In a few hours more the peo ple will have spoken.

The very favorable news from the outlying settlements gives Bennett's candidates in St. John's unheard of

The illiterate vote in Conception Bay districts shows how little the vote for the Coaker-Squires candidates

It's Bennett everywhere.

The North no longer is owned by W. F. Coaker.

The election of Bennett candidates refutes this time-worn statement.

To use Coaker's own words: The Grafters must go!

They are going, and at 8 p.m. they will be gone.

GRAFT'S ELEGY. The boost of boodle and the pomp of

All that wealth and all that pull avail

Await alike the inevitable hour The paths of grafters lead but to the jail.

By the time many of our readers review this issue, the ballot boxes in the outport districts will be locked up and the verdict delivered.

St. John's East and West, however, have the last opportunity.

From all accounts Bennett will be our next Prime Minister.

The result is already told in the city districts where Cashin, Linegar, Hunt, Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe are elected, but the race is for record

The illiterate vote up to 1 o'clock is overwhelming in favor of Bennett's Standard Bearers.

Challenges of the Opposition were not taken up.

Wagers are still waiting for accept-

Conception Bay voters did their duty nobly and well. With this issue will cease this column and the writer takes this opportunity to thank the many friends -contributors and readers for their good will and support received from time to time, and to close with the now accepted and generally acclaimed slogan which was originated by the writer in this column, I wish you all good cheer and
