WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.
Harold, eldest son of C. H. Roberts, of Brant, had his collar bone broken, while on the cricket ground there the other day. The young boy, in company with another lad, was sitting on the ground, when a ball came almost close to where they were sitting, and while getting out of the way of the ball one of the two lads ran in front of the player who was running after it, and who was unable to avoid the accident.

Ballist Huxon, acting under instructions from G. H. Wilkes & Co., of Brantford, took possession of the Paris Review printing office, and turned the workmen out the other day.

H. W. Brethour, Brantford, retires from active business in the course of a few days. He has sold out his interest in the business of which he has been head for many years, to Whitlock & White. The deed of separation will take place from 15th July.

BRUCE.
Measures have been completed for turning Warton into a high school district. The Board of Trustees have been appointed, and it is expected the school will be opened next New Year's.

Hay in North Bruce will be short, but the grain and root crops are looking remarkably well, considering the exceptionally dry season thus far.

Johnston Abercrombie, the victim of the shooting affray in Warton four weeks ago, died at his home in Oliphant on Tuesday night. Young Cook, who is accused of doing the shooting, is in Warton jail awaiting his trial.

The Orangemen of North Bruce will celebrate the battle of the Boyne in Warton on July 12. It is expected to be the largest gathering of the kind ever held in this peninsula. Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception of the district lodges. The addresses will be delivered in a grove about half a mile to the south of the town.

ESSEX.
Hector Finney, Windsor, was badly injured on Wednesday by falling between the ferry and the dock. He was entirely to blame for the accident, having rushed out of the usual way to get on board and attempting to jump on when the boat was turning from the dock. He was caught and badly squeezed and fell into the river, but was rescued and it is thought will recover.

Fighting Island will hereafter be called Des-chree-sho-sha, the title of a summer hotel just opened on that pleasant resort. It is about half an hour's ride down the river from Windsor and Detroit.

The colored people of Windsor and vicinity will celebrate Emancipation Day at Manhatta Beach on Aug. 3.

Comber had 4,000 visitors on Dominion Day to enjoy the celebration.

Frank Messon's 6-year-old son fell through a trap door in Marentette's store Windsor, Tuesday, and was injured internally.

Windsor has races on July 7, 8, 9 and 10. The family of Rev. Leroy Hooker, late of Toronto, will spend the summer in Leamington.

There are about 84 candidates writing at the entrance examinations in Windsor, and in the south riding there are about 189, distributed as follows: Amherstburg, 17; Harrow, 35; Kingsville, 30; Leamington, 40; Essex, 60.

Windsor Methodists to the number of 800 people took in a Dominion Day excursion to Walpole Island on the steamer "Windsor".

The officers of the L. E. F. and D. E. at the annual meeting on Tuesday, elected the following officers: President, H. Walker, sen.; vice-president, Dr. S. A. King, of Kingsville; secretary, G. J. Leggett, treasurer, J. H. Walker; directors, H. Walker, sen., Dr. King, J. H. Walker, M. A. McHugh, F. H. Walker, Wm. Aikman, jun., and E. C. Walker.

Thos. Beals, an employee of Chas. Childers, of Walkerville, fell from a load of hay Wednesday and the load passed over his chest, seriously injuring him. The doctors think he has an even chance of recovery.

ELGIN.
The citizens of Lawrence have formed a company for the purpose of conveying water from the farm of John A. McIntyre to supply the village. A large well has been dug and pipe laid from it to the street, from which a continuous stream of cool, sparkling water flows.

There were between 7,000 and 8,000 people in Port Stanley on Tuesday last at the Elgin school annual picnic.

A very sudden death occurred in West Lorne on Monday morning at the residence of Hugh McColl. David Mannion, a brother-in-law of Mr. McColl's, arrived from New York Saturday evening not in very good health, he having had the grip in the winter. He spent Sunday in walking about the village, feeling about as usual, and retired at his usual hour on Sunday night.

Mr. McColl went to call him for breakfast, and upon approaching the bed he found that the poor fellow was dead. Mr. McColl went with the remains to St. John's, to deliver them to the sorrowing wife. Deceased was a married man, about 45 years of age, but leaves no family.

Wm. Worth, tailor, and Miss Ida Mabel Pincombe, St. Thomas, were married on Dominion Day.

Canton Victoria, I. O. O. F. St. Thomas, carried off first honors and $125 at Petrolia on Dominion Day.

For the month of June there were registered with City Clerk Ellis in St. Thomas 23 births, 5 marriages and 8 deaths.

About 160 candidates wrote at St. Thomas at the entrance examination at the Collegiate Institute.

