ACROSTIC.

O'CONNOR POWER.

Oh dear Mother Erin, our own Alma Mater Condemned and heart broken and lonely thou art, Oppressed, aye and robbed of thy rights as a nation No wonder thy sons in their just anger smart, No wonder they seek for redress in their bondage Or cry out for justice—they ask not for more Regive them the rights their forefathers won them, Proud Albion, be just, Erin's freedom restore.
Oh! soon may we hall the glad hour of thy triumph When Liberty's laurels will deck thy fair brow Entwined with the Shamrock evergreen and immortal Replacing the cypress which enshadows it now.

OPENING OF THE DOMINION PAR-

LIAMENT. THIRD PARLIAMENT—SECOND SESSION.

SPEECH PROM THE THRONE.

OTTAWA, 8th Feb., 1877.

To-day, at three e'clock, His Excellency the Governor-General proceeded in State to the Senate Chamber, and, being seated upon the Throne, commanded the attendance of the members of the House of Commons, and was pleased to deliver the following speech:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I am glad to be again enabled to summon you to meet for the despatch of business at the time which has been considered best suited to the convenience

Buring the recess I visited the province of British Columbia, and had much satisfaction in becoming acquainted with the people of that interesting part of the Dominion, and with the climate and resources of their Province. The surveys of the Pacific Railway have been prosecuted with the utmost vigor and at a larger cost during the past than in any previous year, but it has not been found possible as yet to complete the location of the line, and I have consequently been obliged to postpone the ordering of tenders for its construction on the terms indicated in the Act of 1876. A further correspondence on the subjects at issue between my Government and British Columbia will be laid before you.

During the recent suspension of the extradition arrangements with the United States, I took care that the importance to Canada of a speedy resumption of those arrangements should be represented to Her Majesty's Parliament, whose attention has been further invited to the expediency of largely extending the provisions of the existing treaty. I am glad to be able to state that while the operation of the treaty has been resumed, negotiations are in progress for a convention more liberal and better suited to the circumstances of the two countries.

The attention of my Government having been directed to some anomalies in the Royal Commission and Royal instructions to the Governor-General particularly with regard to the exercise of the prerogative of pardon, steps have been taken towards the amendment of these instruments. Papers on this subject, as well as on that of the extradition question, will be laid befere you.

The great public works connected with the St. Lawrence navigation, and the canals required to complete the system, have been prosecuted with success during the past year. Nearly all the works on the Welland and Lachine canals have been placed under contract on terms favourable to the country. The active prosecution of these works during the past three years has necessarily increased the public debt, and though expectations are entertained that the outlay may ultimately be repaid to the country, it may be considered advisable not to press all the works contemplated in the earlier years of Confederation to completion at

I am happy to state that the Intercolonial Railway was opened for traffic throughout its entire length early in the summer with as favorable results as could have been expected. One of the immediate advantages of the completion of the railway was the delivery and reception of the British mails at Halifax after the closing of the St. Lawrence, and I am happy to say that up to the present time mails and passengers have been successfully carried over the line without any interruption.

The exhibition of Canadian products, manufac-tures, and works of art at the United States National Exposition at Philadelphia was emineutly successful, and proclaimed to the world that canada has already taken a high place as a farming, manufacturing, and mining country. It is gratifying to be able to state that the expenditure was kept well within the estimate. It is but just that I should acknowledge that the success achieved by the enterprise of our people was largely aided by the energy and wisdom of the Commission who had charge of the arrangements.

I have considered it advisable, in the interest of the country, to make arrangements for exhibiting Canadian products at the Exhibition to be held at Sydney, New South Wales, for which you will be asked to make provision.

Notwithstanding the loss of revenue, consequent chiefly on the diminution of our importations, the reductions effected during the current year have gone far to restore the equilibrium between income and expenditure, though great economy will be still needful to attain this object.

I regret that I am still unable to announce any progress in obtaining a settlement of the Fishery Claims under the Washington Treaty, though my Government has made every effort to secure that

My Commissioners have made further treaty arrangements with certain of the Indian tribes of the Northwest territories by which their title is extinguished to a very large portion of the territories west of treaty No. 4, and although some of the provisions of this treaty are of a somewhat onerous and exceptionable character, I have thought it nevertheless advisable on the whole to ratify it, This treaty will be placed before you. I have made an engagement to negotiate a treaty with the remaining tribes east of the Rocky Mountains. The expenditure incurred by the Indian treaties is undoubtedly large, but the Canadian policy is nevertheless the cheapest ultimately, if we compare the results with those of other countries, and it is, above all, a humane, just and Christian policy. Notwithstanding the deplorable war waged between the Indian tribes in the United States territories and the Government of that country during the last year, no difficulty has arisen with the Canadian tribes living in the immediate vicinity of the scene of hostilities.

