

In Canada. (Continued.)

THE annual tea meeting in connection with St. Andrew's church, Fourth Line, Caledon, was held on the evening of the 20th ult. There was a large attendance, the church being filled to its utmost capacity. After all had partaken of the excellent eatables so bountifully provided by the ladies, the pastor, Rev. P. Fleming, opened the entertainment by referring to the happy relation which existed between the pastor and the people, the growing attendance on public worship, and that the outlook was more promising than it had been during the present pastorate. He then called Mr. Robert Johnston to the chair, who performed the duties of chairman in a way creditable both to himself and the church. The meeting was addressed by Revs. Mr. Orr, Mono Mills; Mr. Mahan, Mono Road, and Mr. Norris, of Castlederg. All were highly pleased.

The Sabbath school tea meeting at Caledon, Ont., was held on Wednesday evening, 1st inst. Mr. Robert McBride, superintendent, was called to the chair. After a most enjoyable time had been spent in addresses by the pastor and others the meeting was closed, and the little ones went home feeling happy. (Later.) On the evening of the following Tuesday the manse was the scene of a very pleasant surprise. It was visited by the members and adherents of St. Andrew's congregation, bringing varied and valuable gifts, by which the garner was filled to overflowing, the collar supplied with many of the daily necessities, and the pantry with a profusion of things more delicate if less necessary. After each was refreshed by the bounties provided by the fair sex, Mr. Archibald McQuarrie read an address expressing, in the kindest terms, the harmony that exists between pastor and people. Such surprises tend greatly to make happy and prosperous pastorate.

On Thursday evening, the 20th ult., a very interesting, missionary anniversary meeting of the W. F. M. S. of Motherwell, was held in the church there. It was from this congregation that Miss Dr. Oliver went first to India some years ago and ever since the missionary spirit has been deepening under the spiritual ministrations of the Rev. R. Hamilton. After the singing of the 100th Psalm the Rev. M. S. Leitch, of Stratford, in his devotedly earnest and fervent spirit led the audience in prayer. The Rev. E. H. Savers of Westminster delivered a very able address upon "Our Personal Duty Towards Missions," after having briefly referred to the discouraging and encouraging features in connection with the work. The chairman then introduced the Rev. J. A. Morrison, of Listowel, to the audience by referring to his relationship to the late deceased Rev. John Edmund, D.D., of London, Eng., his onetime beloved minister. Mr. Morrison was deeply affected by the kind reference to his kinsman and spoke under deep feeling. Speaking of the "Reflex Power of Missions" he contended strongly that both commercially and intellectually as well as morally and spiritually a rich blessing had come back to the home lands that zealously had obeyed the Lord's command. During the evening the church choir provided very suitable music.

THE services in connection with the opening and dedication of the new church building of St. Andrew's, Sorya, which were held on Sabbath 22nd and Monday the 23rd ult., were a decided success. On Sabbath, morning and evening, large and appreciative audiences listened to able and instructive sermons by Rev. Principal Grant, of Queen's University, Kingston. Overflow meetings were conducted by Rev. J. McMechan, of Port Perry, in the old building. In the afternoon the principal delivered an address on the "Parliament of Religions at Chicago" to a densely packed audience. The churches in the immediate vicinity were closed for the day, both pastors and people attending the opening services. This is evidence of the Christian spirit which prevails in the community. On Monday afternoon and evening the exercises were continued by a platform meeting, tea and lecture. Congratulatory addresses were delivered by the following: Revs. J. B. McLaren, Columbus; M. N. Bothune, Beaverton; Kenny, Seagrave; Power, Manilla; Dowey, Sunderland; Whiteman, Port Perry; and Hous. Smith, Hughes and Glouning. Mr. Bothune delivered an able and eloquent lecture on "The Bible not of Man." Excellent music was furnished by the choir of the Uxbridge Presbyterian church. The proceeds amounted to over $400. The new building is chaste and substantial. It is of red brick with Ohio lacustrine trimmings. It has a seating capacity of five hundred and cost about $6,000. There is a commodious basement for Sabbath school purposes, vestry, library, etc. Plans were designed and the work superintended by Mr. W. R. Gregg, architect, Toronto. The pastor, Rev. P. A. McLeod, B.D., and his people are to be congratulated on the completion of the work and the beginning of a new era in the history of the congregation.

A LARGE number of the members and adherents of the Presbyterian congregation of Penetanguisheno met at the church on the evening of the 19th inst., to give a welcome and reception to their pastor and his young wife. After calling D. Gillespie to the chair the choir discoursed some choice music. After which the Rev. Mr. Johnstone, B.A., and Mrs. Johnstone were invited to the front, and Mr. Jamieson read the following address:—"To Rev. and Mrs. Johnstone. We, the ladies of the Penetang congregation of the Presbyterian Church, wish in some measure to show you as our pastor our appreciation of your services since coming among us, and also to welcome both yourself and your esteemed wife at the earliest opportunity. You will please accept these easy chairs as a slight token of our regards. We hope that both of you will be long spared together, taking counsel with each other with ease and comfort in those chairs. Our prayer is that every blessing may attend you, and that through your instrumentality, combined with the prayers of your congregation, that peace and prosperity may be within our Zion." The young couple were then presented with two handsome wicker chairs and a beautiful silver sugar bowl. Mr. Johnstone replied in feeling terms on his own behalf and that of Mrs. Johnstone. After which a very pleasant and sociable evening was spent, the ladies in their usual hospitable manner having provided an abundant supply of the goods things of life.
