

CHINA'S FUTURE SEEN BY CANADIAN

Robert A. Jaffray, Home on Leave, Says International Board is Needed.

Rev. Robert A. Jaffray, son of the late Senator Robert Jaffray, and brother of the chief shareholder of The Globe, who has spent 25 years in the missionary field in South China, is at present on a visit to his brother in Toronto.

Speaking to The World on the Chinese attitude towards the international situation, Rev. Mr. Jaffray said he was a fellow traveler on the same steamer with the Chinese delegate to the peace conference. The delegate had accepted credentials from the Canton government, and had been tendered the representation of the existing government. In the course of an interesting conversation, Rev. Mr. Jaffray had expressed the opinion that it would be good policy for China to accept an international commission in which Japan would be represented, to undertake the opening up to world trade of China's resources and possibilities. The Chinese delegate to such a position would be a humiliating one for China to occupy in the new era upon which the world must now enter, but Mr. Jaffray, with occasional frankness, urged that if left to her own initiative China would be practically in the position she occupies to-day one hundred years hence, and that this is an impossible position for so large a division of the human race.

International Commission. Mr. Jaffray further said that if the economic development of China did not come under an international board, the inroads upon her rights and commerce by the Japanese could not be resisted, and in a few years the position would be much more humiliating than anything that an international commission could imply. Besides the international commission would be for a time only, until China had composed her internal questions and was able to assume capable direction of her own destiny and development.

"I do not know, of course," said Mr. Jaffray to The World, "whether the delegate will act upon my advice, but it represents my views upon existing conditions in the orient."

Will Lose in Exchange. "How about Kiasatt?" "Japan may surrender the model fortress she wrested from Germany, but it will only be as an exchange for something better. China cannot have a clash with Japan. The only thing for the Chinese to do is to put themselves in the protection of the allies, who, when they have settled the quarrels of Europe, must complete their great undertaking by exerting international influence for the welfare of China. If the situation is to rest as between Japan and China alone, the future of the Chinese is at the mercy of Japan."

"How is the missionary outlook?" "More promising and encouraging than at any period of Christian activity out there. Not only in regard to educational and medical work, which are, of course, very important, but especially in respect to the preaching of the individual message of the gospel to these people, the field is full of new promise."

Rev. Mr. Jaffray's work is at Wuchow, 300 miles inland from Hongkong.

EDWARD H. ROBINS BACK ONCE AGAIN

Popular Actor Manager Brings New Company for Season of Stock.

With his smile just as winning, and his greeting just as hearty as of old, Edward H. Robins, the actor-manager, arrived in Toronto yesterday for his fifth consecutive season in stock at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. It is characteristic of Mr. Robins' dynamic energy that when a World reporter arrived at the theatre last night, Mr. Robins had his company working on a rehearsal of the play, "Somewhere in the House," with which they are to open their Toronto season on May 12.

"Yes, you just bet I'm glad to get back to Toronto," said Mr. Robins in his dressing room. "In fact, I would rather be in this city than in any other," he said seriously. Mr. Robins was enthusiastic over the prospects of his coming season at the Alexandra. He expected the biggest and best yet from an artistic point of view. His company of twenty people is the largest that he has yet brought to Toronto, and it is by reason of this large cast that Mr. Robins expects to work out a new idea of his own, whereby only actors actually looking the part of the characters which they will portray will be given the parts.

His company is also one of the most youthful he has yet brought to this city, also he is carrying the necessary number of other people for the various types. "There's going to be a lot of surprises coming," said Mr. Robins gleefully when pressed by the reporter for the details of his coming season, but beyond that he would not say anything.

IRISH AMERICANS ARRIVE IN PARIS

Dublin, May 3.—Frank P. Walsh and the other delegates sent by the Irish societies in the United States to present the case of Ireland to the peace conference, arrived here today from Paris. They were met by several of the Irish leaders, and drove to the Mansion House, where the lord mayor received them. There will be a public reception next week. In the meantime they will have conferences with numerous public men.