A son of Wm. Vennor, Yarmouth, aged about 18, was severely burned on the hands and face on Tuesday afternoon. He had been using blasting powder in blasting clay in a cutting being made on Woodworth avenue, and afterwards had about a pound of the powder in one hand, and a lighted fuse in the other, and the fuse coming in contact with the powder ignited with the result stated.

Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Baldwin have left Avon to spend a couple of months at Niagara-on-the-Lake, with the hope that Mr. Baldwin will entirely regain his health.

V. McIntosh, formerly a merchant of Avon and lately of the Daly House, Ingersoll, is now in hotel business in Muskegon, Mich.

George Beggs, of Southwold, reported to the St. Thomas police that a gold watch and $10 in money had been stolen from his house. Tramps are suspected. They are becoming quite troublesome in this district.

The Muncie Indians on the Caradoc reserve celebrated Dominion Day in grand style.

HALTON.
Dr. David Stirling, of Acton, brother of Dr. Jas. Stirling, Guelph, met with an accident on Monday night that will lay him up for a couple of months. He was riding a horse when he was thrown to the ground, breaking his leg below the knee. He is now at the general hospital in Guelph.

ELTON.
The other day Balkwill & Son shipped from Exeter station a carload of fat cattle for the European markets. Among the number was a mammoth ox, which turned the scale at 2,500 pounds, stood six feet high and girthed twelve feet. The others of the load, which were large beasts, were made to appear small by the enormous size of this ox. It goes to the old country and will realize about $150. It was purchased from Dennis Suttin, of Corbett.

While Mrs. John Miner, who lives in the Osborne, was walking across the floor the other day she accidentally fell, breaking her leg above the knee. A physician was immediately summoned and set the injured limb, and the patient is improving as well as can be expected.

J. McDermaid, M.D., has been chosen as district deputy grand master, and J. T. Wren, district secretary, by the Oldfellowes of Guelph, Clinton and Exeter.

The South Huron fall show will be held in Exeter on Sept. 23 and 24.

Township of Stephen vs. Township of McGilvray.—An appeal by the plaintiffs from the judgment of Mr. Justice Rose at the trial at Woodstock dismissing the action with costs. The action was brought by the plaintiffs, a municipal corporation, against the defendants, an adjoining municipal corporation, to compel them to pay, or by the plaintiffs to raise, the sum charged against them by the report of an engineer for the plaintiffs for their portion of the costs of drainage works undertaken by the plaintiffs under the various provisions of the Municipal Act. Rose, J., held that the work was not one within the jurisdiction of a township, but of a county, it provided for by the act. This appeal the court at Toronto dismissed with costs.

Whidden vs. Jackson.—Judgment on appeal by plaintiff from the judgment of the judge of the county court of Huron dismissing the action, which was brought in that court by the wife of Samuel Whidden against the assignee for creditors of Samuel Whidden for a declaration that she was entitled to be paid $200 for money lent to her husband and to rank upon his estate in the hands of the defendant for that amount. The county court judge dismissed the action on the ground that the county court had no jurisdiction to entertain an action of an equitable character. Appeal dismissed at Toronto with costs.

HALDIMAND.
The Toronto Saturday Night has this to say with reference to the wedding of Mr. A. C. Goodman, son of Col. Goodman, Parkhill, and Miss S. Matthews, of Toronto. "A wedding day was especially interesting as being the first to take place in St. Alban's Cathedral was that of A. C. Goodman, a Cayuga barrister, and Miss S. Matthews, Miss Matthews was attended by her sister, Miss Barbara Matthews, a maid of honor, and five bridesmaids. The bride wore white tulle, and carried an artistic bunch of white roses tied with ribbons. The bridesmaids' gowns and hats were French gray. The interior of the cathedral was decorated with banks of flowers. The Bishop of Toronto performed the marriage ceremony. After the reception at Wycliffe, the new-wedded couple went west on a trip up the lakes. They will settle in Cayuga."

MIDDLESEX.
The directors of the North Middlesex and East Williams Agricultural Society have arranged for a stallion trot, a team trot and a three-minute trot, to be held at the Trotting Association rules at the Northern Fair in Ailes Craig on Sept. 29 and 30.

Ida, daughter of Darius O'Neil, Glenora, was the other day enjoying a ride on a North-west pony, when the animal stepped into a hole, causing the rider to fall off. In falling her foot caught in the stirrup and she was dragged with her head at the horse's heels for a distance of about twenty rods.

The arm was broken midway between the elbow and the shoulder, and a few scalp wounds and some bruises on different parts of the body were caused by dragging on the hard gravel.

The Dorchester Station Presbyterian will repair the manse at an expense of $400 if the Cumlin congregation will pay half. Dorchester wants more school accommodation.

