CHAMPIONSHIP BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

Last Night's Games Were Closely Contested and Full of Enthusiasm.

An overflowing audience attended the Championship Billiard Tournament in the Star Rooms last night. Three games were played under the knockout system to qualify, each of which proved to be hard fought contests, and the winning player was in doubt practically to the very end. If anything the brand of billiards devoted to was much superior to the previous night's performance, and billiard enthusiasts in attendance spoke well for the excellence of the exhibition put forth by all contestants. The seating arrangements, judgment of play by the respective referees, putting markers, coupled together with the splendid order which prevailed throughout, was all that could be desired. The fourth match of the tournament commenced at 8 o'clock. The contestants played were A. J. Mosler and C. Davis. Both players put forth a rattling good exhibition, with Mosler slightly the aggressor. Davis, for his initial appearance in the local billiard arena, made the fans sit up and take notice during the various stages of the game. His easy free style and perfect stroke of the cue won for him the full admiration of all. Mosler was forced to play careful billiards all the way, because his opponent proved to be a very dangerous contender. It was not until the 250 mark had been passed did Mosler gradually draw away from his opponent and, securing a pretty opening in the final stages, won out with 25 points to spare. The breaks were:

A. J. Mosler	300-12, 17, 11, 11, 11, 20, 11, 17, 13, 19-152.
C. Davis	265-13, 19, 25, 28, 15, 19, 13, 23-166.

Scores at Intervals.

Mosler	52, 125, 197, 231, 300.
Davis	45, 123, 206, 265, 265.

The second game between W. Newbury and J. Hickey was another game which delighted the fans. Both players were in exceptionally fine form, and the final issue was always in doubt. Honors were evenly divided during the first half of the game. In the next hundred Hickey drew away from his opponent by excellent play and the 280 mark had a nice lead of 20 points over his opponent which looked good enough for a win. Newbury, playing a steady game, availed of a good opportunity and made a pretty break of 36, the highest to-date, and almost immediately followed it up on another clever play with a break of 20, thus heading his opponent and winning out by a margin of 16 points. The breaks were:—

W. Newbury—300-10, 10, 11, 14, 11, 15, 12, 20, 11, 14, 14, 36, 21-199.
J. Hickey—284-25, 12, 13, 10, 13, 12, 10, 26-133.
Time of game—1hr. 18min.

Scores at Intervals.

Newbury	49, 97, 152, 179, 232, 242, 300.
Hickey	60, 103, 139, 201, 263, 279, 284.

The final game of the night was played between Rabbits and Freeman, two well known Masonic players. The game proved to be closest contested game yet played in the series. Both players continually passed and repassed each other throughout. A feature of the game was the clever cannon shots, the nursing of the balls into beautiful position and the splendid skill exercised by both players on the hazard shot. Although Rabbits just squeaked through by the small margin of 14 points, he found in his Club mate an opponent hard to out-general and his victory was chiefly due to his long experience of the game. Freeman's break of 32 was a feature of the night's play. The breaks were:—
G. Rabbits—300-22, 28, 16, 22, 17, 21, 13, 20, 12, 10-193.
G. Freeman—286-13, 20, 15, 32, 21, 26-127.
Time of game—1hr. 40 min.

Scores at Intervals.

Rabbits	59, 133, 185, 199, 244, 262, 300.
Freeman	40, 134, 185, 202, 242, 262, 286.

Owing to the lateness of the hour it was found impossible to give the spectators a chance to upset "Bill" Cooney's break of 25, from the position of the balls last played. The players which qualify in the first round will participate in their regular order as drawn with 400 billiards up. The players for the evening session will be as follows:—
7:30—R. C. Power vs. E. J. Johnson.
9:00—T. Ryan vs. W. Newbury.

Two Games This Afternoon.

Only two games remain unplayed in the qualifying round. These will be played this afternoon as follows:—
2:00—J. Carberry vs. G. Flynn.
4:15—C. J. Merner vs. W. Skinner.

Tournament Proper.

The tournament proper will commence 7:30 to-night. Nine of the best players will then play off for the championship and the series is bound to please everybody and exciting and hard fought contests are predicted for the championship.

INTER-CLUB BILLIARDS.

At the B. I. S. Club Rooms to-night, two games of the Inter-Club Billiard tournament will be played, viz: Constantine (B.I.S.) vs. Roger (Masonic); Thistle (Masonic) vs. Edens (B. I. S.). The game Martin vs. Carberry has been cancelled.

AN ABERDONIAN AND A YORKSHIREMAN.

An Aberdonian and a Yorkshireman met at a horse fair and adjourned to a near-by tavern. After several drinks the Aberdonian suggested that they should exchange ponies.
The Yorkshireman demurred, but after more liquid refreshment decided to trade.
"You know, Bill," said the man from Aberdeen, when the transaction was completed, "I think I've got the best of the bargain."
"How's that?" asked his friend.
"Well, my pony's dead."
"Is that so?" said the Yorkshireman. "Well, so's mine, and I've taken its shoes off."

"Hearts of the World" Announced

D. W. Griffith's great production, "Hearts of the World," proclaimed the masterpieces of this genius of the motion picture, will be the attraction at the Star Movie next week.