The mission of the Americans is to secure safe conduct for Prof. Edward de Valera, Sinn Fein member of parliament for East Mayo; Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, and Count Plunkett, Sinn Fein member of parliament for North Roscommon, to Paris.

WORKERS' STRIKE MAY AFFECT MEATS

the support, however, of practically every other body of shipbuilders in the Dominion. Representatives of both the men and the companies are to meet at Ottawa on May 6.

Other Workers Restive. It is understood that the shipbuilders from the Dominion yards, numbering 600, who went out because of alleged discrimination against a returned man, have returned to work this morning pending an adjustment of their difficulties.

Altogether 4,400 men, including 1,800 machinists and 800 molders, are on strike, and if the provincial centres support the metal trades, coal and the meat cutters, the number will total about 14,000 throughout the province, 7,300 of these being in Toronto, all engaged in the basic industries of Ontario.

Ask Weekly Wage. Largely attended, the meeting of the Toronto local of the International Union of Garment Workers held yesterday at the Labor Temple, voted unanimously to demand that all clothing manufacturers substitute a weekly wage system for the present system of piece work. There are 1,600 men and women in the Toronto local. S. Koldovsky, vice-president of the union, stated that the lowest figure that the demands of the union would include a weekly wage of $35 for cloak and dress makers, $44 a week for skirtmakers, $45 a week for sample-makers, and $40 a week for operators. The manufacturers are asked also to guarantee work eight months a year. The lowest figure demanded is $23 for tailors, and the highest, $40 for operators. Operators in New York are demanding $50 a week, and $47 a week in the district of cloak and dress and skirtmakers as against $35 demanded by Toronto garment workers. The union also demands a 44-hour week. Mr. Koldovsky made the statement that manufacturers in Canada were known to give out work to be done at home on Sundays and late at night. The union will present its demands upon the Canadian manufacturers simultaneously with those presented by the New York garment workers. The I. Street Railway Men Want More Toronto street railway men, at a mass meeting held on Saturday evening at the Labor Temple, decided to demand both a flat rate of 55 cents a hour and an eight-hour day from the Toronto Street Railway. The schedule also provides that 25 per cent of the runs shall be made on straight time and that the eight-hour shift shall not be extended in toto beyond a 12-hour limit. The proposed 55 cents an hour is 16 cents more than the present maximum, 39 cents given by the company.

Printers to Make Demands. Printers in Toronto are presenting a schedule including a large increase in wages and a decrease in the working day, already an eight-hour day.

PAUL RADER SAYS "NEVER BE QUITTER"

Well-Known Divine Speaks to Large Gathering of Men in Massey Hall.

"There comes a crisis hour in every fellow's life that gets him by the throat," declared Paul Rader, pastor of Moody Church, Chicago, during the course of an address delivered to a large gathering of men in Massey Hall yesterday.

"I never saw a fellow yet, continuing the speaker, "who had not at one time or other put up a good clean fight to beat the game. Then just when he thought he was going right in the devilishness of temptation gets a grip on him and he says, 'Oh let her drive!'"

"I'm not here to accuse you fellows of being quitters. I've been up against the sin of life and it's a good stiff game, also a little bit discouraging. The very struggle you are making helps the devil and the lighter he will fight you. The devil has your shoulders to the mat and Jesus Christ will walk right into the trouble with you and give you comfort and cheer in your darkest hours."

The speaker then went on to outline the snares and troubles of temptation. He stated that the prevailing fashions of the women were made in hell and for the purpose of "getting a man going." "If women ever did dress like hell, it is today," he said. He spoke in horror of young women smoking cigarettes and stated that these were the methods employed by the devil "to chuck a fellow's eyes full."

"The day you make up your mind to seek Jesus, you will find Him," he continued, "and there isn't any salvation in the world besides His salvation. How easy it is without His guidance to become a shipwrecked life."

"The worst person you every handled was yourself, when it comes to a showdown, but with the aid and comfort of Jesus Christ, you will be victor over your shortcomings as He is victor over the grave."

