

THE LIFE OF HENRY GEORGE

By Henry George, Jr.

WITH his unusual advantages, the biographer of the author of "Progress and Poverty" tells simply yet graphically the remarkable story of Henry George's life and early struggles and many later triumphs. It is a strong, dignified and impressive record of one of the most extraordinary men of this century.

Bound in Cloth, $1.50.

THE BONDWOMAN

By Marah Ellis Ryan.

AN absorbing story with an ingenious and interesting plot and depicting with the force and dramatic power of this able writer a phase of society that has excited an abnormal amount of interest. It is one of the most vivid and striking stories of the year.

Paper, 75 cents; Cloth, $1.25.

BALDOON

By Le Roy Hooker.

A strong story out of the ordinary lines both in treatment and in plot and with a tenderness of pathos and an irresistible humor that will appeal to every reader of the book. As the scene is laid in Canada, the book is doubly interesting to every Canadian.

Paper, 75 cents; Cloth, $1.25.

DOROTHY MARLOW

By A. W. Marchmont,

IS the interesting story of three valuable Crown jewels which come into the possession of the heroine in a most peculiar manner, resulting in several startling adventures from the machinations of the man who stole the jewels in his numerous desperate attempts to recover them.

Paper, 75 cents; Cloth, $1.25.

SHELDON'S EIGHT BOOKS.

The Most Widely Read Books of this Generation.

CLOTH BOUND BOOKS IN SETS.

$2.00

$3.25

Sheldon's Eight Books, Cloth Bound, $2.00, postage 30 cents extra.

Sheldon's Eight Books, Extra Edition, $3.25, postage 35 cents extra.

THE POOLE PUBLISHING CO.

30 Front Street West, Toronto.