From all accounts this latest of the Griffith super pictures far excels in point of drama and spectacle, both his "Intolerance" and "The Birth of a Nation," two of the greatest productions in the history of entertainment. The fact that "Hearts of the World" required more than eighteen months in the making indicates that Mr. Griffith has prepared an unusually interesting and absorbing story. The producer himself is anxious to have it understood that "Hearts of the World" is not a war play, but a simple love story amid the picturesque villages of romantic France, relating the everyday life in the homes, along the silver streams, under the blossoming trees, over the roads where the legions of Caesar marched to conquest, and where Henry of Navarre whispered his love tales under casement windows. It is true that the recent world war is shown in all its many phases, but this part of the story is reserved for the last and is made merely a background for the pure love, and a wholesome romance.

Mr. Griffith's production is one of great historic value for not only does he show such world figures as David Lloyd George, former Premier Viviani, Winston Churchill, General Joffre, the British House of Parliament and the French Cabinet in session, but he brings every important event of the war in bold relief and accurate reproduction.

Montana Picks up Radio Message

FROM LONDON AMATEUR'S WOOD-SHED. Sets Distance Record of 6,190 Miles First to Nearly Cross Continent.

J. A. Partridge, one of the foremost British radio amateurs, has obtained contact with an American station far beyond any reached by amateurs here. He received word recently that a message transmitted from his woodshed station at Wimbledon, on the outskirts of London, had been heard by G. T. West at Polytechnic Institute, Montana. This sets a distance record of about 6,190 miles.

Partridge and several others have been tapping New York, New Haven, Newark, Toronto and even St. Louis, but this is the first occasion in which an amateur's message from London almost crossed the continent. Partridge said he hopes to get in touch with San Francisco eventually.

He recently established a two-way communication with B. W. Benning and John Morris of Atlanta, Ga., and the other day he clearly heard John Hidge, a Savannah amateur. Capt. A. G. D. West, assistant chief engineer of the British Broadcasting Co. said attempts will be made to broadcast regular Saturday American programs from the Pittsburgh station KDKA.

On March 13 the Hotel Savoy's two orchestras will broadcast a program from London in the hope of its being picked up by American stations.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

BWARE!
Beware of the habit of enjoying grievances. There are some people in the world who rather have a grievance to cherish and brood over and finally bring out and raise a rumpus about, than almost any kind of pleasure.

They don't know they feel that way. If you taxed them with enjoying their grievances they would deny it indignantly. That's the dangerous thing about this state of mind, that it is so easy to get into it without having an idea you are drifting that way.

A Fatal Mistake.
Wives of husbands who give them (or who they think give them) cause for jealousy make the biggest mistake of their lives when they cultivate the grievance habit. He talks too long with a pretty girl, he stays out an hour later than he should, he dances three times with the pretty wife of a neighbor and only twice with his wife's cousin whom they were talking to the dance, and behold he finds the atmosphere of his home heavy with disapproval. If he is very fond of his wife and has not had too much of this sort of thing to put up with, he tries to find out what is wrong, and after she has sulked and remained unapproachable as long as she thinks that will work, she airs her grievance, is reassured and smoothed over, and peace is restored again. But there are many kinds of peace, as the world has recently discovered. And this kind of peace is apt to be the 1918 variety.

And the Hundredth Time—
The first time you stretch an elastic band it will snap back very sharply. But the fortieth time it may break. And there you are. Sensitive people are very apt to get the grievance habit. Their feelings are so easily hurt. You can hurt them without having the slightest intention of doing it or the slightest idea you have done it, until the atmosphere in their vicinity makes you suspicious.

Call Them In Quick!
Self- pity is the father of the grievance habit. And an unconscious egotism is its mother. Sanity and common sense are its executioners. And the time to call them in to get rid of this habit, which while it may seem to bring you attention and reassurance at first will surely bring you bitterness and loneliness in the end, is just as soon as possible.

Barriers of Ice Blockade Baltic
Stockholm, March 15.—Sweden is experiencing the severest winter in a century. Conditions along the seaboard, which have for many weeks been exceptional, now have culminated in the closing of the Baltic sea by an immense ice barrier which the most powerful icebreakers have found it impossible to penetrate.

"The Juice" Wins Over Steam
The General Electric Company at its Erie plant lately gave a public demonstration of the speed and power of several types of locomotives, especially the electric designed for the Paris-Orleans railway in France and for the Mexican railway. One locomotive attained speeds over the test track, only five miles long, of from 95 to 105 miles an hour. But the trials which most interested the spectators, among whom were many well-known railway officials, were of a competitive nature as between steam and electricity. A steam locomotive of the Mikado type and an electric engine designed for the Mexican Railway Company, both having practically the same weight on their driving wheels, both equipped with the most advanced improvements, and both manned by picked crews, were headed in opposite directions and coupled together in tug-of-war style. At the signal each engineer applied the power to his machine. The steam locomotive was "allowed" to obtain a slight start, and then the electric engine slowed up its rival, stopped it, and finally pulled it backward in spite of the utmost exertions of its crew. "The Juice" had
