Kippur, the holiest day in the Jewish calendar falls this year on the 4th day of October. The Hebrew date is the 10th of Tishri. The festival is ordained in Leviticus XVI 20-34 and XXIII 26-32. In both passages it is styled "A Sabbath of Solemn Rest."

The purpose of the Day of Atonement is clearly indicated by its name.
It is intended to complete the atonement begun on the first of Tishri (New Year), by finally reconciling the soul with the Almighty. Implicitly trusting in the Divine forgiveness, the Israelite believes that his contrition, if it be really sincere, will atone for him, will make him "at one" once more with his Heavenly Father. The day, then, is devoted to a supreme effort of penitence, to a mighty downcast of the soul in communion with the Almighty. It is spent in prayer and meditation.

It is kept, too, as a fast, in obedience to the command given in each of the two passages above cited where the expression "afflict his soul" must be understood, as it is throughout the Bible, as synonymous with fasting.

The chief, the real aim of the Day of Atonement is the reformed life. All the external elements of the day's observance—its worship and austerities —are intended to promote this supreme purpose. They cannot do duty for it. The act of fasting is partly to serve as a self-imposed chastisement, and partly it has a reflex influence.
For hunger and weakness tell upon the conscience; they mortify pride, break down obstinacy, cast men down before God in humility and contrition.
But fasting does even more than that.
Taking the worshiper away from such carnal occupations as eating and drinking, it helps to fix his thoughts upon the needs of the soul. It makes the day one of physical abstinence and self denial, but also of correspondingly increased spirituality.

McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, Oct. 4th, 1919.
A few copies of the "Letters of Mayolind" have been placed in our store for sale. It should not be necessary to say anything in commendation of these letters, which were read the little to point out for the present the early months of the war. It would be better to point out for the present writer to dilate on the nobleness of character displayed by Frank T. Lind in the days when he went in and out among us. His character, as well as his letters, are a national possession.
But one who knew him may be permitted to testify for the esteem in which he was held by all who were acquainted with him. His monument is in our hearts, but for those who come after some tangible memorial may well be set up, of one who was distinguished even among the distinguished hand of the Sons of Newfoundland, who fought and died for Christianity and Liberty in the great war; and it is to that purpose, we understand, that the profits on the sale of the book is to be devoted.

Liberal Progressives Win

(Special to Telegram).
GAMBO, Oct. 2.
Meetings held at Port, Blanford Wednesday night and Alexander Bay last night, both marked by splendid order. Capt. Winsor joined us last night. All three speakers met with warm reception. Feel sure that large majority at each meeting were with us. Canvassed both places thoroughly.
Nothing but the brightest prospects as far as we have gone. Not a single thing occurred at the meetings or anywhere else that was unpleasant.
A. B. MORINE.

Splendid Meeting at Gambo & Middle Brook.

Special to Evening Telegram.
GAMBO, To-day.
The Government candidates held two splendid meetings here and Middle Brook last night. They met fine reception; the people were most enthusiastic and the meetings were not the slightest interruption, except by applause. The candidates left this morning for Greenspond.

A Whirlwind Yesterday.

Yesterday evening, what is generally called a whirlwind, was seen near Long Pond. It was comparatively calm at the time, but at the spot where the phenomenon occurred sticks, dust, hay and other debris were gathered into a funnel shaped cloud, which ascended to a height of seventy or eighty feet. Whirlwinds are held in awe by some people who attribute to them the cause of the peculiar malady known as "a blast."

moulding, 6 bbls. apples, 10,000 feet spruce sheathing, 10 engines and timber, 67 dories, 200 sets dory timbers, 200 sets caplin.

A Speed Hog.

Last evening, at 10.10, a green painting car was seen to pass down Rennie's Mill Road from Rav-lin's Cross to Circular Road at the speed of about fifty miles an hour.
The owner of this car has been before court twice already in such matters, and if he doesn't want to be up again, he had better be more careful.

Business Booms in Halifax.

According to a letter received in the city from Mr. E. D. Haliburton, late of the Daily Star, reportorial staff, and now studying at the Dalhouse, Halifax, Business College in that city trade is now booming and everything is looking bright. "Everywhere one looks," he says, one sees men paving streets, laying new street rails and building houses. At one place, not far from me, some five hundred new houses have just been completed and will be opened this week. Wages are high and living cheaper than in St. John's. A room can be obtained for $2.50 a week, while meals, at first-class restaurants, too, may be had cheaper, by nearly half, than in St. John's."
