Accordingly, the Bill was read the second time and referred to the Standing Committee on Broadcasting, Films and Assistance to the Arts.

And the House having proceeded to the deferred division on the motion of Mr. Broadbent, seconded by Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre) made pursuant to Standing Order 58(9)(a),—That this House rejects the Government's anti-inflationary program because it is totally unworkable in terms of controlling prices, because it provides no effective control over profits or professional incomes, and because it is completely unfair to wage and salary earners in Canada.

And the question being put on the motion, it was negatived on the following division:
