

THE SILK-HAT SOLDIER

I saw him in a picture, and I felt I'd like to cry—

He stood in line,

The man "for mine,"

A tall silk-hatted "guy"—

Right on the call,

Silk hat and all,

He'd hurried to the cry—

For he loved England well enough for England to die.