THE LILY SERIES has for several years received an unrivalled share of public favour, many million copies having been sold. Although the popular appreciation of its purity of tone, and high standard of literary merit, has shown no signs of decrease, yet, in view of recent competition, the publishers are issuing a new series that surpasses anything at present on the market. This new issue contains all the best of the old series, together with new volumes worthy to rank with the old favourites.
