

Section 22

Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Secretary-General of the Organization, other officials shall:

- (a) be immune from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts performed by them in their official capacity;
- (b) be immune, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, from immigration restrictions and aliens registration;
- (c) be immune from national service obligations;
- (d) be given, together with their spouses and relatives dependent on them, the same repatriation facilities in time of international crisis as diplomatic envoys;
- (e) be accorded the same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to officials of comparable ranks forming part of diplomatic missions in Canada;
- (f) have the right to import free of duty their furniture and effects, including motor vehicles but not including spirituous liquors, at the time of first taking up their post in Canada;
- (g) be exempt from taxation on the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the Organization.

Section 23

At the termination of their employment no impediment, including taxation or restriction of exchange, shall be imposed to repatriation to foreign countries of assets held in the territory of Canada by officials and their families.

Section 24

The provisions of Sections 19, 20 (d)—(i) inclusive, 22 (e)—(g) inclusive and 23 shall not apply to any Canadian citizen residing or ordinarily resident in Canada. Moreover, an official of the Organization who is or becomes a resident of Canada upon retirement will not enjoy exemption from taxation on the pension which may be paid to him by the Organization.

Section 25

Privileges and immunities have been granted to officials in the interests of the Organization and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. The Secretary-General of the Organization shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any official in any case where, in his opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Organization. In the case of the President of the Council and the Secretary-General of the Organization, the Council of the Organization shall have the right to waive the immunity.

Section 26

The Secretary-General of the Organization shall specify the categories of officials to whom the provisions of Section 22 shall apply. He shall submit these categories to the Secretary of State for External Affairs for his concurrence. The names of the officials included in these categories shall be notified to the Secretary of State for External Affairs.
