Nearly Buried Alive. LONDON, Jan. 12 .- An extraordinary in cident is reported from Gunnislake, in Cornwall. Last week Mrs. Lean, wife of Cornwall. Last week Mrs. Lean, wife of the landlord of the Tavistock Hotel, gave birth to her tenth child, and she subsequently died. The doctor gave it as his opinion that the baby would not live, and soon afterwards the relative applied to him for a certificate, saying it had succumbed. The little one was placed in the mother's arms, and the coffin was screwed down. On Saturday, when preparations for the funeral were being made, the husband was startled by hearing the cry of the child. The undertaker was sent for, and on opening the coffin, found that the the child. The undertaker was sent for, and on opening the coffin, found that the baby was alive. Later the same day the child was once more pronounced to be dead, but the doctor would not permit of its being buried, and ordered it to be wrapped in blankets for a few days. The case is to be reported to the Registrar-General, with a view to an amendment of the law, making it compulsory for medical men to see the body before granting a certificate of death.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured,—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years sufered with dyspepsia, and for three years sufered. I was at that time traveling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co. Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to ne purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegestable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year the cure is complete and permanent.