You will be asked to consider the expediency of making such changes in the Joint Stock Companies as may obviate for the future the passage of special Acts of Parliament for the incorporation of the various classes of commerce, including such corporations as seek to engage in the borrowing and lending of money, by providing for their orginzation by letters patent.

The desirability of affording security to policyholders of Life Assurance Companies has engaged the attention of my Government, and I trust that the measure which will be submitted will accomplish the desired object. A measure will be submitted to you for the purpose of extending to navigation of the great inland waters, rights and remedies at present confined to waters within the jurisdiction of the courts of the Vice-Admiralty. You will be asked to amend and consolidate the laws relating to Customs. I have considered it advisable to provide for the permanent prosecution of the geological survey which has heretofore been carried on under temporary enactments, and to make this a distinct branch of the Civil Service. Your attention will be invited to a Bill for that purpose.

Measures will be submitted also for the amendment of the Weights and Measures Acts, the Excise laws, and other Acts, and also a Bill relating to Shipping.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts of the past year will be laid before you. The estimates of the next financial year will also be submitted, and will, I trust, be found to be framed with a view to meet the existing circumstances of the country, while at the same time pro-viding for carrying on the administration of affairs with efficiency.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I place full reliance in your prudence and ability, and your devotion to the work of legislation, which I trust may be carried on and completed in such a way as to minister to the prosperity of the country and unity of the people.

A "PROTESTANT FACT."

To the Editor of the TRUE . WITNESS. Montreal, 8th Feb. 1877.

Dear Sir,-I have just discovered a "Protestant fact" which must have escaped even the "Lamp to the Feet" of your contemporary the Daily Witness. It is another example of Romish intolerance. It seems that up to the year 1856 Life Insurance was almost a failure in Russia. The agent expended his entire stock of oil but the Russian only called for more tallow. Argument had as much effect on the Muscovite brain as a fox's tail on a blacksmith's anvil. Life Insurance business was a bad spec, and the reason of it was because: " the Greek Church is as antagonistic to Life Insurance as is the Roman Catholic. (Vide Charles Walfords Insurance Guide page 540 American Edition 1868.) This is a back handed way of telling us that the Roman Catholic Church condemns Life Assurance. Oh, Protestant intelligence thou art a jewel! Here we are Catholics in thousands who have our lives insured, and at length a Protestant writer tells us we are acting in opposition to our Church. Perhaps one of these days an erudite Protestant will imitate the Yorkshire Auctioneer, who, when his Irish servant refused to eat ham on a Friday, exclaimed in surprise: "Domn it mun hom's no mate, its baacon."

On a par with such reliable information, was the lecture on the Greek Church, recently delivered by the Rev. A Bray, Congregationalist Minister. It is a peculiar intelligence that could recognize wisdom and crudition in that loud sound, expressive of nothing but a want. The reverend and cloquent gentleman has entered on a course of six lectures a Church being the subject of each. Doubtless the best form of Church government will be the Congregational, and the best doctrines, those in complete accord with the opinions of Mr. Bray. Poor I'rotestantism! it has no faith, it is all opinion; no solidity, all quicksand; no quietness, all turmoil. In fact it is like a pot of white beans at a boil, all bubble, noise, and restlessness. With this evervescent reflection permit me to retire to congenial Yours, obscurity and remain J. P. S.

ROYAL DEATHS IN 1876.

A Parisian journal gives the following list of royal personages who have died in 1876: Sultan Abdul Aziz, Grand Duchess Marie of Leuchtenberg (sister of the Tsar), the Infanta Isabella Maria of Portugal, the Duchess Caroline of Mecklenburgh-Strelitz, the Queen Mother of Sweden (Marie Jose-phine), Prince Frederick William of Hesse, the Duchess of Aosta (ex-Queen of Spain), the mother of Prince Milan of Servia (Milena Anna), the Duke of Modena (brother of the Countess of Chambord), the Sultana Valide (mother of Abdul Aziz), Princess Constance Bonaparte daughter of Prince Canino), Lalla Roukh (ex-Queen of Tasmania), the Duchess of Medina Celli (niece of the Empress Eugenie), Lopez (ex-President of the Mexican Republic), Princess Mary Esterhazy, La Princessa de Hanau, Prince Louis de Sayn-Wittgenftein-Sayn, Prince Theodore de Thurn and Taxis, Princesse Eleonore de Windischgratz, Princess Louise Radziwill, Princess Marie Esterhazy, Duchesse d'Acerenza-Pignatelli, Charles Langrave of Furstenberg, Prince Jean Ruspoli, and Toussoun Pasha (brother of the Viceroy of Egypt.

