

Stock Notes.

W. & G. TELFER, of Paris, Ont., breeders and importers of Southdown sheep, and successors to the business of A. Telfer & Sons, report that they have recently made the following shipments, amongst others: To A. N. Carr, a fine show lot consisting of four rams and six ewes; to J. N. Smith, of Freemont, Ohio, another show lot of ten head. Both of these lots will no doubt give a good account of themselves at the leading shows in the United States. They have also sold a shearing ewe and ewe lamb to A. J. Elliott, of Danville, Que., and a shearing ram to S. M. Cason, Thorp, Ont. Thus the celebrated Springfield flock of Southdowns are scattered over the continent. But there still remains a small flock which, it is to be hoped, will be found at Toronto and other leading Canadian fairs.

MR. JOHN CAMIBELL, of Fairview Stock Farm, Woodville, Ont., reports business brisk, shipments frequent, and the expressions regarding the black faces sent out per order very gratifying to the seller. His flock is in a good, thrifty condition. Those who want to see good rams or ewes can find them at Fairview Farm.

WM. STEWART & SON, of Lucasville, Ont., write: Our young stock sired by Oxford King are turning out good ones. Our cows never looked better. It is our intention to exhibit at Toronto and other leading fairs, and shall be glad to meet our old friends and customers, as well as many new ones. We invite inspection of our herd by anyone, and claim it is second to none in Canada in breeding. Come and see.

MR. C. R. DECKER, of Chesterville, Ont., reports that his Berkshires are doing exceedingly well. He has over forty head, of which three are aged bears fit for service, of good quality and length and plenty of bone, well haired, and with deep sides. The demand for this type of hog is good, and Mr. Decker reports a goodly number of sales. His herd has been established for eighteen years.

MR. H. J. DAVIS, of Woodstock, Ont., writes: The present season has been the earliest known here. Crops of all kinds are excellent. The stock business in all lines is very active. Have sent out a large number of Yorkshire boars to different parts, and the animals still on hand are the lengthy, straight type which the present demand requires. The Shorthorn bulls and Shropshire rams I am offering are a very fine lot and fit for show purposes in any company.

MR. D. H. RUSSELL, of Bonnie Burn Stock Farm, Stouffville, Ont., says: My stock is progressing nicely although the pasture has dried up very badly. My young stock bull, Kinellar 2nd, is proving a sure getter and is improving immensely. My two heifers, sired by Kinellar (imp.), are going to be beauties, and are safe in calf to Old Northern Light (imp.). I have not as large a crop of bull calves this year as usually, but have an exceptionally good lot of heifer calves sired by four different bulls.

TATERNACK STOCK FARM: Mr. James Bolen is again on hand this year with a fine exhibit of high-class Ayrshire cattle. He will be found at Toronto, London and Ottawa as usual, and will no doubt have his usual success.