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

EARLSCOURT

Speaking at the Men's Own Brotherhood of the Central Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, Capt. (Rev.) Dr. Maswood gave some splendid examples of fortitude among the Canadian forces during the war, and after. He spoke of the beneficial results of physical training in the army, and said the human body was a wonderful instrument to study. Some instances of bravery against tremendous odds were also placed to the credit of army training, which Dr. Maswood believed to be the best possible experience for our young manhood.

He claimed that this physical training and discipline had resulted in the success of the allied armies.

He spoke of the cases of two men—Hamilton and Mills—in Christie Street Hospital, who were suffering from serious spinal complaints, the result of an aeroplane accident, that they had to remain strapped in one position for 24 hours daily, but with it all the men were hopeful and cheerful.

Marvelous recoveries, due to medical science, were mentioned—one case, in which the transfer of a bone from a finger to replace a nose that had been shot away in France, resulting in a better shaped nasal appendage than the original organ. Rev. E. C. Hunter presided, and Thomas Summers was the soloist.

Twelve members of the Earlscourt branch of the G. W. V. A., including Comrades J. Stockley, F. Cole, W. Margrave, E. G. Griffith, S. Sinclair, W. J. Willis, Joe Wines, and others, undertook to secure automobiles for the big drive that takes place today in connection with the reparation—Y. M. C. A.—Salvation Army—and G. W. V. A. campaign. The line up began at 8 p.m. Sunday night.

Large congregations assembled at the Earlscourt Central Methodist Church Sunday on the occasion of the 17th anniversary of the church when special services were held. Rev. Peter Bryce, who is in charge of the Central Methodist churches in the Earlscourt section, presided. He has done splendid work on the lines of social and religious activity. The Sunday school has a membership of something like 2,000. The church is active in the whole Dominion. All the kindred associations are in a flourishing condition in point of numbers and financially.

In the morning Rev. C. A. Williams, pastor of Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, was the preacher and in the evening a former pastor of the church, Rev. J. H. Wallace, was in charge. Special choir singing was led by Norman Murch and the men's orchestra played selections.

The church is asking the sum of $1,000 for general church expenses.

A one-tone motor truck owned by the MacCartney Company of East Wellington street, was in collision with a St. Clair civic car on Saturday evening at the intersection of St. Clair and Bevilacqua streets. The truck was crossing the tracks at this point as the west bound car No. 101 came along which was said to have been in charge of a new motorman who failed to bring his car to a standstill, crashing into the truck, breaking the radiator, smashing the head lights, twisting the front wheels and practically wrecking the truck. The traffic was delayed for a few minutes. This is the second accident on the hill in the Earlscourt section in three days. The driver was not injured.

SILVERTHORN

The recent box social in connection with the Silverthorn branch of the G. W. V. A. was a great success, the receipts to be handed over to the building fund being $38, with an additional sum of $20 which is to be handed over later by the ladies' auxiliary. At the regular meeting of the branch it went on record protesting against the proposed new members election. The building fund for the new hall is progressing satisfactorily, and Comrade W. Ross, treasurer, will be glad to receive contributions.

TODMORDEN

"The question of good roads in the township is largely dependent on the sewerage and these improvements will come along in reasonable time," said J. A. Macdonald, third deputy reeve of York township, to The World yesterday. "The question of drainage is being gone into by the council and if a feasible scheme can be devised at a reasonable cost it will be acted upon by the council if the people want it. As far as Todmorden is concerned the people now have an opportunity to petition for their local improvements which will receive attention."

LEASIDE

St. Cuthbert's Anglican Church, Leaside, celebrated the 40th anniversary of its opening at the morning service yesterday. Rev. J. M. Lamb, rector, in his address outlined the progress of the parish during the past five years, and expressed the hope that the same advance in all branches of church activity would continue during the next five years. Special music was rendered by an augmented choir.

CHURCH TO RESIST RECTOR'S REMOVAL

Congregation of Church of the Advent Stands by Rev. H. Naylor.

There is a feeling of bitter resentment and a strongly expressed determination to resist ecclesiastical authority among the congregation of the Church of the Advent, Runnymede, of which Rev. H. Naylor has been for some time rector.