PROGRAMME

THE PILGRIMAGE TO ROME,

OF THE

IRISH CATHOLICS OF CANADA. ON THE OCCASION OF THE

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

OF THE EPISCOPAL CONSECRATION OF OUR

HOLY FATHER, PIUS THE IX.

1. The Anniversary celebration takes place in Rome on the 21st of next May. In consequence the l'ilgrimage will leave Montreal on or about the 17th of April, visiting our Lady of Lourdes on the way, and reaching Rome a few days before the celebration.

It is desirable that all the members of the Pilgrimage, who can do so conveniently, should meet in Montreal on the day before starting, and prepare themselves to receive the Holy Communion at a mass which will be said in St. Patrick's Church the morning of starting. The Pilgrims who will take the direct route for New York from Toronto, Kingston, Hamilton, and London, will make a general Communion before leaving their respective starting-places.

3. The Pilgrims will proceed, on a day to be determined later, from Montreal, and from the places named in preceeding paragraph, to New York, where in a spirit of great kindness and religion, a Committee has been organized to re-

From New York, the Pilgrims will proceed by a boat of the Inman or White Star Line to Liverpool; from Liverpool, under the charge of a special agent of Cook, Son & Jenkins, they will proceed by Paris and Bordeaux to Lourdes and, after two days stay at Lourdes they will resume their route by rail to Rome by Marseilles, Genos, Leghorn and Piza.

The Pilgrimage will be at an end so soon as it shall have obtained an audience and received the Benediction of the Holy Father; till then no member of the Pilgrimage shall be at liberty to separate from the body. Up to this point all expenses are paid by the Committee out of the common fund, On the return from Rome the Committee will furnish each member of the Pilgrimage with a ticket to Liverpool, via Florence, Verona, Bologna, Venice, Milan, Turin, Mt. Cenis Tunnel, Paris, Dieppe. London and Liverpool. This ticket will cover travelling, but not hotel expenses, so that cach one may hasten or prolong his journey as he may desire. The Committee also furnishes a ticket—first-class—to return to New York by any one of the Inman or White Star mail steamers, embarking at Liverpool or Queenstown, as may suit the convenience of each. This thicket will be good for one year. To carry out these arrangements, each Pilgrim will pay the sum of three hundred dollars, in the manner pointed out in paragraph 11. It is clearly understood that hotel expenses on the return from Rome to Liverpool, as also all travelling after the close of the Pilgrimage, except what is expressly provided for in the preceding paragraph, will be at the personal charge of each.

8. The Pilgrimage is limited to one hundred. All Catholics speaking the English language are cordially invited to join this Pilgrimage of the Irish Catholics of Canada. Ladies accompanied by their husbands or fathers are admissible. This rule in regard to Ladies cannot be departed from, except for reasons which will be unanimously accepted by the Executive Committee in Montreal.

10. Applications to join the Pilgrimage will be ad dressed to the Executive Committee in Montreal, from Montreal and from all places in the Province of Quebec. In Ontario, application will be made to the Sub-Committee of each Diocese, by all who reside in the Diocese. A list of these Committees is appended to this programme. In each Diocese, the admission or rejection of the applications made will belong to the Committee of the Diocese.

11. When an application to join the Pilgrimage has been accepted, information will be given to the applicant without delay. As a guarantee, the applicant will be required to pay on or before the first of March next; the balance to be paid by the first of April. In the Province of Quebec payment will be made to the Treasurer of the Executive Committee in Montreal; in Ontario, to the Treasurer of the Sub-Committee of the

12. The offerings collected for our Holy Father in each Diocese, will be presented to His Holiness by the representatives of the Diocese.

The control and direction of the Pilgrimage during its journey to Rome will be in the hands of a Committee, composed of the Montreal Executive Committee, and of one member from each of the Ontario Sub-Committees.
