JEROME ON NEW TACK IN FIGHT OVER THAW

Trying To Get Attorney-General of Quebec To Liberate Prisoner.

[Canadian Press.]
 The case of Harry K. Thaw, so far as the temporary doloors today. The court victory of his lawyers yesterday in quashing their own writ of habeas corpus and having him recommitted to jail, means either that he will remain there until tried by the King's bench, criminal side, in October, or that New York State, outflanked to date in legal skirmishes, must make some new move looking to his liberation and seizure by the immigration authorities for deportation.

Two New Moves.
 They were working today along two lines. William Travers Jerome and Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney-general, conferred with the Attorney-General of the Province of Quebec, seeking some means of obtaining his authority for getting Thaw out of his cell.

Other counsel for New York continued their efforts to persuade Alexis Dupuis, a magistrate or justice of the peace, at Cocaticook, to withdraw the commitment which he issued after Thaw's arrest twelve days ago, and on which the fugitive is held in the Sherbrooke jail. Efforts to get M. Dupuis into court thus far have met with flat failure.

Quiet Day For Thaw.
 Most of Thaw's Canadian counsel left town last night to recuperate after their court battles, and Thaw himself, content to stay in jail here rather than take any chances of being deported, either to Vermont, New Hampshire or New York by ill-advised liberty at this time, spent a quiet day in his cell. His statement of last night expressed appreciation of the "fair play" accorded him so far since his arrival in Canada. Meanwhile he is not neglecting his press campaign.

WALSH---TEVLIN

Pretty Wedding Was Celebrated in St. Mary's Church.
 [Special to The Advertiser.]
 St. Mary's, Aug. 29.—The St. Mary's Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Margaret Walsh and Mr. Stephen Tevlin celebrated their nuptials. The bride was daintily gowned in white crepe meteor over satin with velours hat, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Nora Walsh, who wore amethyst silk with hat to match, and carried mauve and pink asters. Mr. Thos. Tevlin assisted the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, to the bridesmaid a hand-painted shawl, and to the bridesmaids a pearl tie. A wide circle of friends made the event the occasion of many remembrances. Immediately after the ceremony, the relatives of the contracting parties were guests at a dainty wedding breakfast, served at the home of the bride's parents.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Winnipeg. On their return they will reside on Peel street, where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1.

SCENE OF THE DISASTER at Peterboro in which five persons lost their lives. The store was one of the finest in the Lift-Lock City.
