

must be sent by the Secretary of the Society they are to represent, giving also the Presbyterian Society to which the Auxiliary or Band belongs.

The following representatives from each Society, in addition to the thirty-six managers, are entitled to entertainment: From the Presbyterian Society—the President, Secretary, and one delegate; from the Auxiliary—the President or her substitute, and one delegate; from the Mission Band—the President or her substitute.

In accord with Article 8 of General Society Constitution and the decision of last Annual Meeting, these delegates must be members of the General Society to be entitled to vote.

These names must be sent in not later than April 10th, as they have all to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Billetting Committee at Ottawa, that entertainment may be provided. Secretaries are also requested to provide their delegates with a copy of their credentials to present at Ottawa.

Railway Regulations Regarding Reduced Fares To Annual Meeting.

Delegates and members of the Society attending the Annual Meeting are requested to give special attention to the following points:

1. The railroad companies have agreed to the following terms, viz.: One way first-class fare for round trip, if 300 or more delegates attend, who at the railway station, on starting, obtain from the ticket agent a standard certificate of purchase of first-class full fare one way ticket, and on return present the said certificate at the railway station, duly certified and signed by the Home Secretary at the con-
