Government so utterly disregarded the claims of a body of businessmen reonduct of their business." Keir Hardie.

London, March 4 .- It is guite impossible to hazard a guess as to the probable duration of the coal strike. James Keir Hardie, the Independent Labor member of Parliament, exprepared to remain on strike for six weeks. Premier Asquith's statement in the House of Commons today gave 'no new information, and was only intersting as showing that the Governnent had not lost hope of bringing the disputants together. A report was received from Derbyhire tonight of a movement on the part of the miners in the midiand ounties to bring about an amicable errangement with the mine-owners. Such a partial settlement is hardly probable, but if 't really came about it would do much towards effecting & general settlement. RAILROAD WORKERS LAID OFF.

London, March 5 .- Railroad workers hroughout the United Kingdom coninue to be discharged from their employment owing to the shortage of coal necessitating the restriction of the train service. At Newcastle this morning another 1,000 men were added to those who have been thrown out of work on account of the coal strike. The train services are being further curailed in all parts.

EATEN BY WOLVES Terrible Fate of Mailcarrier in District North of Fort William.

[Canadian Press.] Fort William, March 4.- A searching party which left Sand Point, on the orth shore of Lake Nepigon, during last week on the report of a mailhad laid before the House carrier being missing, found traces of tragedy on the north trail along the ne of the Canadian Pacific survey and construction camps. Eight miles out a piece of one hand and a shin found in the trampled snow to the left of the track, these being the only human remains found to tell of the grim fate of the man. That he those, whether the Government or either of the parties to the dispute, or those advising them, who, having the solution of the parties to the dispute, and sold his life after a struggle was evidenced by the remains of four reliver found shot at the snot. The wolves found shot at the spot. mail bag had also been devoured. Two evenings, now! did not use it to the full, would be letters and a brass lock were the only remnants of his majes.
