

MISCELLANEOUS.

Jews in their social life should mingle with their fellow citizens of other denominations as they do in business pursuits. It is the Jews themselves by their clannishness and exclusiveness who foster the prejudice of which they so much complain.—Jewish Tidings.

The Rev. Robert McIntyre, of Denver, has created a sensation among his congregation in that city, says the New York Tribune, by asking that his salary of $5,000 be reduced to $1,000. He thinks the sum he receives at present is at least twice as large as it should be in hard times.

Doubting is far better than ignorant, unthinking repose. All honest seekers after truth are doubters as long as they are seekers. When they find the truth they are converted from being doubters to being believers. Doubt is then supplanted by belief of the truth found.—Religious Telescope.

GIVES GOOD APPETITE.

GENTLEMEN,—I think your valuable medicine cannot be equalled, because of the benefit I derived from it. After suffering from headache and loss of appetite for nearly three years I tried B.B.B. with great success. It gave me relief at once, and I now enjoy good health.

MRS. MATTHEW SPROUL, Dugannon, Ont.

Three American women have received the degree of Ph. D., summa cum laude, from the University of Zurich—Miss Helen L. Webster, Professor of Comparative Philology at Wellesley College; Miss Thomas, Dean of Bryn Mawr College, and Mrs. Mary Noyes Colvin, Principal of Bryn Mawr Preparative School at Baltimore.

The Duke of Edinburgh by the death of his uncle has become the ruler of the grand duchy of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, and is likely to take up his permanent residence in Germany. There is a reversal of the usual order in this. A good many German princes have found their matrimonial way to a pleasant living in England.—Montreal Gazette.

WORTH READING.

MR. WM. McNEE, of St. Ives, Ont., had eleven terrible running sores and was not expected to recover, all treatment having failed. Six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters completely restored him to health. Druggist Sanderson, of St. Mary's, Ont., certifies to these facts.

Herr Bebel has declared that the German army is undermined by socialism, and there have not been wanting signs to show that the statement was not altogether an empty boast. But much more serious does it become when officers take advantage of their influence and superior position to proselytize among their men.—European Edition of the Herald.

Samuel Rogers said to John Leech, the caricaturist of Punch: "Mr. Leech, I admire you much." He was just beginning his success as an artist, and was gratified by this commendation, as he supposed, of his art. "Yes," repeated Rogers, "I admire you much. I saw you brushing your own hat, and the man who, in these days, does anything for himself, is deserving of admiration."

SEVERE DIARRHOEA CURED.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over three years and received no benefit from all the medicine I tried. I was unable to work from two to four days every week. Hearing of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry I began to use it. Am now all right.

JOHN STILES, Bracebridge, Ont.

The place to get an idea of the comparative insignificance of the individual undoubtedly is at sea, floating on a bit of wreckage at the mercy of the winds and waves. George Upton, of the ill-fated schooner Mary Lizzie, tells his South Portland friends that during the thirty-three hours he was adrift fifteen vessels passed close to him without taking the slightest notice of him, his cries failing to attract their attention.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.
