Obituary

PETER J. BREEN.

Peter J. Breen, eldest son of the late Capt. Robert and Margaret D. Breen, died at his late residence, 33 Beacon St., Somerville, Mass., on Nov. 10. He was born at St. John's, Nfld., July 7th, 1861, leaving there in 1870 for Boston. He was educated in public schools of South Boston, moving to Cambridge, Mass., in 1884, working at plant of J. P. Squire & Co. till 1890. In that year he became connected with the J. Middleby Co., wholesale bakers suppliers with whom he was connected till his death. Mr. Breen was a fine specimen of manhood. He was noted for his strength and was very fond of athletics, particularly rowing, winning many events at Newfoundland outings held years ago when great interest was taken in that sport. He was buried Nov. 13th from St. Joseph's Church, Somerville with solemn requiem mass, celebrated by the Rev. Albert C. Mullin. The church was crowded with friends and relatives. A large delegation from St. Gregory's Church, M.C.O.F., headed by John J. Mahoney, a loyal friend of thirty-five years. The floral tributes were many, notable amongst them being tributes from the Foresters, the J. Middleby firm and employees of the same, and from various nieces and nephews, and hosts of friends. He is survived besides his wife Isabelle, three sons, Joseph L., John J. and Walter D., a High School student and a star football player of Somerville High School. Bessie L., chief operator N.E.T. Co., and Isabelle C., also connected with the same company. Two brothers, Martin M., of Somerville and Thomas F., of Dorchester and three grandchildren.

JAMES JOSEPH WADDEN.

The death occurred at the General Hospital last night of Mr. James Joseph Wadden, one of the city's best known and foremost shoemakers. Deceased was sick only three weeks and on Saturday was removed to the hospital to undergo an operation but his condition was such as not to permit of this taking place. On Sunday his family visited him at the institution and Mr. Wadden was in the best of spirits and hoping for a speedy recovery, but yesterday morning he lapsed into unconsciousness in which state he remained until the hour of his death, which came in a very peaceful manner.

The late Mr. Wadden carried on the business of his father, the late Nicholas Wadden, at 414 Water Street, and has gained an enviable reputation in his line of work always treating his customers with courtesy and being ever anxious to give them his best efforts.

Left to mourn are his wife, four daughters, Sister Xavier, of the Convent of Mercy, Petries, Bay of Islands, and Misses Virginia, Emma and Mercedes at home; two sons, Ernest, of Messrs. Bowden & Co., and Michael F., at New York. Besides three brothers, John and Michael in the city and Nicholas C. at Montreal. Sister Xavier will arrive on Wednesday's Humber express.

To the sorrowing relatives the sympathy of their many friends will be extended.

A Reminder

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir—There is no doubt, as the years go by that our Roman Catholic people generally and the ex-pupils of St. Patrick's Hall and Holy Cross in particular, willingly consider their obligation to the Christian Brothers, hence we feel certain that Sunday's collection will reach a sum that all of us shall be proud of. However, to accomplish our object it will be necessary for us to bear this in mind during the week so that we may have reserved for Sunday a generous contribution.

The Christian Brothers of Mount St. Francis now number nearly a score of teachers who devote their whole existence to the training of hundreds of our city boys, but in the natural course of events they need the wherewithal to supply the ordinary expenses of life. It is no hardship on us therefore to help out such a cause as this, the only occasion of the year that we are asked to do so, and the least we can do is to give to the limit on this one day out of the whole long year. Come, old school mates, let us go to it again next Sunday and overtop every collection previously made.

Yours truly,

OLD CHUM.

St. John's, Nov. 26, 1924.
TO-NIGHT'S BAND PRACTICE.—The Drum and Bugle Band of the Newfoundland Highlanders will meet for practice in the Armoury to-night. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be present.

Coasting Slides

SHOULD BE BUILT AT SUITABLE POINTS WITHIN CITY.

Along with reports of the first fall of snow in the various sections of the Dominion, the newspapers are beginning to chronicle accounts of coasting accidents. So far and within the past week two fatalities, one in Ontario and the other in Quebec city have been recorded, and with these in mind, the Post once more suggests to the city council that it take action to provide suitable coasting places for the use of the children in the various sections of the city during the coming winter.

Last year the juvenile courts records were crowded with cases of children coasting on the public streets and the police, caught between the natural inclination to let the kids have a good time, and their instructions to enforce the city ordinance, had a mighty thin time of it. The spectacle of a big policeman lugging the kid's sleigh down the street while "young Canada" trails along in his wake voicing a tearful protest, while a good subject for the cartoonist's pencil, certainly places the police in a very undignified position. "Youth will be served"—(with a summons) would make a good title for it.

It has been suggested that a slide be erected in Victoria Park for the use of the children of Wards one and two, and that vacant lots on Hardwood Hill and in the Ashby district be utilized for those sections. There being numerous hills in Wards five and six, there should be no difficulty in finding suitable coasting places there. The whole trouble in the past has been that the city forbade coasting on the streets but at the same time failed to make other provision. Its pretty hard to expect a small boy with a new sled to resist the temptation to try it out, and as a result, there were a number of accidents in the Hardwood Hill district last winter. The city fathers should consider the matter from the standpoint of the children, parents, pedestrians and motorists and take some steps before the season arrives.—Sydney Post.

THE TRAINS.—Sunday's express reached Port aux Basques 6 p.m. yesterday, on time.
