

Peterborough.

Rev. Father Conway, the zealous and much respected pastor of St. Paul's Church, Norwood, left last week on a visit to his native land, the Emerald Isle. He intends taking an extensive tour through Europe, but will first of all proceed to his old home, Dromod, county Leitrim, which he last visited fourteen years ago. During his absence, Rev. Father McGuire, of the Cathedral clergy will be stationed at Norwood. Rev. Father Conway's many friends both in Peterborough and Norwood, will one and all join in wishing him a bon voyage, a very pleasant sojourn and a safe return.

Sund., last the twenty-second of this month was the first anniversary of the death of Rev. Father Rudkiss, late Chancellor of the diocese and Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral. The anniversary requiem mass was postponed however, until Tuesday morning, in order to give the priests of the neighbouring parishes an opportunity to be present. A solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, who was assisted by Rev. Father McGuire, of Norwood, as sub-deacon. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, pronounced the absolution at the catafalque. There was a large congregation at the mass to show their respect and offer up their prayers for the repose of the soul of their late deeply regretted pastor. There was also quite a number of priests in attendance.

St. Joseph's Hospital presents a beautiful and attractive exterior, especially since the handsome terra cotta marbleized statue of its Patron, which recently arrived from France has been placed in position. After the blessing of this elegant statue, (an account of which was given in our last issue), it has been raised and placed in position in its niche in the main tower of the Hospital. The statue which was richly gilded and polished with artistic taste by Mr. John Simons, adds much to the beauty of the building.

The musical entertainment given by the pupils of the Congregation de Notre Dame Convent are always of the very highest order and brilliancy but the review of last Thursday evening far eclipsed anything of the kind ever presented in Peterboro: Sister St. Aubert, is a musician of rare ability and has had charge of this department for nearly twenty years. During that period she has had many young ladies under her direction, who are to-day a credit to our Town by the great excellency of this musical talent amongst past-graduates and graduates under this good Sister's guidance are the daughters of our most prominent Protestant citizens who are cognizant of the fact that in the person of St. St. Aubert their children have a teacher that stands second to none in Canada.

A large number of the parents and friends of the pupils were present to listen to this musical treat.

Stratford.

The City of Stratford, or as some of the citizens term it the classic City of "Stratford on Avon," is situated on the river Avon and is surrounded by a rich farming country, and being the County Town is the business centre for Perth county. The principal industry is the G.T.R. shops which are the largest this company have west of Montreal. They employ here somewhat over six hundred men; in connection with the works the Company have a Library of some three thousand five hundred volumes and also a reading-room, which the men have access to by paying a small monthly fee. The business of the town is apparently, on a very substantial basis, the people pride themselves in not having a business failure for some time and a vacant store is something unusual. We are pleased to see that many of our Catholic people occupy prominent places in business and are also represented in the Council by three Aldermen. The C.M.B.A., A.O.H., E.B.A., and St. Vincent de Paul Societies, are also in flourishing condition. St. Joseph's Church is a very fine structure situated on Huron street next to it, is the handsome residence of Dr. Kilroy, the pastor and his assistants Rev. Father's Gann and Cook. There is a piece of ground adjoining, used formerly as Cemetery, and which Dr. Kilroy is now having graded and planted with trees and when finished will be a very pretty spot.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg, from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."
