

THE FOURTH VOLUME CONTAINS

(THE CONTINUATION OF PART III)

The Commercial Transactions of the British Empire and other Countries, from the Beginning of the Year 1783 to the Meeting of the Union Parliament in January 1801: composed from Materials of unquestionable Authenticity (mostly unpublished) extracted from the Records of Parliament, the Accounts of the Custom-house, the Mint, the Board of Trade, the Post-office, the East-India Company, the Bank of England, &c. &c.

ALSO, A LARGE APPENDIX, CONTAINING

- I) The Chronology of the principal Sovereigns of Europe after the Year 800.
- II) Tables shewing at one View, how many Pounds, Shillings, and Pennies, have been coined out of a Pound of Silver at different Times in England and Scotland, and also the Degree of Fineness of the Standard, and the Times at which the several Alterations have taken place.
- III) A Chronological Table of the Prices of Corn, and several other necessary Articles, and also of Salaries, Wages, Marriage Portions, &c. in England and Scotland, by a Comparison of which with the Tables in No. II, the real Value of Money, through all the Stages of its Diminution and Depreciation, may be ascertained with tolerable Accuracy.
- IV) A Commercial and Manufactural Gazetteer of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

TOGETHER WITH

A copious general Chronological Index.