Mr. Naylor's work, and a request by the wardens for a commission of enquiry has been refused by Bishop Sweency. A farewell banquet was held at the church on Saturday, at which the speakers spoke in the highest praise of Mr. Naylor's work, and the guests unanimously expressed a determination to fight the matter to the finish.

The morning service yesterday was conducted by a student of Wycliffe, of which college Mr. Naylor himself is a graduate, and the people's warden A. Morris, officiated in the evening. When asked for a statement regarding the removal of Mr. Naylor, Bishop Sweency refused to make any explanation.

Congregation Firm. In an interview with The World last night, Mr. Morris said: "We will not accept nor will we listen to any minister other than Mr. Naylor. No matter what happens or what it entails, we are prepared to stand out and fight to the end." Mr. Morris outlined the causes and circumstances which have resulted in the present situation.

"About two years ago," said the warden, "the Rev. Mr. MacNamara, rector of St. John's parish, of which the Church of the Advent had been a mission, called a meeting of the men's council and offered the services of a minister whose qualities he lauded to the skies—and that food worker was Mr. Naylor. At this time Mr. MacNamara had seen fit to question certain usages, such as singing responses, and his interference raised a protest from the congregation at the Advent Church. Mr. Naylor had not then met his people, and refused to interfere with the matter, which was finally settled by the rector.

Again the rector of St. John's wished to have a grant of $20 from the diocesan mission discontinued, but there the wardens protested, and the matter was dropped, but while Mr. MacNamara promised that it would not be cut off, no further monies from the mission have been received.

Charges Made. Mr. Naylor was later asked by the rector to take over of $20 from the diocesan mission discontinued, and the matter was dropped, but while Mr. MacNamara promised that it would not be cut off, no further monies from the mission have been received.

Mr. Morris continued to give instances where, in his opinion, and in the opinion of the congregation, there was a lack of "British fairplay" about the whole proceeding. "Literature will later be given to the people, setting forth all the facts of the case, and at present we are determined that we will not stand for such unfair and autocratic treatment," concluded the speaker.

The Church of the Advent was started by Mr. Morris in absolutely innocent and was later made a church. During the incumbency of Mr. Naylor the congregation and finances doubled.

SAYS SHE KNOWS ALL ABOUT McCULLOUGH

Another Mysterious Letter Signed "Clever" Regarded as Joke.

An anonymous letter, bearing a Toronto postmark, was received Saturday by T. C. Robinette, K.C., counsel for Frank McCullough, the murderer, who escaped from the jail. The letter is signed "Clever" and is regarded by the Robinettes as an attempt at a joke or the action of some one mentally unbalanced on whom the McCullough case has made a deep impression.

The letter was dated April 25 and read as follows: "I will write you only truth in this—that Miss de Lavelle is absolutely innocent of the Frank McCullough escape. She had nothing to do with it whatever. She may have visited him, but did not think of his escape, but there was nothing given to McCullough by anyone's hand inside the jail. No, but outside all that we have had for his escape."

"I gave him all and helped him for the simple reason that I love him, but I will do it all myself what is to be done—not the law. He will be—by me, not by your law. I have vengeance and he will pay the penalty for what I only have suffered, not Miss de Lavelle."

"I knew him seven years ago and he promised to marry me, but years rolled by and I am not his bride. My child was born four years ago and father left me penniless, and now that I heard of him in the papers, I only then knew that he was in Canada, and I had the liberty to go; him and make him think he is free, but that is a mistake, for he is not free. By no means—he will do his sentence."

"It is no use to look for him, for there is no such man no more on earth. I come from New York and get him. I did not visit him inside the jail, but I surely did outside five times, but as I was not so lucky that all my intentions would have appeared on the first trial, but it was five different times."

"Miss de Lavelle may be only one of the unfortunates and may love him also, but she is so innocent of all this 'hat she did not know the time when the escape happened."

The letter also stated that the writer had sent in the saw and something else to the jail, but did not volunteer any information as to how it was done.
