andy, Middlebro, Rainving, mail onald, Lemieux and Nesbitt. Sir Robert Borden, in moving the djournment of the house over to-horrow (Ash Wednesday) asked that overnment orders have precedence hereafter on Thursdays and Wednes-hays. He cited the example of the British Government, which had taken every day for government business. It was agreed that Thursday and Friday of this week should be private members' day, and that beginning with next week the government orders should have precedence upon every day except Monday. This practically defers the resumption of the budges until next Tuesday.

Aore Than Five Billion Dollars Will Be Needed Before Next Year.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, Feb. 16.—It is practically definitely settled now that England will ask for another war loan of £450,000,000 to finance her from July 1 to the end of the year, but it is more than possible that the loan will be divided into two parts and is-sued July 1 and Oct. 1.
