A HOPEFUL SIGN.

A wave of moral reform appears to have struck our houses of parliament, both dominion and local. Intemperance is the charge against certain members of the local house, while "wine, women and graft" is the accusation hurled at our ministerial delegates at Ottawa. Whether or not this attempt to expose moral evil is the result of political animosity or a genuine horror of immorality in its worst forms, as displayed in a body of men publicly honored and acknowledged as leaders and representatives of our people, it is a hopeful sign of the times that the charge is not treated with indifference, but is causing an excitement and agitation in proportion to its importance.

Rumors and insinuations are insufficient for action on the part of our parliaments, but should direct charges be formulated they should be promptly investigated and action taken accordingly.

Mr. Fowler, a member of Dominion Parliament and editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, is responsible for statements made in that journal casting insinuations upon the private character of members of the parliamentary body. Mr. Bourassa demanded an investigation of the charges made and the matter was brought up in the house of commons last week. The Premier in his speech dealing with the subject promised, if charges were formulated and made in a parliamentary manner, that immediate investigation should take place, but protested strongly against the present manner of procedure on the part of Bourassa and his colleagues. Emerson, minister of railways, who was openly attacked by the Gleaner, has made a public denial of the charges brought against him. If the charges are substantiated, doubtless the affair will result in a libel suit.

HYMENEAL

AKIN-LEONARD.

A quiet wedding took place on Good Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Leonard, when their second daughter, Susie, was united in marriage to Mr. T. B. Akin, of Falmouth. The ceremony was performed at one p. m., by the Rev. H. H. Saunders. Miss Nettie Longley rendered Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride was attired in a brown travelling suit. After congratulations and refreshments the happy couple were driven to the station in Anderson's wedding turnout en route to the west. Many useful and valuable presents were received. We clip the following from the Halifax Herald:
"Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Akin, of Falmouth, arrived in the city last night and were guests at the King Edward. They left this morning on the C. P. R. for Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver and other western points."

OBITUARY

ROBERT STONE BETTON.

On the morning of March 22nd, Robert Stone Betton passed peacefully to his rest, at Maple Ridge, Waterville, aged fifty-two years. His long and tedious illness was borne with Christian resignation to the will of his Heavenly Father, and those who knew him could not but note the great gentleness of his spirit. He died as he lived, calmly and tranquilly, and truly it may be said "he fell asleep in Jesus." The deceased was a son of the late John Betton, of Market Drayton, Shropshire County, England, and grandson of the late Colonel Stone, of England. Mr. Betton was well and favorably known throughout the province, having been during his life times an active business man. He was baptized at Clarence, in the year 1877, by Rev. Mr. Durkee, and during the remaining years of his life was a consistent member of the Baptist Church. His funeral service was conducted at Waterville, by Rev. Asaph Whitman, assisted by Rev. John Hawley. The text was Philippians 1, 21, "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." The hymns "Asleep in Jesus" and "Somebody We'll Understand" and "The Christian's Good-night" were beautifully sung by the combined choir of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches. The body was taken to Lawrencetown on the Western Express, and interred in Sunnyside cemetery by the side of his father, who predeceased him by a few years. A wife and daughter mourn the love and devotion of a husband and father who was most exemplary in love and kindness. An aged mother and two brothers also survive him. Time alone can heal the wounded hearts and teach them to say "Thy will be done."—COM.

RALPH BENT.

The death occurred suddenly, at his home, Tupperville, on Wednesday noon, of Ralph Bent, one of the most respected and prosperous farmers of that section. Mr. Bent who was seventy years of age, but a man of fine physique and remarkably vigorous for his years, had been logging in the woods, about ten days before, and having taken ill with severe pains in his chest returned home. A physician was summoned who treated Mr. Bent for acute indigestion and at the end of a week he was considered convalescent, but while sitting in his chair a few days later, he suddenly expired from heart failure. Mr. Bent leaves a family of five sons and three daughters, besides his wife, and two brothers, Bushy Bent of Tupperville, and John Z. Bent of Frederic, Mass., also survive him. The sons are Charles, Fred, and St. Clair of Tupperville, Ralph of Boston, and Benjamin, teacher in the Middleton Consolidated school. Mrs. William Calder of Round Hill, Mrs. N. M. Smith, wife of the photographer, and Mrs. Rupert Bent of Boston, are daughters. All the family were present at the funeral which took place on Saturday, Rev. W. H. Langille conducting the service.

WILLIAM TODD.

William Todd, Jr., son of James Todd, of Dalhousie, died at his home Friday, 29th inst., after an illness of several weeks. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Spurr of Perette, and one child. He was twenty-five years of age. Rev. W. H. Langille conducted the funeral service, which was one of the most largely attended ever seen in Dalhousie. His early demise is deeply regretted by the entire community.

The Bridgetown Importing House

We have opened this week all makes, sizes, and qualities of Corsets.

New Carpets, Rugs, Squares, Floor Oil Clothes, and Curtains now open; and while we assert that without doubt, it will be found to be the choicest stock and best value Bridgetown has ever before had, we want customers, one and all, to call and see for themselves, in order that we may prove the truth of the above assertion. You will believe if you see, and you will save if you buy.

Our new stock of Ladies' Underwear, Blouses and Wash Suits are now opened. All imported direct from The Allen Manufacturing Co., whose fits and workmanship excel. Customers who had their goods from us last season will testify of their excellence.

Our Dress Goods trade is doubling this season because of the great values our customers are finding in them.

Our store is being filled from corner to corner, from floor to ceiling, with a class and assortment of the most desirable goods for this season's demands. If you cannot walk or drive send us your orders by mail.

We have some goods left, which must make way for our new arrivals.

Do not overlook our Curtains, 3½ yards long and 60 inches wide, at $1.00 cash per pair; worth $1.50.

Our past record is a proof to customers that they can rely upon the highest price the year round, that the market affords, for their butter and eggs at our store.

Performance follows promise in this store, just as sure as night follows day.
