

with the condition set out in section 1 of Article 10; they take effect in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of the same Article.

3. The application of one or more of the sets of Regulations to a territory, made by virtue of the provisions of section 5 of Article 5, may be terminated at any time.

4. The declarations of denunciation contemplated in section 3 above are notified and announced according to the provisions of section 1 of Article 11 and take effect in the manner prescribed in the same paragraph.

ARTICLE 13

Special Arrangements

The Contracting Governments reserve, for themselves, for the private enterprises recognized by them and for other private enterprises duly authorized to do so, the right to make special arrangements on the matters of service which do not concern the Governments in general. These arrangements, however, must remain within the limits of the Convention and the Regulations annexed thereto, so far as concerns the interference which their bringing into operation might be capable of producing with the services of other countries.

Relations With Non-Contracting States

1. Each of the Contracting Governments reserves to itself and to the private enterprises recognized by it, the right to fix the conditions on which it admits telecommunications exchanged with a country which has not acceded to the present Convention or to the set of Regulations in which the provisions relating to the telecommunication in question is included.

2. If a telecommunication originating in a non-acceding country is accepted by an acceding country, it must be transmitted, and in so far as it follows the routes of a country acceding to the Convention and to the relative sets of Regulations, the obligatory provisions of the Convention and Regulations in question and the usual charges are applied to it.

Arbitration

1. In the case of disagreement between two or more Contracting Governments in respect of the execution either of the present Convention or of the Regulations provided for by Article 2, the dispute, if not settled through the diplomatic channel, is submitted to arbitration at the request of any one of the Governments in disagreement.

2. Unless the parties to the dispute agree to use a procedure already established by treaties concluded between them for the settlement of international disputes, or the procedure contemplated in section 7 of the present Article, arbitrators shall be chosen as follows:—
