

ARTICLE 16

Re-extradition to a Third State

1. Where a person has been surrendered to the Requesting State that State shall not extradite the person to any Third State for an offence committed before that person's surrender unless:
 - (a) the Requested State consents to that extradition;
 - (b) the person has had an opportunity to leave the Requesting State and has not done so within forty-five days of final discharge in respect of the offence for which that person was surrendered or has returned to the Requesting State after having left it; or
 - (c) the person consents before a judicial authority in the Requesting State.
2. The Requested State may request the production of the documents required by Article 5 in relation to any consent pursuant to paragraph 1 (a) of this Article.
