A GOLDEN WEDDING. The 50th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, concession A, East Nissouri, was fittingly celebrated last week, when nearly a hundred of the couple's friends gathered at their residence and passed an enjoyable evening. Congratulatory addresses were delivered and a musical programme carried out. A dainty sup-per was first partaken of, after which the programme was introduced by Mr. Hope Webster, of this city. Those who provided the entertainment were Misses Henderson, and Day, Mr. Conibear. Messrs. A. Pattullo, M.P.P., and

G. R. Pattullo, of Woodstock: D. R. Calder, of Ingersoll; Rev. Mr. Lindsay, of Kintore; Dr. McWilliam, of Thamesford; Mr. Somerville, of London, and others gave addresses. Guests were present from St. Marys, London, Woodstock, Thamesford and Ingersoll. Among numerous presents contributed were a pair of gold spectacles and a Bible. All members of the family, excepting one son, were present.

"ALL ON ACCOUNT OF ELIZA." "All on Account of Eliza," as presented by Louis Mann and Clara Lipman, seems to have made one of the most remarkable laughing hits of recent years. Playgoers will have an opportunity to see this fresh combination of fun at the New Grand tomorrow evening. They will not, however, see anything like "The Girl from Paris" or "The Telephone Girl," those French concoctions in which Mr. Mann and Mrs. Cowan, of Toronto, will speak and Miss Lipman won signal honors. Instead, they will find a comedy, clean and wholesome, and with two clever players at their best, and supplying pared and well-delivered sermons entertainment so delightful and refreshing in quality that there will be no room for cavilling.

Children.

Children's taste is oftimes more accurate in selecting the right kind of food to fit the body than that of adults. Nature works more accurately through the children.

A Brooklyn lady says: "Our little boy has long been troubled with weak digestion. We could never persuade him to take more than one taste of any kind of cereal food. He was a weak little chap and we were puzzled to know what to feed him on. One lucky day we tried Grape-Nuts. Well you never saw a child eat with such relish, and it did me good to see him. From that day on it seemed as though we could almost see him grow. He would eat Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper and I think he would have liked the food for dinner. The difference in his appearance is something wonderful.

My husband has never been known to fancy cereal foods of any kind, but he became very fond of Grape-Nuts and has been much improved in health since using it.

A friend has two children who were formerly afflicted with the rickets. I was satisfied that the disease was caused by lack of proper nourishment. They showed it. So I urged her to use Grape-Nuts as an experiment and the tinued the food and today both children are well and strong as any children in this city, and, of course, my friend is a firm believer in the right kind of food, for she has the evidence before her eyes every day. When I have some task to perform about the house and don't feel very strong, a saucer of Grape-Nuts and cream stimulates me and I am able to do the task at hand with ease. We are now a healthy family and

Walt would stand out in front and brace himself with his foot on the dash and watch the motor power, which was a mule, and the procession; and sometimes Pete would give Walt his stool to sit on.

One fine day as Walt was riding out there in front, Pete said to Walt (who rode on an annual—and bob-tail—issued by Pete), "Walt, I've just got my month's pay, a hundred dollars. The Rutland Railway is a portion of the Vanderbilt system between Boston and New the wealthy criminal.

Then John arrived, and listened to the story. John took the bull boldly by the horns, and proposed that they all chip in, making good the loss, and never let Pete know. They emptied their pockets on the table. The total sum realized was nine dollars and twenty cents.

Maurice and Walt had no income, and John would not get his pay for three weeks. In the meantime Pete might demand his money, or part of it. They all had goose-flesh. For four days there were spasms of alarm, fol-lowed by chills and fever. They watched Pete with stealthy gaze; they sought to divert him, to amuse him; they told jokes in a way that bordered on hysteria, and related pathetic things that happened in the hospitals. But one day they all decided that Pete was about to ask for fifty dollars. All signs pointed that way. The issue must be met.

Maurice volunteered to tell Pete frankly the plain and simple truth. When Pete came in, Maurice coughed -and his heart failed him. "You tell him," said Maurice to John. "What's the matter with you three fools?" demanded Pete. "Here you have all been acting for a week like a mule that was locoed-out with it!" "We lost your money!" yelled the three men in one voice. "Oh," said Pete. "I thought something had happened!" "But the money-"

SISTERS REUNITED AFTER FORTY YEARS

Romantic Reunion of Orphans in Saginaw

City, Mich. Saginaw, Mich., May 5 .- A romantic reunion of sisters separated from each bury: other for many years took place in this city on Saturday. In the year 1862 three little girls were left orphans and found a tem-porary asylum in the Protestant Orphan Home at Detroit. The family name was Blankerts, but the sisters were in the home only a short time when they were adopted, family named Atkins, another by a family named Poole, and a third by a family named Ferris. Mrs. George Hughes, of the south side, was the child adopted by the Atkins family, and in some manner remembered her name of Blankerts when it was re-

Grand Trunk Railway Traveling Picture Exhibit a Strong Factor in Bringing Tourists to Canada - Thousands of People Being Educated to the Beauof the Northern Resorts.

The Grand Trunk Railway's traveling picture exhibit which is meeting with such a favorable reception in all the cities at which it is being displayed, is also receiving eulogistic words of praise in the press of the Southern and Middle States. The Springfield (Ohio) Sun of April 22, in speaking of this collection, says: "The exhibit establishes a precedent in railroad advertising, possessing sufficient merit in itself to justify anyone in taking the time to make an inspection of it." The Springfield Gazette in commenting upon this exhibit, says: "It is one of the finest exhibits of art ever given in this city." While all the newspapers in the other cities visited are profuse in their favorable comments regarding the display.

The collection has been shown this year at fifteen different cities, and up to the present time nearly 40,000 peo-ple have viewed the display. It is one of the best advertisements that Can-ada has ever had for her summer re-sorts, and it is expected that the results will justify all the good words that have been spoken of it. A heavy influx of tourists into Canada the coming season is assured. The exhibit is composed of over 100 large photographic views 40x50 inches, in addition to one of the finest collections of stuffed and mounted fish, including specimens of the gamy species of the finny tribe native to Canadian waters, and including maskinonge, black bass, pike-perch (Dore), brook trout, land locked salmon and other specimens; as well as reproductions of many of the wonderful engineering feats that are located on the Grand Trunk system in the way of tunnels and bridges.