A colony of 22 rats, found when the debris was being cleared for Dr. Graham's drive shed at Dorchester Station, was clubbed and killed.

The Dorchester cheese factory manufactures 30 cheeses daily. The Harrisville factory turns out 300 a week.

On Tuesday, the congregation, and friends of Rev. Mr. Cooke (Presbyterian) Cumlin, assembled at the beautiful and spacious residence of Mr. Saul, when a most enjoyable and profitable time was spent. The entertainment was in aid of the church, and consisted of vocal and instrumental music, speeches, etc. Mr. Mitchell, the blind musician, presided at the organ most efficiently. The ladies of the church were indefatigable in their efforts to make all at home. Among those from London were: Rev. J. Graham and family, Mrs. Dodson, Miss Quinn, Miss Fitzgerald and lady, and a "bus load" of twenty of the employees of J. H. Chapman & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Saul are eminent entertainers, and many pleasant thoughts will revert back to their efforts of Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. J. M. and Mrs. Collins, also Mr. Wallace, of Ferguson, are very ill. Grave doubts are entertained regarding the recovery of either of them. Mr. Wallace is sinking rapidly.

James E. Bourne and Mrs. Patience Elson (nee Kilbourne), both of Kilbourne, were made one at the Melrose parlour on Dominion Day. Rev. P. W. Jones officiated.

Benjamin, son of D. Steel, of Lobo village, thought to have had a fatal attack of rheumatism of the heart, is recovering.

Mrs. James Riddle and daughter Annie, of London, formerly of Glenora, will leave for California next week. They intend to reside there permanently.

Duncan Grey, son of Mr. Grey, tailor, Ailes Craig, had a narrow escape from death at Neil McKillop's barn raising in East Williams the other day. The piece which he was standing on while helping to put up the pulpit plate broke and he fell a distance of nearly 40 feet. Had it not been that he struck a brace in his descent, which broke the fall, he would doubtless have been killed.

WENTWORTH.
Allan Young, of Mount Hope, is reported. About three weeks ago he lost a valuable colt; one week later two good cows and a valuable ram died; last week a first-class heifer was found dead, and the other night a splendid brood mare. There is no sign the animals were all poisoned. He knows of no enemies.

WATERLOO.
Dr. Webb, Berlin, coroner, has received a report from Prof. Lewis, Toronto, to the effect that there was not the slightest trace of poison in the stomach of the woman who died suddenly a few weeks ago at the residence of W. H. Bowley.

Mr. and Mrs. Menno Erb, daughter and son, Berlin, have gone for a trip to various parts of the world. They will spend some time in Buffalo visiting their son, E. B. Erb, after which they take a trip down the St. Lawrence, visiting Montreal, Quebec, Portland, Boston, New York, Albany and other places.

WELLINGTON.
The verdict of the jury on the inquest over the body of William Ares, the fireman killed at Elora by the explosion of a boiler in the Grand River Manufacturing Company's works some weeks ago, is, that the boiler was perfectly safe; second, that the explosion was caused by an undue pressure of steam.

J. P. Anderson, V. S., son of James Anderson, Springfield, has been elected president of the Minnesota Freeman's Association. This is quite an honor for a Guelph boy who has only been in that section for a few years.

On Monday Sarah Godfrey Brown, who for 21 years has been a resident of Guelph, died. She was in her 81st year and was greatly respected by all with whom she came in contact. She was born in London, England, and leaves a family and a large number of friends.

The piano-key makers in the Bell Company factory in Guelph, following out the plan of sport adopted by them as recreation this year, are continually adding to their assortment of ground-hogs' tails, having now between 70 and 80, all shot by them in a few afternoons. So numerous are they on Arkell way, and so destructive to all kinds of crops, that the farmers say a bounty will soon have to be offered for their destruction. The shooters are welcome visitors, accordingly.

Cheap, Efficient, Prompt.
A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy and of rapidity, contained in a bottle of this famous remedy, Putnam's Famous Corn Extract. It goes right to the root of the trouble, and acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is by the time it is substituted off safe, sure and painless. Sold at Druggists.

The man who lectures on the benefits of physical exercise takes the elevator when he might climb one flight of stairs.

Putnam's Famous Corn Extract in Cows. Speaking of orthodoxy, did you know that larks are bred from swallows?

Husband—Do you suppose that you could dress on $40 a year? Wife—I could, but I can't.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removes corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

"I used two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitter for liver and bowels and say I am a well woman to-day." Mrs. C. P. Wiley, Upper Canada, N. B.

The Liver acts as a filter to remove impurities from the blood. The use of the great regulating order.
