GENERAL SPORTING NOTES. The Detroit Free Press publishes the following notes of the opening game:-A delegation of 250 Londoners came over to see the game, and they have a screech that can be compared to nothing ever heard at Recreation Park. President Thomas Hobbs, of the London team, and heartily enjoyed Tuesday's victory J S. Dewar, city editor of of the London FREE PRESS, and E. A. Hutchinson. Church, Stratford, was made the recipient with the team in the interests of their rethe celebrated Newcombe Piano.

Phil Powers, manager of the Londons, is the same Phil who had the painful experience here some years ago as a league umpire. He remarked last night: "It can't be denied that Detroit has a corking fielding team."

It was an overwhelming crowd, and this is all the more surprising when the character of the weather is considered. It was a crowd on which is based an historical fact, and that is that it was the biggest crowd ever seen at Recreation Park on an ceeded, and that was on the occasion of a Detroit-Chicago game in 1887, when the turnstiles showed 9,300 people. Tuesday the turnstiles clicked about 7.400 times. One of the latter runs was made by "Bobby" Wheelock in a peculiar manner. cartwheels, made a back handspring, and with a hop, step and jump reached second. Then, before the astonished gentlemen with the tonsorial indicator suits could collect their wits, Mr. Wheelock, by a scries of ground and lofty tumbling feats, had se cured third. After taking a breath Whee lock took a good start, and when about twenty feet from the plate slid gracefully to the rubber on his left ear. The Londons also surprised the Detroits.

They are a nice looking lots of fellows, but horribly disfigured by their barber-pole suits. Of course the players are not re-
