CRIMINAL CODE—PROHIBITION OF FIREARMS

Question No. 2,099—Mr. Leggatt:

How many orders were made during the fiscal year 1971-1972 prohibiting the possession of firearms under section 95(1) of the Criminal Code?

Mr. John M. Reid (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): This information is not available at the federal level.

CHARGES FOR FAILING TO COMPLETE CENSUS FORMS

Question No. 2,111—Mr. Mazankowski:

How many people have been charged with failing to complete the census forms and what is the breakdown of such charges, by province?

Mr. Herb Breau (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): Statistics Canada reports that: As of June 1, 1973, 10 people have been charged under the Statistics Act for failing to complete questionnaires for 1971 Census of Population, Housing and Agriculture. The breakdown of such charges by province is:

Province	Number of Charges
British Columbia	1
Alberta	2
Saskatchewan	1
Manitoba	2
Ontario	3
Quebec	1

[Mr. MacGuigan.]

LOCATION OF SOCIÉTÉ DES RENTES IMMOBILIÈRES (SORENTIM), QUEBEC

Question No. 2,115—Mr. Godin:

1. In what city of the Province of Quebec is the main office of the Société des rentes immobilières (Sorentim) located?

2. Does the Company hold a federal charter and, if so, when was it obtained?

Hon. Herb Gray (Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs): 1. The department's index does not list any company with the name "Société des rentes immobilières (Sorentim)". However, it does mention a company with a Quebec charter under the name "La Rente immobilière Sorentim Limitée". As this is a company incorporated provincially the Corporations Branch of the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs is not in possession of information as to its head office or its main office.

2. "La Rente immobilière Sorentim Limitée" does not hold a federal charter, but a Quebec charter.

SPRINGHILL AND BLUE MOUNTAIN PENAL INSTITUTIONS

Question No. 2,117—Mr. Coates:

1. On what dates were minimum security penal institutions closed at Springhill, Nova Scotia and Blue Mountain, New Brunswick?

2. In each instance, how long had the institution in question operated and what was the inmate capacity of each institution?

3. In each instance, for the last fiscal year of operation, what was the operational budget for the institution?

4. What was the cost per inmate at both the Springhill and Blue Mountain minimum security institutions?

5. What was the cost per inmate at the same point in time per inmate at medium and maximum security institutions in Canada?

6. Were any other minimum security institutions closed out in Canada and, if so, at what locations and in each instance, what was the capacity of each of the institutions closed?

Hon. Warren Allmand (Solicitor General): 1. Springhill, September 1, 1969; Blue Mountain, December 12, 1972.

2. Springhill, August 1959 to September 1969, 108 inmates; Blue Mountain, July 1963 to December 1972, 60 inmates.
